environmentally focused story about sisterhood adventure and activism perfect for fans of The Last Cuentista and The City of Ember Twelve year old Erie has never lived life fully in the sunlight After destructive wildfires wreaked havoc on the world around her the government came up with a plan engineer a plant that cannot burn Thus the fire resistant lockwood was born The lockwood protects Erie and her hometown of Prine but it grows incredibly fast and must be cut back every morning Only the town's youngest and smallest citizens can fit between the branches and tame the plant Citizens just like Erie But one evening Erie uncovers a shocking secret that leads her to question the rules of Prine Alongside her older sister Hurona she'll journey from the only home she's known and realize that the world is much more complicated than she'd ever imagined Packed with surprising twists and a cast of courageous characters this gripping novel encourages readers to stand up for justice and challenge the status quo

All the Year Round, 1891 The Road Builder Nicholas Hershnow, 2001-05-07 Set against the lush background of rural Africa this luminous and wise novel follows a young couple as they confront a world of myth belief and mysteries Will and Kate Haslin have barely begun their relationship when they journey to Central Africa hoping to chase down family secrets Kate's willful and distant Uncle Pers is dying and she sees one last chance to uncover his shadowy past and After reaching Ngemba with only the most vague idea about what life in Africa requires and with a concrete goal to uncover the shadowy past of Kate's willful and dying Uncle Pers After reaching Ngemba with only vague ideas about what life in Africa requires the young Americans must reshape themselves inside a culture without expectation And when they learn that Uncle Pers may be The Road Builder a mysterious figure with a colonial connection the dangers they face turn personal In the tense and hazy village history merges with myth fable and even gossip to create unusual new truths It's an isolated world of realists and visionaries and will test every belief that Kate and Will hold dear With the seductive prose of a gifted storyteller The Road Builder weaves sophisticated questions about the nature of truth into an epic yet personal story about romance and exploration

Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1978 Flowers of France, 1906 All the Queen's Men Peter Brimacombe, 2011-10-24 Elizabeth I was the last English monarch truly to rule the nation she inherited a weak and divided kingdom yet relentlessly fashioned it into a major world power and decisively defeated the mightiest invasion fleet ever to approach our shores Her relationships with the key men in the kingdom were vital to the success of her reign Her greatest attributes were a shrewd judgement of human nature coupled with the unerring ability to choose and motivate men During a long and glorious reign she surrounded herself with the ablest most energetic and fearless minds in the kingdom Her retinue was entirely male but the only man she did not choose was a husband although there was certainly no shortage of suitors Elizabeth was devoutly religious but embraced the new learning with calculated discrimination She inspired magnificent architecture whilst her sea captains sailed great oceans to discover new shores and founded a mighty overseas empire Centre stage in these heady days of new ideas and new horizons was the royal court a colourful kaleidoscope of glittering courtiers and important foreign dignitaries all trying to

S. Eligeti, 2021-10-28 Garland of words is a collection of poems all about small hopes on love Not trying to dissect romance we're all naturally driven to let madness prevail when it comes to that But when it seems to do more harm than good then it's best to be reminded that perhaps there's an imbalance at the core of it all We energetically feed what we love and anything loved more than ourselves overpowers us This of course in no way implies that we should withhold our love for others as if it were in finite supply but that we should never leave ourselves empty handed Because that places within us expectations from the one we love to fill our void And that's a burden too heavy for anyone to bear for another Modern Chemistry and Its Wonders Geoffrey Martin, 1915
