Elder Law Lawrence A. Frolik,Alison McChrystal Barnes,2007-01-01 Elderlaw United States,Lawrence A. Frolik,Alison Patrucco Barnes,1992 Consolidated Laws of New York New York (State),2007 The Organic and Other General Laws of Oregon Oregon,1874 Legal Information Kent Olson,1998-11-19 Now at last there is a comprehensive and readable guide designed to help librarians scholars and the general public quickly find the legal information they need While most legal research books focus on the needs of beginning law students or litigants Legal Information takes a broader view of the law including its value in other disciplines It explains why legal information exists in certain formats and describes how to get the most out of the major legal reference tools It also suggests the best sources for different kinds of information and explains how these resources compare to other available materials Federal Rules of Evidence Handbook ,2001 An Index to All the Laws of the State of Illinois, Both Public and Private, which are Not Printed at Large in Gross' Statutes of 1869 Except Private Acts of 1869 Eugene L. Gross,William L. Gross,1869 The Revised Statutes, Codes and General Laws of the State of New York New York (State),1896 Research Handbook on Law, Society and Ageing Sue Westwood,Nancy J. Knauer,2024-08-06 In an era where the population is rapidly ageing this timely Research Handbook addresses the wide ranging social and legal issues concerning older people Theories on Law and Ageing Israel Doron,2008-09-25 This book is about trying to answer questions These questions were well introduced by Prof Margaret Hall in the opening of her chapter in this book The fundamental idea of law and aging as a discrete category of legal principle and theory is controversial how and why are older adults or seniors or elders the very terminology is controversial and fraught with difficulties a discrete and distinct group for whom special legal thought and treatment is justified For some a category of law and aging is inherently paternalistic suggesting that older persons are like children especially in need of the protection of the law In this sense the argument continues the category itself internalizes ageist presumptions about older adults and is therefore inherently flawed and even harmful If certain older adults are because of physical or mental infirmities genuinely in need of an enhanced level of legal protection this entitlement should be conceptualized in terms of their disability older adults are not a distinct group but an arbitrarily delineated demographic category which contains within it any number of

groups that are legitimately distinct for the purposes of legal theory the disabled women persons of colour Aboriginal persons rich and poor etc Indeed the artificial category of older adults may be seen as obfuscating submerging these more meaningful distinctions
