Letters to My Mother Mary Ruth

Borg,2009-10-27 I knew I liked to write when I was a teenager locking myself in my room I was angry frustrated and needed a positive outlet I was tired of breaking things I was sad having to pick up pieces of my little treasures So I picked up a pencil to write about how I felt and why I was being self destructive I was determined to find a way to diffuse the confusion in my head Taught very early to pray I'd put my prayers on paper Seeing something written brought me back into reality I had a reference point Something I could read over and over to remind myself who I was and that I would be okay This is my story of survival My journey from the traumatic experience of being molested countless times by my step father while living within the strict religious practices of Jehovah's Witnesses to my healing process with Parents United I thought my life of confusion mistrust and low self esteem could never change As I got older I attracted more dysfunction in my choices I didn't know I could change that I didn't know any better I became afraid for my children I thought I was crazy and didn't have good parenting skills After years of therapy I learned to have control over my life and how to take the power back that I kept giving away I am no longer a victim It has been a long and twisty road Today I am proud to be happy healthy and productive in my world I am proud to be a survivor I hope to inspire others and give them hope that the craziness in their heads can go away I want to keep talking about this until the cycle is broken and all children are safe

Transforming the Republic of Letters April Shelford, 2007 A multi faceted study of intellectual transformation in early modern Europe as seen through the eyes of a leading French scholar and cleric Pierre Daniel Huet 1630 1721 Early modern Europe's most extensive commonwealth the Republic of Letters could not be found on any map This republic had patriotic citizens but no army it had its own language but no frontiers From its birth during the Renaissance the Republic of Letters long remained a small and close knit elite community linked by international networks of correspondence sharing an erudite neo Latin culture In the late seventeenth century however it confronted fundamental challenges that influenced its transition to the more public inclusive and vernacular discourse of the Enlightenment Transforming the Republic of Letters is a cultural and intellectual history that chronicles this transition to modernity from the perspective of the internationally renowned scholar Pierre Daniel Huet 1630 1721 Under Shelford's direction Huet guides us into the intensely social intellectual world of salons scientific academies and literary academies while his articulate critiques illumine a combative world of Cartesians versus anti Cartesians ancients versus moderns Jesuits versus Jansenists and salonnières versus humanist scholars Transforming the Republic of Letters raises questions of critical importance in Huet's era and our own about defining sharing and controlling access to knowledge April G Shelford is Assistant Professor in the History Department at American University Washington D C
