Elderly Population In Developed And Developing World Policies, Problems And Perspectives P. Krishnan & K. Mahadevan, 2008-09-01 Challenges Before the Elderly Seethapapanagari Vijaya Kumar, S. Vijaya Kumar, 1995 Gerontology is a new field of research attracting the attention of social scientists planners policy makers administrators and non governmental agencies all over the world The aim behind this volume is to share valuable experiences and research findings of the experts at this volume focuses at the most fundamental issues of gerontology This work will certainly be useful to the policy makers administrators academicians and scholars of this specialized field working in India and other countries of the world Population, Migration and Settlement in Australia and the Asia-Pacific Natascha Klocker, Olivia Dun, 2018-12-07 The chapters in this book reflect on the work of seminal Australian geographer the late Professor Graeme Hugo Graeme Hugo was widely respected because of his impressive contributions to scholarship and policy in the fields of migration population and development which spanned several decades This collection of works contains contributions from authors whose own research has been influenced by Hugo and includes numerous authors who worked closely with Hugo throughout his career The collection provides an opportunity to reflect on Hugo s legacy and also to foreground contemporary scholarship in his key areas of research focus The chapters are organised into two thematic threads Part I contains works relating to Population Migration and Settlement in Australia while Part II focuses on Labour and Environmental Migration in the Asia Pacific Together these two thematic threads provide broad coverage of Graeme Hugo s key areas of research focus The chapters also serve as a reminder of Hugo s steadfast concern with producing careful scholarship for the public good and seek to prompt continued work in this vein The chapters originally published in special issues in Australian Geographer The Elderly Population in Developed and Developing World Parameswara Krishnan, K. Mahadevan, 1992 Collection of articles Annotated Bibliography on Ageing and the Elderly in Singapore Grace Khei Mie Wong, Giok Ling Ooi, Kai Hong Phua, 1999 The Paradigm of International Social Development Murli Desai, 2013-10-30 This book takes a historical approach to analyse ideologies policy approaches and development systems that have constructed the paradigm of international social development It aims to review the social construction of development by tracing the historical dynamics of the modern ideologies and political economy of industrialization colonization the Cold War and globalisation to examine the process of reconstruction of development as social development based on alternate ideologies and alternate policy approaches and review the roles played by the development systems and to trace the history of social policy approaches from welfare to rights based universal comprehensive and preventative social policies for social development and identify the roles played by non government organizations and the social work profession Older People in Natural Disasters Junko Ōtani, 2010 Japan s Great Hanshin Earthquake of 1995 destroyed the homes livelihoods and communities of many elderly people Some of the most vulnerable survivors spent up to five years in temporary shelters before settling into publicly subsidized apartments or dispersing into the general population Public scrutiny of the post earthquake recovery drew attention to the challenges of community generation and the loneliness isolation and death experienced by elderly earthquake victims Bringing together quantitative and qualitative analysis of media discourse public policy and ethnographic fieldwork this book examines the earthquake s long term effects of temporary shelters and public reconstruction housing for elderly residents The first study to utilize NVivo qualitative research software in a Japanese research context this is an original contribution to natural disaster literature as well as health and welfare policy in societies that like Japan are undergoing rapid urbanization and population aging Ageing K. Pappathi,2007 Human life in all stages is blessed with growth and development Ageing is one of the significant stages of this process It is a universal phenomenon applicable to all living organisms The United Nations declared the year 1999 as International Year of Older Persons It focused on Towards a society for all ages where young and old get mutual help in bringing equal social order of the society Hence India formulated the National Policy on Older Persons in 1999 aiming to provide a happy ageing atmosphere

