Eve's Rib Mariette Nowak, 1980-01-01      Choice and Morality in Anthropological Perspective George N. Appell, T. N. Madan, 1988-01-01 This book explores choice behavior as constrained by culture biology and psychoanalytic processes in a variety of ethnographic contexts in Southeast Asia Oceania and Africa the arena in which the controversy between Derek Freeman and anthropologist Margaret Mead's ideas of culture first developed It also examines the interface between a nomothetic anthropology and a hermeneutic idiographic anthropology raising the critical question as to how ethnographic knowledge of another culture is achieved and transmitted to others Freeman rejects an exclusive reliance on either culture or biology as key to explaining human behavior proposing instead an interactionist paradigm Fundamental to this paradigm is choice behavior which is intrinsic to our biology and basic to the formation of culture for cultures are the accumulation of socially sanctioned past choices However the greater the freedom to choose the greater the scope for good or bad and the greater the need for ethics rules and laws for defining prohibited alternatives Choice and Morality investigates these themes Its authors examine the emergent nature of social reality as a result of choice behavior and illustrate the complexity of Freeman's theoretical position      The Feminine Images of God in the Visions of Saint Hildegard of Bingen's 'Scivias' Carolyn Wörman Sur, 1993      Essays in the History of Canadian Law Philip Girard, Jim Phillips, 2011-12-15 This third volume of Essays in the History of Canadian Law presents thoroughly researched original essays in Nova Scotian legal history An introduction by the editors is followed by ten essays grouped into four main areas of study The first is the legal system as a whole essays in this section discuss the juridical failure of the Annapolis regime present a collective biography of the province's superior court judiciary to 1900 and examine the property rights of married women in the nineteenth century The second section deals with criminal law exploring vagrancy laws in Halifax in the late nineteenth century aspects of prisons and punishments before 1880 and female petty crime in Halifax The third section on family law examines the issues of divorce from 1750 to 1890 and child custody from 1866 to 1910 Finally two essays relate to law and the economy one examines the Mines Arbitration Act of 1888 the other considers the question of private property and public resources in the context of the administrative control of water in Nova Scotia      Women and the American Legal Order Karen Maschke, 2013-09-13 Multidisciplinary focus Surveying many disciplines this anthology brings together an outstanding selection of scholarly articles that examine the profound impact of law on the lives of women in the United States The themes addressed include the historical political and social contexts of legal issues that have affected women's struggles to obtain equal treatment under the law The articles are drawn from journals in law political science history women's studies philosophy and education and represent some of the most interesting writing on the subject The law in theory and practice Many of the articles bring race social and economic factors into their analyses observing for example that black women poor women and single mothers are treated by the wielders of the power of the law differently than middle class white women
