Haigler,Kathryn B. Mims,Jack A. Nottingham,1998 Caring for persons with chronic illnesses or disabilities is a rewarding endeavor but it often places extreme demands on those providing care Caregivers need both education and support to understand their caregiving roles and to cope with the difficult situations they face All too often there is a chasm between professionals who are part of the formal caregiving system and family members friends and neighbors who provide daily care The Caring for You Caring for Me education and support program is a valuable tool for use in providing caregivers with education and support The program is designed to bring formal professional and informal lay family caregivers together to gain a better understanding of each other s perspectives on what it means to be a caregiver with the hope that in the process both will learn to do it better The program is based on caregiving research and the expertise of frontline caregivers The Leader s Guide contains everything needed to conduct a ten hour education and support program for caregivers informational content layouts for overhead transparencies and suggested group activities The companion Participant s Manual supports the presentation providing a workbook for class activities a suggested reading list and a compendium of national sources of help for caregivers Caring for You Caring for Me was developed by the Rosalynn Carter Institute under the guidance of the West Central Georgia Caregivers Network CARE NET The Rosalynn Carter Institute was established in 1987 Its mission is to understand the process of caregiving and discover new ways to benefit both formal and informal caregivers The Institute supports the premise that caregivers and care receivers can be served most effectively through the collaborative efforts of formal and informal caregivers academicians public and private services and organizations representing caregivers and recipients of care

Intimate and Personal Care with People with Learning Disabilities Steven Carnaby, Paul Cambridge, 2006 This book examines aspects of care such as training ethnicity sexuality and competence in practice Topics include the nature of touch how physical contact is intended and experienced carers duty of care and risk management The book also explores management considerations of best value care standards performance monitoring and inspection

Family Care in HIV/AIDS Premilla D'Cruz, 2004-06-30 This book vividly describes family care in HIV AIDS through the lived experiences of caregivers and care receivers It contributes to our knowledge not only because of the contemporary relevance of family caregiving but also because of its focus on HIV AIDS which being a relatively new disease is little understood yet poses unique challenges due to its stigmatising long drawn debilitating and terminal nature Based on a study conducted in Mumbai Family Care in HIV AIDS captures the lived experiences of 10 caregivers and seven care receivers belonging to diverse socio economic groups and traditional as well as non traditional family settings Overall the book provides valuable insights into a range of important issues related to caregiving in family settings while identifying areas for intervention and further research In addition it overcomes many gaps identified in the substantive area of family care by Western researchers

Compendium of Products by NIDRR Grantees & Contractors, 1993 Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today
