Economic Justice The Ctu Commentary On The Bishops Letter On The Economy:

Economic Justice John Pawlikowski, Donald Senior, Catholic Theological Union, 1988-01 This collection of scholarly articles examines the message communicated in the controversial Bishops Letter on the Economy concerning the role Catholics should have in the secular realms of politics and finance The commentaries approach the Bishops Letter from three different viewpoints biblical Modern Catholic Social Teaching Kenneth R. Himes, 2018-01-02 Including contributions from twenty two leading moral theologians this volume is the most thorough assessment of modern Roman Catholic social teaching available In addition to interrogations of the major documents it provides insight into the biblical and philosophical foundations of Catholic social teaching addresses the doctrinal issues that arise in such a context and explores the social thought leading up to the modern era which is generally accepted as beginning in 1891 with the publication of Pope Leo XIII s Rerum Novarum The book also includes a review of how Catholic social teaching has been received in the United States and offers an informed look at the shortcomings and questions that future generations must address This second edition includes revised and updated essays as well as two new commentaries one on Pope Benedict XVI s encyclical Caritas in Veritate and one on Pope Francis s encyclical Laudato Si An outstanding reference work for anyone interested in studying and understanding the key documents that make up the central corpus of modern Catholic social teaching Tradition and Church Reform Curran, Charles E., 2016-02-09 Catholic Social Teaching O'Neill, SJ, William, 2021-04-21 A guide to key themes of the Catholic social teaching tradition and its implications for ethical issues such as war peacemaking and the global refugee crisis Reconstructing Christian Theology Rebecca S. Chopp, Mark Lewis Taylor, Christian theology needs to be reconstructed in light of recent and momentous intellectual changes social revolutions and steep pedagogical challenges That is the conviction of many of North America s leading theologians whose close collaboration over several years bring us this exciting volume Reconstructing Christian Theology introduces theology in such a way that readers can discern the relevance of historical materials pose theological questions and begin to think theologically for themselves Further like other projects of the Workgroup on Constructive Theology this volume stems from a deep desire to model a credible creative and engaged contemporary theology So each chapter tackles major Christian teaching juxtaposes it with a significant social or cultural challenge and then reconstructs each in light of the other The result is an innovative and compelling way to learn how theology can contribute to rethinking the most pressing issues of our day Introducing Protestant Social Ethics Brian Matz, 2017-03-14 Despite their rich tradition of social concern Protestants have historically struggled to articulate why whether and how to challenge unethical social structures This book introduces Protestants to the biblical and historical background of Christian social ethics inviting them to understand the basis for social action and engage with the broader tradition It embraces and explains long standing Christian reflection on social ethics and shows how Scripture and Christian history connect to current social justice issues Each chapter includes learning outcomes and chapter highlights Basic Human Rights and the Humanitarian Crises in Sub-Saharan Africa Gabriel Andrew Msoka, 2007-04-15 For decades post independence Africa has been marked by conflicts violence and civil wars leading to a displacement of civilian populations and numerous humanitarian crises For example the Somali war the 1994 Rwandan genocide and the Darfur conflict in Western Sudan illustrate this phenomenon In these situations protecting the basic human rights of security subsistence the liberties of social participation and the physical movement of refugees and internally displaced persons IDPs particularly women children and young people has been seen as inadequate This book offers the following a systematic presentation of the nature and scope of the crises an evaluative description of the achievements and failures of governments organizations and the international community in responding to the crises a critical analysis of the rationale for such an inadequate response and a philosophical and theological study of basic human rights that seeks to redress these failures by envisioning an appropriate response and a lasting solution to the conflicts displacement and humanitarian crises in Sub Saharan Africa Becoming Good, Becoming Holy Mark O'Keefe, 2005-05-31 This is a long awaited and needed book about the mutual relationship between moral theology and spirituality in the past at the present time and with hope for the future It is a gentle and convincing book both in its tone and in its arguments It is in the best sense a scientific book and at the same time an existential text It appeals to mind and heart This is a most useful book for every Christian striving to become ever more a discerning person aiming at integration of prayer and life Books like this strengthen my unbroken optimism about the ongoing renewal of Christian ethics and Christian spirituality Bernhard Haering Gars Germany In Becoming Good Becoming Holy Mark O Keefe makes a valuable contribution to our understanding of the Christian life in its wholeness and integrity By connecting love and justice prayer discernment and moral decision making fundamental option and spiritual growth he challenges unhelpful divisions between Christian ethics and spirituality His vision of conversion and of the Christian life as a dynamic totality will appeal to a wide range of readers Elizabeth Dreyer Washington Theological Union Clearly written and insightful Becoming Good Becoming Holy is a convincing response to the Second Vatican Council s call to renew Catholic moral theology by centering it on our life in Christ Best of all O Keefe underscores both the pivotal connection between Eucharist and morality and the integral role of prayer and discernment in Christian moral decision making Paul Wadell Catholic Theological Union Mark O Keefe OSB is Associate Professor of Moral Theology at St Meinrad School of Theology and a Benedictine monk at St Meinrad Archabbey He is the author of What Are They Saying About Social Sin and his articles have appeared in New Theology Review Irish Theological Quarterly New Blackfriars Eglise et Theologie and other theological journals Organizing to Win Kate Bronfenbrenner, 1998 As the American labour movement mobilizes for a major resurgence through new organizing this text presents research on union organizing strategies The introduction defines the context of the current climate and subsequent chapters include community based organizing and building Pastoral Music , 1989 The Believer as Citizen D. Thomas Hughson, 1993 In recent years religious leaders of mainline Christian and Jewish groups have been calling on their adherents to play a larger role in the creation of a just social order One of the most publicized of these was the declaration of the American Catholic bishops Economic Justice For All It remains to be seen whether believers raised in an era of affluence are deeply committed to the plight of the needy and whether religion itself can mark out a path between social activism and conventional party politics John Courtney Murray 1904 1967 was a pioneer in the ongoing dialogue about the role of believers in public life For all of his contributions however Murray spoke in a patrician manner to a social order that was stable and structured How useful are his ideas in an age of multiculturalism when the strongest pressure for justice comes from grassroots organizations of the poor and marginalized The Believer as Citizen proposes a fresh view of Murray s public philosophy in a way that makes it applicable to today s conditions BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Ethical Economics and the Faith Community Stuart M.