IBSS: Sociology: 1993 Vol 43 International Committee for Social Science Information and Documentation,1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in sociology in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics one of the world s leading social science institutions Published annually the IBSS is available in four subject areas anthropology economics political science and sociology Ageing in Asia Roger Goodman,Sarah Harper,2013-09-13 The volume takes four key themes related to ageing the experience of old age intergenerational relations economics of and social policy for ageing longevity and the culture of ageing and examines how these issues are emerging in different regions of Asia specifically the former Soviet Union South Asia China Japan and South East Asia In placing these Asian cases studies in the broader context of debates about and policies on ageing more generally it brings them into the mainstream of comparative research on ageing from which they have been too often excluded As the studies show the relationship between ageing and poverty is a complex one and often reflects policy towards the aged rather than that the aged themselves are unproductive and dependent Ageing moreover can no longer be considered as simply a national question we also need to consider the implications of its global dimension in terms of issues such as human rights and quality of life The Fiction of Doris Lessing Ratna Raman,2021-10-15 Doris Lessing 1919 2013 a prolific contemporary author was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 2007 for her life work Examining five decades of Lessing s unique life narrative strategies and the literary traditions that she drew upon and improvised this book highlights her extraordinary significance as a writer of our times and for our times Lessing s fiction and non fiction provide a seminal understanding of the key issues that shaped the twentieth century Autodidactic and keenly interested in the world around her Lessing flagged the problems of racism in Africa the inequity of class in modern England the limitations of white middle class women s movements that overlooked the rights of women across race and class the marginalisation of individuals the horror of nuclear war and the need for disarmament and the hazardous global expansion in the face of unrelenting technological progress Further she raised the concern of the atomisation of modern families violence and the urgent need for alternate modes of viewing voicing anxieties decades ahead of other contemporary writers Making futuristic projections through innumerable genres of writing such as realistic narratives memoirs diaries and science fiction Lessing examines myth psychoanalysis and Marxist perspectives engaging with a gamut of experiences that have defined modernity and sets up feminist blueprints that challenge atrophying patriarchal hegemonies Elderly Care in India S. Irudaya Rajan,Gayathri Balagopal,2017-02-21 This volume highlights a range of issues underpinning elder care in India with particular focus on the challenges that India faces in caring for the elderly In addition to the very limited state support and near total dependence on the family for long term social care and economic support the changing dynamics between generations in the family structure and privatization of health care in general create new challenges that need to be addressed Although care plays a significant role in the well being of the elderly there is not much research available from India This volume draws on field based evidence and the legal framework in India to understand the ways in which care is organized for the elderly and to locate the main sources of care provision The book addresses key themes such as shrinking of traditional support base of the elderly trajectory of old age homes in India and care arrangements for the elderly within the community Written by academics and practitioners in the field of gerontology this book is an informative resource for demographers gerontologists social scientists studying aging and human rights and legal experts working with the aged Older Women and Well-Being Mala Kapur Shankardass,2021-09-24 This book provides deep insights into concerns related to the well being in older women across the globe Written by experts in the field it explores social roles health quality of life well being as well as concerns related to abuse and neglect impacting the health of older women It discusses important conditions for the holistic health of older women from different perspectives and provides practical guidelines towards improving the overall status of older women s well being in society The chapters analyze the wider implications of older women s experiences as family members drivers of economies and members of a diverse population worldwide Covering a focus which is applicable to countries across continents whether developed or developing the book has an overall appeal to academicians health care policy makers as well as researchers in areas such as aging gerontology social work and psychology A City for All Jo Beall,1997 By the turn of the century more than half the world s population will live in urban areas This rapid pace of urbanization is forcing a rethinking of development priorities and this book explores some of those initiatives An Introduction to Psychology Shilpa Pandit,2025-03-11 This textbook provides an essential contextually sensitive and culturally relevant grounding in Psychology that sets the base for future studies Replete with discussions on current themes and debates in the discipline its interdisciplinary linkages are relevant in the current times in terms of their contributions and application This volume addresses the overarching questions of the discipline with chapters organised to discuss psychological concepts theories and principles in the light of cultural world views where culture and the psyche are interdependent It discusses the indigenous views of self and consciousness as well as contemporary applications of psychology in the global world This book designed for a global readership would be useful to the students and teachers of Psychology Applied Psychology and Sociology and Social Work Public Health Gender and Women Studies

Aging and Adult Development in the Developing World

Frank E. Eyetsemitan, James T. Gire, 2003-02-28 Most studies of human development in developing societies have focused on the childhood stage and in a few cases exploration has extended up to adolescence since this age group represents about half the population in developing societies The developed world however is experiencing a surge in the elderly population and this has spurred its study There is growing recognition that studies are needed in order to understand aging in all contexts and to discover how the experience may differ in developing and developed societies In this book the authors discuss the appropriateness or inappropriateness of applying Western theories and perspectives to studies of aging in the developing world The present study critically examines the major theories in the area of aging and adult development covering such domains as the physical psychological and social aspects of aging death and dying and social and public policies Applying the concepts of individualism and collectivism as well as the global and environmental dimensions of the developing world the authors have earmarked the theories that seem suitable only to the developed world and those that appear to be universally relevant
