Evolution Of Australian Foreign Policy 1938 1965:

The Evolution of Australian Foreign Policy, 1938-1965 Sir Alan Stewart Watt, 1967      The Evolution of Australian Foreign Policy 1938-1965 Alan Watt, 1967-01-01      Australian Foreign Policy F. A. Mediansky, 1997
Paperback edition of an introductory survey designed for tertiary students of politics international relations history and economics Addresses domestic interests and processes that shape foreign policy and also global regional and bilateral issues Includes references and index The contributors are academics in fields such as history political science and international studies The editor is an associate professor in the School of Political Science at the University of NSW His other publications include Australia in a Changing World      Making Australian Foreign Policy Allan Gynge, Michael Wesley, 2003-06-27
Table of contents      Australian Foreign Policy in Asia Allan Patience, 2017-12-12 This book sets out to discuss what kind of middle power Australia is and whether its identity as a middle power negatively influences its relationship with Asia It looks at the history of the middle power concept develops three concepts of middle power status and examines Australia's relationships with China Japan and Indonesia as a focus It argues that Australia is an awkward partner in its relations with Asia due to both its historical colonial and discriminatory past as well its current dependence upon the United States for a security alliance It argues this should be changed by adopting a new middle power concept in Australian foreign policy
Anglo-American Strategic Relations and the Far East, 1933-1939 Greg Kennedy, 2013-01-11 This volume charts how the national strategic needs of the United States of America and Great Britain created a parallel but not joint relationship towards the Far East as the crisis in that region evolved from 1933-39 In short it is a look at the relationship shared between the two nations with respect to accommodating one another on certain strategic and diplomatic issues so that they could become more confident of one another in any potential showdowns with Japan      Redefining the Bonds of Commonwealth, 1939-1948 F. McKenzie, 2002-06-06 This work is a path breaking study of the changing attitudes of Canada Australia New Zealand and South Africa to Britain and the Commonwealth in the 1940s and the effect of those changes on their individual and collective standing in international affairs The focus is imperial preference the largest discriminatory tariff system in the world and a potent symbol of Commonwealth unity It is based on archival research in Britain Canada Australia New Zealand and the United States      Nonalignment and Peace Versus Military Alignment and War Nihal Henry Kuruppu, 2004 The Book Posits That The India Australia Relationship Has Greater Significance Than Previously Recognised As The Largest Democracy In The World One Of The Few In The Region That Has Steadfastly Clung To A Robust Democracy In The Face Of Considerable Challenges Including Early Western Pessimism About Its Future Viability India In View Of Some Is On Course To Become A Major Player In Global Trade And Regional Politics In The New Century      The Power of the Space Club Deganit Paikowsky, 2017-07-20 Why do nation states choose to develop national space programs How can they justify national efforts to acquire capabilities by arguing for membership of the space club This book provides a unique perspective of the past current and future of space exploration and technological development in world politics A country that sees itself as a power deserving of a seat at the table of world governance is expected to race for space Based on a rich and detailed analysis of a range of space programs of states which are not usually at the focus of world politics and its research the author shows that joining the space club is a legitimate and rational decision The book provides a different way of looking at international relations through a relatively under studied area of policy the space club Somewhere in Asia Prue Torney-Parlicki,2000 From 1941 to 1975 as a series of military conflicts gripped Asia and the Pacific Australian journalism was dominated by war reporting from the region Torney Parlicki history U of Melbourne argues that the reporting went beyond the usual discussion of military strategy and in an important way High Corridors John Gunn,1988 History For A Nation Stuart Macintyre,2016-10-18 There is a common belief that Australia acquired history only when it grew up and threw off its colonial origins after the Second World War Yet earlier generations of Australians created their own histories to express their sense of who they were and what they might be This book reveals that the quest for an Australian past found its way into our universities and schools from the early years of the Commonwealth Ernest Scott was the most prolific teacher and writer of history in inter war Australia A self taught degreeless professor he laid the foundations of a historical profession in this country and wrote the textbook that taught generations of schoolchildren the meaning of Australian history An Englishman and an imperialist active in public affairs he trained Australians to understand their colonial past as a guide to nationhood At the time when Australians debate their nationhood Asianisation and the republic A History for a Nation recalls a lost culture of urgent contemporary significance The Diplomatic Ideas and Practices of Asian States Ashok Kapur,1990 Asia has emerged as the centre of international conflict and change in the post war era In Europe the post cold war approach is to adjust East West power relationships without disturbing the territorial status quo and to conduct foreign policy according to classical European principles of compromise and compensation Asians are newcomers in world affairs Asian diplomatic traditions differ from European ones and there are many border disputes and power rivalries The idea of Asia was created by Europeans for Europeans and it led to Western dominance of Asia From colonial subjects Asians have become important players in military economic and diplomatic affairs To understand the Asian dimension of contemporary world affairs we need to take a fresh look at Asian diplomatic ideas and practices This volume brings together recognised experts to explain the imperatives and external policies of different types of Asian states The Strategic Illusion Ian Hamill,1981 H V Evatt and the Establishment of Israel Daniel Mandel,2004-08-02 The Minister for External Affairs and the dominant force in the formation of Australian foreign policy for a crucial decade in the battle over Palestine 1941 1949 Herbert Vere Evatt played a