Benczes,Veronika Széld,2024-11-04 Anger is one of the basic emotions of human emotional experience informing and guiding many of our choices and actions Although it has received considerable scholarly attention in a number of disciplines including linguistics a basic question has still remained unresolved why do variations in the folk model of anger exist across languages if it is indeed a basic emotion rooted in largely universal bodily experience By drawing on a wide selection of comparable linguistic data from dozens of languages including a number of less researched languages this volume provides the most comprehensive account of what is universal and what is variable in the folk model of anger and why It also investigates the role that metonymies might play in the emergence of anger related metaphors and in what ways context influences or shapes anger metaphors and thereby the resulting folk model of anger No such volume exists in the cognitive linguistic literature on anger or on emotions for that matter The book is thus an essential contribution to the study of anger and will serve as basic reading for any researcher interested in how the conceptualization of anger is constructed via the interplay of bodily experience language and the larger cultural context Everyday Balinese I Gusti Made

Sutjaja,2013-01-29 This is a concise and user friendly guide to the Balinese language Everyday Balinese is targeted to anyone who wishes to learn to speak colloquial Balinese There are 23 lessons in the book each with a dialogue that centers around the Balinese daily life These realistic beginner Balinese dialogues are a great way to learn Balinese as it is really spoken The dialogue is presented twice The first version representing the lumrah or common Balinese the second the alus or refined Balinese Both versions are exactly the same grammatically the difference lies in the word choice Lumrah or common words are used by participants of equal social status in a conversation and it reflects intimacy and informality among the users Alus or refined words are associated with distancing and formality among users in a conversation Each lesson contains a section on the grammar an word function as well as a list of words in both the lumrah and alus forms followed by their Indonesian and English equivalents Each lesson ends with a section on sentence construction how to use the structures taught to make simple sentences The book has a pronunciation guide at the front and a section on greeting ordinal numbers and a handy dictionary at the end The dictionary is arranged alphabetically by Balinese followed by their Indonesian and English equivalents Education in Indonesia Zulfa Sakhiyya,Teguh Wijaya Mulya,2023-07-13 This book offers a critical analysis on

Indonesian education by drawing from various critical perspectives and theoretical frameworks to explore persistent challenges and social inequality problems in the education sector Critical perspectives are important to reveal how education is not a neutral mechanistic process of cultivating the knowledge and skills of future generation Instead it is a battleground in which competing visions ideologies discourses religious values and political interests struggle for dominance in a given society In each of the sections contributors draw upon specific case studies and employ critical theories to analyze power relations or to identify and destabilize underlying structures dominant discourses hegemonic knowledge policies or practices Some authors also highlight data evidencing inequities inequalities or injustices in Indonesian education system As a handbook the emphasis on critical perspectives is useful to identify and evaluate the blind spots of dominant policy discourses and their pedagogical consequences The plurality of critical approaches also means that this book is necessarily multidisciplinary A unique feature of this book is the fact that most authors are Indonesian academics who bring with them tacit knowledge of practices and issues Overall this book enriches the literature by bringing together different disciplinary
