A. L. Kroeber

A ROSTER OF CIVILIZATIONS AND CULTURE

The last work of this distinguished scholar who, using the tools of his own science, described and compared the major units of culture in an essay that is as important as the familiar and spectacular attempts of Spengler and Toynbee along similar lines. "A significant legacy to the profession."—American Anthropologist. The author is late of the University of California at Berkeley. Viking Fund Publications in Anthropology No. 33, 34 pp.

Stuart Piggott

ANCIENT EUROPE

From the Beginnings of Agriculture to Classical Antiquity

A readable and copiously illustrated introduction to the main lines of European prehistory, from the first agricultural communities (in about 7,000 B.C.) to the spread of Roman civilization, and from the shores of the Atlantic to the Urals and Caucasus. The author is Professor of Archaeology in the University of Edinburgh. 256 pp.

Seton A. Lloyd

MOUNDS OF THE NEAR EAST

The first book devoted to the history and techniques of mound-excavation in the Near East, where the author has 30 years' digging experience, distinguishing the area's special problems from those in other areas. "It would be difficult to find a better more mature and rounded survey and discussion of the unparalleled period of archaeological activity in the Near East than this book."—Times Literary Supplement. The author is Professor of Near Eastern Archaeology in the University of London. 130 pp.

David Schloen,2018-07-17 The first two volumes on patrimonialism in Ugarit and the ancient Near East this book opens with a lengthy introduction on the interpretation of social action and households in the ancient world Following this foundation Schloen embarks on a societal and domestic study of the Late Bronze Age kingdom of Ugarit in its wider Near Eastern context Urban Geography David Kaplan,Steven Holloway,2024-09-04 Provides a comprehensive and up to date treatment of Urban Geography The leading undergraduate textbook on the subject Urban Geography covers the origins historical development and contemporary challenges of cities and metropolitan areas around the world Incorporating the most recent research in urban studies authors David H Kaplan and Steven R Holloway provide an overview of the dynamic field introduce key elements of urban theory and methodology analyze issues of immigration ethnicity and urbanism and more Exploring the urban experience in a global context 16 student friendly chapters address urbanization processes industrial urbanization discrimination in the housing market gentrification metropolitan governance urban planning geographical and political fragmentation urban immigration urban economic restructuring and more Each chapter includes an introductory road map learning objectives definitions of key terms discussion questions and suggestions for research topics and activities The fourth edition of Urban Geography contains two entirely new chapters on urban transportation and the relationship between cities and the environment including climate change and natural disasters New discussion of the impact of COVID 19 and other health aspects of cities is accompanied by new data new figures new themes and new pedagogical tools In this edition the authors present traditional models of urban social space and new factors that organize intra urban space such as globalization and postmodernism Examining cities in the developed world and in less developed regions Urban Geography Fourth Edition is the ideal textbook for Urban Geography classes and related courses in Urban Studies Sociology and Political Science programs

Statemaking and Social Movements Charles Bright,Susan Harding,2025-10-01 Statemaking does not end once states emerge but is a continuous process argue the contributors to this volume In their view states are not static structures that act upon society nor are states simple reflections of economic relations states are instead highly dynamic structures that are constantly built up dismantled and transformed by complex interplays of political social and economic processes This collection of original essays by leading scholars in the fields of history anthropology sociology and economics argues for historically specific theories of states and politics in place of ahistorical models Case studies range in scope from Aztec Mexico and feudal Europe to Nazi Germany and contemporary America What emerges from this ground breaking interdisciplinary dialogue is a historically sensitive way of thinking about states politics and social movements and the transformative relationship between states and societies

State Formations John L. Brooke,Julia C. Strauss,Greg Anderson,2018-03-29 Uses modernist and postmodernist theoretical perspectives to examine the formation and reformation of states throughout history and around the globe

Archaeological Method and Theory Linda Ellis,2003-12-16 This Encyclopedia brings together the most recent scientific information on a collection of subjects that are too often and inconveniently treated in separate publications It provides a survey of archaeological method and theory as well as the application of physical and biological sciences in archaeological research Every aspect of archaeological work is represented from the discovery process to the ultimate disposition of materials Thus the reader will find entries on subject matter covering disciplinary theory legislation affecting the work of archaeologists pre excavation surveying excavation methodology on site conservation techniques post excavation analysis The rapid evolution of analytical technology is often superficially treated or not covered at all in textbooks or other commonly available sources Here the latest refinements in techniques such as radiometric dating stable isotopic analysis and the PCR technique of DNA analysis are presented clearly and authoritatively The discussion of these techniques is amplified by including results of the work of professionals conducting interdisciplinary research and by covering the methodologi enhancements provided by the physical and natural sciences Cultural property legislation regardless of its country of origin has affected how archaeologists conduct their work This encyclopedia covers all major U S legislation developed for the protection of cultural property including the recent Native American Graves Protection and Repatriation Act and offers a substantial article on worldwide legislation concerning the reburial of human remains and its effects on the present and future practice of archaeology Without some sort of conservation program at the point of excavation valuable materials may be inadvertently contaminated or destroyed Many simple and low cost techniques to promote both sample integrity and long term preservation for major classes of materials are described in this volume Traditional treatments of method and theory usually focus on prehistoric periods and are limited in their geographic range This volume includes discussions based on various historical periods on different continents as reflected in entries such as Historical Archaeology Industrial Archaeology Medieval Archaeology and Classical Archaeology     Urban Symbolism P. Nas,1993 This volume consists of twenty articles on the symbols and images of Third World cities such as Jakarta Padang Bangkok Beijing Baghdad Kathmandu Lucknow Francistown Vitoria and Buenos Aires It provides fascinating new information on a neglected phenomenon in urban studies
