It features the story of a mechanical draughtsman named Maurice Hilliard who comes into some money which enables him to live without working. As part of his resulting travels he meets and falls in love with Eve Madeley, a book keeper. Maurice Hilliard is a mechanical draughtsman producing technical drawings on an annual income of 100. He longs to be free from the monotony of his life and work and is led by his feelings of hopelessness into drinking alcohol. While travelling by train one day he meets Mr Dengate, a former debtor to his deceased father. As Dengate was bankrupt at the point of Hilliard's father's death, the debt was not repaid, but as they meet on the train Hilliard shames Dengate into repaying the debt of 436. Hilliard then commits to the plan of living without working as a free human being for as long as the money lasts.

Eve's Ransom (Classic Reprint) George Gissing, 2017-09-16 Excerpt from Eve's Ransom: Of the waiting travellers two kept apart from the rest, pacing this way and that but independently of each other. They were men of dissimilar appearance: the one comfortably and expensively dressed, his age about fifty, his visage bearing the stamp of commerce; the other younger by more than twenty years, habited in a way which made it difficult to ascertain his social standing and looking about him with eyes suggestive of anything but prudence or content. Now and then they exchanged a glance: he of the high hat and caped ulster betrayed an interest in the younger man, who in his turn took occasion to observe the other from a distance with show of dubious recognition.
