Smith,Lorraine Leu,2023-12-05 In essays poems and dialogues the writers in Black Feminist Constellations reimagine liberation from the perspectives of radical South American and Caribbean Black women thinkers The volume s methodologically innovative approach reflects how Black women come together to theorize the world and challenges the notion that the university is the only site where knowledge can emerge A major work of intellectual history Black Feminist Constellations makes legible the epistemologies that sustain radical scholarship art and political organizing by Black women everywhere      Óscar Romero's Theological Vision Edgardo Colón-Emeric,2018-10-30 This ambitious book examines Saint Oscar Romero s words to understand how his thoughts fit into the broader context of Catholic theology On March 24 1980 Archbishop Oscar Romero was assassinated as he celebrated mass in El Salvador He was canonized as a saint by Pope Francis on October 14 2018 Edgardo Colón Emeric explores the life and thought of Romero and his theological vision which finds its focus in the mystery of the transfiguration Romero is now understood to be one of the founders of liberation theology which interprets scripture through the plight of the poor His theological vision is most succinctly expressed by his saying Gloria Dei vivens pauper The glory of God is the poor who lives God s glory was first revealed through Christ to a landless tenant farmer a market woman and an unemployed laborer and they received the power to shine from the church to the world Colón Emeric s study is an exercise in what Latino theologians call ressourcement from the margins or a return to theological foundations One of the first Latin American Church Fathers Romero s theological vision is a sign of the emergence of Christianity in the

Global South from reflection Church to source Church The hope for this study is that scholars in the fields of theology religious studies and Latin American studies will be captivated by the doctrine of this humble pastor and inspired to think more clearly and act more decisively in solidarity with the poor
