Everyday Life in the Harem Babs Rule,1983      The Objects and Textures of Everyday Life in Imperial Britain

Janet C. Myers,Deirdre H. McMahon,2017-05-15 Focusing on everyday life in nineteenth century Britain and its imperial possessions from preparing tea to cleaning the kitchen from packing for imperial adventures to arranging home decor the essays in this collection share a common focus on materiality the nitty gritty elements that helped give shape and meaning to British self definition during the period Each essay demonstrates how preoccupations with common household goods and habits fueled contemporary debates about cultural institutions ranging from personal matters of marriage and family to more overtly political issues of empire building While existing scholarship on material culture in the nineteenth century has centered on artifacts in museums and galleries this collection brings together disparate fields history of design landscape history childhood studies and feminist and postcolonial literary studies to focus on ordinary objects and practices with specific attention to how Britons of all classes established the tenets of domesticity as central to individual happiness national security and imperial hegemony      Everyday Life in Ancient Mesopotamia Jean Bottéro,André Finet,2001-09-05 Described by the editor as unpretentious roamings on the odd little byways of the history of ancient Mesopotamia these 15 articles were originally published in the French journal L'Histoire and are designed to serve as an introductory sampling of the historical research on the lost civilization Chapters explore cuisine sexuality women's rights architecture magic and medicine myth legend and other aspects of Mesopotamian life Originally published as Initiation à l'Orient ancien Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR      Daily Life in the Ottoman Empire Mehrdad Kia,2011-08-17 This book provides a general overview of the daily life in a vast empire which contained numerous ethnic linguistic and religious communities The Ottoman Empire was an Islamic imperial monarchy that existed for over 600 years At the height of its power in the 16th and 17th centuries it encompassed three continents and served as the core of global interactions between the east and the west And while the Empire was defeated after World War I and dissolved in 1920 the far reaching effects and influences of the Ottoman Empire are still clearly visible in today's world cultures Daily Life in the Ottoman Empire allows readers to gain critical insight into the pluralistic social and cultural history of an empire that ruled a vast region extending from Budapest in Hungary to Mecca in Arabia Each chapter presents an in depth analysis of a particular aspect of daily life in the Ottoman Empire      The Everyday Life Bible Joyce Meyer,2018-04-10 With practical commentaries articles and features this new amplified version of 1 New York Times bestselling author Joyce Meyer's popular study Bible will help you live out your faith In the decade since its original publication The Everyday Life Bible has sold 1.1 million copies taking its place as an invaluable resource on the Word of God Simultaneously Joyce Meyer's renown as one of the world's leading practical Bible teachers has grown as she continues to study and teach daily This new edition updates Joyce's notes and commentary to reflect the changes made in the revision of the Amplified Bible which refreshes the English and refines the amplification for relevance and clarity The result is The Everyday Life Bible that is now easier to read and better than ever to study understand and apply to your everyday life      New Spaces and Old Frontiers Salma Ahmed Nageeb,2004-01-01 Salma Nageeb s book provides case studies and analysis of the lives of four Muslim women living in Khartoum the capital of Sudan Nageeb examines how these women negotiate their social space locating their daily struggles within the increasingly rigid Islamic practice in Sudan The women express resistance and cultural accommodation in different ways while some choose to instrumentalize state and religious rules and rhetoric for their own aims others stretch the boundaries with gentle persistence These case studies provide a unique dimension to Nageeb s important sociological and social anthropological analysis of everyday life in the context of globalization and Islamization      From Berlin to Bagdad and Babylon John Augustine Zahm,1922      NIV, Real-Life Devotional Bible for Women Zondervan,2013-03-19 As women we want to fully live up to our God given potential But we fall victim to the messages the world whispers in our ears You need to buy all of this stuff in order to feel complete You d be a lot happier if you had a different husband If you re not super mom and you can t do it all you aren t good enough The reality is what the world tells us isn t true If we listened to these messages our lives would become harried empty and phony Instead we need to listen to the messages that God gives us in his Word A great place to start is Proverbs 31 The woman described in this passage seems like the ideal woman and she is But even more she is real She is authentic and true with a heart for God a heart for her family and a heart for her community How do you become that woman It s a journey and it happens by the choices you make every day The NIV Real Life Devotional Bible for Women will help you become the woman you want to be With insightful daily devotions from Lysa TerKeurst and the women at Proverbs 31 Ministries this Bible helps you maintain life s balance in spite of today s hectic pace The 365 daily devotions inspire you to live authentically as a woman of God      Everyday Life in Early India Michael Edwardes,1969      Mobile Narratives Eleftheria Arapoglou,Mónika Fodor,Jopi Nyman,2013-08-15 Emphasizing the role of travel and migration in the performance and transformation of identity this volume