central role in the Australian political response to Zionism and the conflict in Palestine This book which uses a variety of primary sources from Australia Israel the United Kingdom and the United States provides a valuable study of Evatt the Zionist as well as illuminating a fascinating political figure This valuable book charts the debate in Australia over the creation of a Jewish state as well as providing a genuinely entertaining study of Evatt himself To the Islands Paul Battersby, 2007-08-21 To the Islands offers a unique perspective on the evolution of economic social and political interconnections between Australia and its island region spanning two centuries from the early years of British colonization to the present day The book advances the argument that globalizing processes are drawing Australia incrementally closer to modern day South East Asia and the wider Asia Pacific While globalization is a term commonly associated with the twentieth century world this study traces the history of Australia's regionalisation back to the nineteenth century to the lived experiences of Australian travelers tourists prospectors mining entrepreneurs in the Netherlands Indies Malaya and Siam or Thailand as it is known today To the Islands challenges the orthodox view that Australia's relations with its regional neighbors were insignificant before the outbreak of war in the Pacific in 1941 By the early 1900s Java was a popular tourist destination for Australians while Malaya and Siam were emerging as major Australian foreign investment destinations In placing economic and social interactions ahead of political and security concerns in the analysis of Australia's regional relations the book highlights the role of non state actors and people to people connections in shaping the contours of Australian diplomatic engagement with South East Asia and the South West Pacific To the Islands is an essential book for advanced students and researchers of the history and politics of the Asia Pacific and Australia Chinese Migrant Entrepreneurship in Australia from the 1990s Jia Gao, 2015-08-08 For more than two decades Australia has not only prospered without a recession but has achieved a higher growth rate than any Western country This achievement has been credited to Australia's historic shift to Asia the transformation of the relationship between these two countries is one of the most important changes in the Asia Pacific region However the role of new Chinese migrants in transforming Sino Australian relations through their entrepreneurial activities has not been deeply explored Chinese Migrant Entrepreneurship in Australia from the 1990s adds new theoretical considerations and empirical evidence to a growing interest in entrepreneurship and presents an account of a group of new Chinese migrant entrepreneurs who have succeeded in their business ventures significantly contributing to both Australia and China The first chapter introduces the history between Australia and China followed by chapters focusing on post migration realities economic opportunities Chinese outbound tourism and the use of community media The final chapter concludes with a summary Focuses on the people whose entrepreneurial activities have spread across industries and facilitated trade and cultural contacts Analyses the experiences of the new migrants from China Offers evidence that challenges outdated but still widely held assumptions about ethnic Chinese entrepreneurs Presents longitudinal research on the new Chinese migrant community in Australia since the late 1980s Demonstrates a dynamic process that challenges the overemphasis on the impact of globalisation on Chinese entrepreneurs The Future of the United States-Australia Alliance Scott D. McDonald, Andrew T. H. Tan, 2021-01-20 The United States Australia alliance has been an important component of the US led system of alliances that has underpinned regional security in the Indo Pacific since 1945 However recent geostrategic developments in particular the rise of the People s Republic of China have posed significant challenges to this US led regional order In turn the growing strategic competition between these two great powers has generated challenges to the longstanding US Australia alliance Both the US and Australia are confronting a changing strategic environment and as a result the alliance needs to respond to the challenges that they face The US needs to understand the challenges and risks to this vital relationship which is growing in importance and take steps to manage it On its part Australia must clearly identify its core common interests with the US and start exploring what more it needs to do to attain its stated policy preferences This book consists of chapters exploring US and Australian perspectives of the Indo Pacific the evolution of Australia US strategic and defence cooperation and the future of the relationship Written by a joint US Australia team the volume is aimed at academics analysts students and the security and business communities

Designing Social Service Markets Gabrielle Meagher,Adam Stebbing,Diana Perche,2022-09-15 Governments of both right and left have been introducing market logics and instruments into Australian social services in recent decades Their stated goals include reducing costs increasing service diversity and in some sectors empowering consumers This collection presents a set of original case studies of marketisation in social services as diverse as family day care refugee settlement employment services in remote communities disability support residential aged care housing and retirement incomes Contributors examine how governments have designed these markets how they work and their outcomes with a focus on how risks and benefits are distributed between governments providers and service users Their analyses show that inefficiency low quality services and inequitable access are typical problems Avoiding simplistic explanations that attribute these problems to either a few bad apple service providers or an amorphous neoliberalism that is the sum of all negative developments in recent years the collection demonstrates the diversity of market models and examines how specific market designs make social service provision susceptible to particular problems The evidence presented in this collection suggests that Australian governments market making policies have produced fragile and fragmented service systems in which the risks of rent seeking resource leakage and regulatory capture are high Yet the design of social service markets and their implementation are largely under political control Consequently if governments choose to work with market instruments they need to do so differently working with principles and practices that drive up both quality and equality
