The Intelligent Woman's Guide to Socialism and Capitalism Bernard Shaw, I have never been in America therefore I am free from the delusion commonly entertained by the people who happen to have been born there that they know all about it and that America is their country in the same sense that Ireland is my country by birth and England my country by adoption and conquest You dear madam are an American in the sense that I am a European except that the American States have a language in common and are federated and the European states are still on the tower of Babel and are separated by tariff fortifications When I hear people asking why America does not join the League of Nations I have to point out to them that America is a League of Nations and sealed the covenant of her solidity as such by her blood more than sixty years ago whereas the affair at Geneva is not a League of Nations at all but only a so far unsuccessful attempt to coax Europe to form one at the suggestion of a late American President with the result that the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs makes occasional trips to Geneva and on returning reassures the British House of Commons by declaring that in spite of all Woodrow Wilsonic temptations to combine with other nations he remains an Englishman first last and all the time that the British Empire comes before everything with him and that it is on this understanding and this alone that he consents to discuss with foreigners any little matters in which he can oblige them without detriment to the said reserved interests And this attitude seems to us in England so natural so obvious so completely a matter of course that the newspapers discuss the details of Mr Chamberlain's report of his trip without a word about the patriotic exordium which reduces England's membership of the League to absurdity Now your disadvantage in belonging to a league of nations instead of to a nation is that if you belong to New York or Massachusetts and know anything beyond the two mile radius of which you are the centre you probably know much more of England France and Italy than you do of Texas or Arizona though you are expected as an American to know all about America Yet I never met an American who knew anything about America except the bits she had actually set eyes on or felt with her boots and even of that she could hardly see the wood for the trees By comparison I may be said to know almost all about America I am far enough off to get a good general view and never having assumed as the natives do that a knowledge of America is my intuitional birthright I have made enquiries read books availed myself of the fact that I seem to be personally an irresistible magnet for every wandering American and even gathered something from the recklessly confidential letters which every American lady who has done anything unconventional feels obliged to write me as a testimony to the ruinous efficacy of my books and plays I could and should have drawn all the instances in this book from American life were it not that America is such a fool's paradise that no American would have believed a word of them and I should have been held up in exact proportion to my accuracy and actuality as a grossly ignorant and prejudiced Britisher defaming the happy West as ludicrously as the capitalist West defames Russia What I tell you of England you will believe What I could tell you of America might provoke you to call on me with a gun Also it would lead you to class me as a bitter enemy to America whereas I assure you that though I do not adore your country with the passion professed by English visitors at public banquets when you have overwhelmed them with your reckless hospitality I give it a good deal of my best attention as a very interesting if still very doubtful experiment in civilization A Woman's Guide to Living Alone Pamela Stone, 2001 Practical advice and personal stories to help women successfully ease into a new and full lifestyle after the termination of a marriage the end of a relationship or the loss of a loved one Cover A Woman's Guide to Knowing What You Believe Patty Houser, 2015-09-29 For All Women Who Want Faith that Engages Their Hearts and Minds God has given every woman the ability to have an extraordinary faith one that involves both the heart and the mind Yet many women's faith is grounded solely in their hearts leaving them unable to defend their faith or susceptible to the latest spiritual fads In this book Patty includes real life stories and examples including her own experience coming to Christ after a ten year search for truth She reveals how beliefs are not just about the intellect they play an active role in behavior in relationships and in families Finally she demonstrates how you can share and defend your faith to those you love in a persuasive yet relational way Includes questions for personal study and large or small groups A Woman's Guide on Making a Will ,1982 A Woman's Guide to Living Victoriously Daisy Schudmak, 2012-05 Are you willing to make your pain your platform We all face trials and tribulations in life but it's how we tackle those issues that matters the most Those who face their problems alone will be met with animosity and disappointment however those who choose to follow God will see the light of heaven shine brightly on their lives God can use our trials to bless us and improve our characters Daisy Schudmak's A Woman's Guide to Living Victoriously Radical Encounters with God is a beautiful book that encourages women young and old to look to God in their troubled times She brilliantly describes the life changing experiences she's had with the Lord and the revelations and insights into God's Word that the Holy Spirit has given to her As you read this book your passion for God's Word will grow to such an extent that you cannot go even one day without his message This book will enable you to understand God's Word apply it to your life and use it in your prayers producing powerful results Pick up A Woman's Guide to Living Victoriously Radical Encounters with God today and be inspired In her book A Woman's Guide to Living Victoriously Radical Encounters with God Daisy Schudmak masterfully delivers fresh and powerful insights of helping you discover Him through a God kind of encounter It's a must read for every believer and leader Pastor Chris Dawson Butler Mt Cyrene Baptist Church Daisy Schudmak holds a degree from LSU in public relations She has worked in radio television and marketing for many years She was trained to teach the Word of God through Bethany World Prayer Center's School of Teachers and has ministered to believers for more than ten years Daisy resides in Louisiana