addresses representations of travel mobility and migration in 19th 21st century travel writing literature and media texts In so doing the book analyses the role of the various cultural ethnic gender and national encounters pertinent to narratives of travel and migration in transforming and problematizing the identities of both the travelers and travelees enacting in the borderzones between cultures While the individual essays by scholars from a wide range of countries deal with a variety of case studies from various historical spatial and cultural locations they share a strong central interest in the ways in which the narratives of travel contribute to the imagining of ethnic encounters and how they have acted as sites of transformation and transculturation from the early nineteenth century to the present day In addition to discussing textual representations of travel and migration the volume also addresses the ways in which cultural texts themselves travel and are reconstructed in various cultural settings The analyses are particularly attentive to the issues of globalization and migration which provide a general frame for interpretation What distinguishes the volume from existing books is its concern with travel and migration as ways of forging transcultural identities that are able to subvert existing categorizations and binary models of identity formation In so doing it pays particular attention to the performance of identity in various spaces of cultural encounter ranging from North America to the East of Europe putting particular emphasis on the representation of intercultural and ethnic encounters □□□ □□□□ Jason Thompson,2002 Looking at encounters of European travelers with Egypt in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this collection of essays focuses on the experience of the less well known travelers and institutions Contributors include Lisa Bernasek Briony Llewellyn A J Mills Charles Newton John David Regan John Rodenbeck John Ruffle Sarah Searight Nicholas Warner Vol 23 No 2 A Female Poetics of Empire Julia Kuehn,2013-10-30 Many well known male writers produced fictions about colonial spaces and discussed the advantages of realism over romance and vice versa in the art of fiction debate of the 1880s but how did female writers contribute to colonial fiction This volume links fictional non fictional and pictorial representations of a colonial otherness with the late nineteenth century artistic concerns about representational conventions and possibilities The author explores these texts and images through the postcolonial framework of exoticism arguing that the epistemological dilemma of a self encountering an other results in the interrelated predicament to find poetic modalities mimetic realistic and documentary on the one hand romantic fantastic and picturesque on the other that befit an exotic representation Thus women writers did not only participate in the making of colonial fictions but also in the late nineteenth century artistic debate about the nature of fiction This book maps the epistemological concerns of exoticism and of difference self and other home and away familiarity and strangeness onto the representational modes of realism and romance The author focuses exclusively on female novelists travel writers and painters of the turn of the century exotic and especially on neglected authors of academically under researched genres such as the bestselling novel and the travelogue The Color Black Beeta Baghoolizadeh,2024-02-23 Beeta Baghoolizadeh examines the twin processes of enslavement and erasure of Black people in Iran during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries showing how following the abolition of slavery in 1929 Iranian society collectively forgot and ignored its history of racism and slavery The Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1910 Encyclopaedia Britannica: Gichtel-Harmonium Hugh Chisholm,1910 This eleventh edition was developed during the encyclopaedia s transition from a British to an American publication Some of its articles were written by the best known scholars of the time and it is considered to be a landmark encyclopaedia for scholarship and literary style The Encyclopædia Britannica ,1910 The Encyclopædia Britannica: Gichtel-Harmonium ,1910 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,James Louis Garvin,1926 Diagnosing Empire Narin Hassan,2016-04-08 Examining the emerging figure of the woman doctor and her relationship to empire in Victorian culture Narin Hassan traces both amateur and professional doctoring by British women travelers in colonial India and the Middle East Hassan sets the scene by offering examples from Victorian novels that reveal the rise of the woman doctor as a fictional trope Similarly medical advice manuals by Victorian doctors aimed at families traveling overseas emphasized how women should maintain and manage healthy bodies in colonial locales For Lucie Duff Gordon Isabel Burton Anna Leonowens among others doctoring natives secured them access to their private lives and cultural traditions Medical texts and travel guides produced by practicing women doctors like Mary Scharlieb illustrate the relationship between medical progress and colonialism They also helped support women s medical education in Britain and the colonies of India and the Middle East Colonial subjects themselves produced texts in response to colonial and medical reform and Hassan shows that a number of New Indian women including Krupabai Satthianadhan participated actively in the public sphere through their involvement in health reform In her epilogue Hassan considers the continuing tradition of women s autobiographical narrative inspired by travel and medical knowledge showing that in the twentieth and twenty first century memoirs of South Asian and Middle Eastern women doctors the problem of the Woman Question as shaped by medical discourses endures     The White Devil's Mate Lewis Stanton Palen,1926
