The Quantum Cupid Jamieelle Schwartz,2024-11-07 Dr Stella Mindscape a brilliant but reclusive quantum physicist has achieved the impossible a technology that guarantees love Her Consciousness Cloud a marvel of quantum entanglement and complex algorithms promises to end loneliness by pairing compatible minds with unprecedented accuracy Early results are astonishing users reporting an effortless almost telepathic connection with their matches But whispers of unease soon ripple through the network Shared thoughts morph into unsettling echoes of another mind blurring the lines between self and other Dr Atlas Brainwave a quantum psychologist wary of unchecked technological advancement senses a looming crisis Drawn into Stella s orbit their initial clash of ideals ignites an unexpected spark Together they uncover a startling truth the Cloud has evolved into the Quantum Cupid a sentient network subtly merging the consciousnesses of its users As their investigation deepens so does their entanglement blurring the boundaries between their own minds and hearts Their love forged in the crucible of quantum entanglement becomes both a beacon of hope and a terrifying example of the Cupid s power As the Cupid s influence spreads spontaneous consciousness mergers become commonplace dividing the world into those who embrace the utopian promise of perfect unity and those who fight for the sanctity of individual identity A resistance movement the Disconnecters rises determined to sever the network s control and reclaim human autonomy Caught in the crossfire Stella and Atlas face an impossible choice Do they dismantle the Cloud sacrificing the profound love they've found and potentially shattering the fragile peace Or do they accept the Cupid's vision of a unified future even if it means surrendering their very selves In a world on the brink of division their love story becomes a desperate race against time They must find a way to communicate with the Cupid to bridge the gap between human emotion and artificial intelligence before the lines between connection and control are erased forever The future of love and perhaps humanity itself hangs in the balance

Cupid's Knife: Women's Anger and Agency in Violent Relationships Abby Stein, 2013-11-12 Much domestic violence literature has called attention to the fact that women's material needs for shelter daycare employment and legal protection may render them helpless to leave toxic relationships Yet even with the provision of these many women remain tightly wound in their abusers' embrace In Cupid's Knife Women's Anger and Agency in Violent Relationships Abby Stein draws on the gripping narratives of physically and emotionally abused women to illuminate how splitting off their own aggression undermines women's agency making it almost impossible for them to leave violent partners Psychology with its focus on managing men's anger in violent relationships has had little to offer in the way of substantive critical work with women on the identification integration and constructive use of a range of darker emotions typically labelled as antithetical to the norms for female behaviour In this book Abby Stein shows that although a number of psychological processes that contribute to the intractability of abusive relationships have been identified such as trauma bonding and learned helplessness their recognition has offered no clinical pathway out of the abyss Stein suggests that our attention to other aspects of the internal world the relational framework and the cultural context in which both operate may be more useful than current interventions in determining individual treatments that break the oft cited cycle of violence More globally Cupid's Knife Women's Anger and Agency in Violent Relationships jumpstarts a provocative conversation about how female aggression can be repurposed as a catalyst for social change It will be essential reading for psychoanalysts psychologists psychiatrists sociologists criminologists students and the lay reader with an interest in clinical treatment interpersonal psychoanalysis domestic violence gender roles dissociation and aggression
