Elder Conklin and Other Stories Frank Harris,2014-11-11 upon it Why shouldn t he She had said every girl expects to be kissed And if she wanted to be kissed it was the least he could do to humour her All the while at the bottom of his heart there was bitterness He would have given much to believe that an exquisite soul animated that lovely face Perhaps she was better than she seemed He tried to smother his distrust of her till it was rendered more acute by another reflection she had got him into the quarrel with Seth Stevens He did not trouble much about it He was confident enough of his strength and the advantages of his boyish training in the gymnasium to regard the trial with equanimity Still the girls he had known in the

East would never have set two men to fight never it was not womanly Good girls were by nature peacemakers There must be something in Loo he argued almost vulgar and he shrank from the word To lessen the sting of his disappointment he pictured her to himself and strove to forget her faults Elder Conklin, and other stories by Frank Harris James Thomas Harris,1895
