Economic Social Statistics Singapore 1960-1982:

Economic & Social Statistics, Singapore, 1960-1982 Singapore. Department of Statistics, 1983 The Economic Growth of Singapore W. G. Huff, 1997-08-13 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the economic development of Singapore easily the leading commercial and financial centre in Southeast Asia throughout the twentieth century This development has been based on a strategic location at the crossroads of Asia a free trade economy and a dynamic entrepreneurial tradition Initial twentieth century economic success was linked to a group of legendary Chinese entrepreneurs but by mid century independent Singapore looked to multinational enterprise to deliver economic growth Nonetheless exports of manufactures accounted for only part of Singaporean expansion and by the 1980s Singapore was a major international financial centre and leading world exporter of commercial services Throughout this study Dr Huff assesses the interaction of government policy and market forces and places the transformation of the Singaporean economy in the context of both development theory and experience elsewhere in East Asia Economic growth and development in Singapore Peter Wilson, 2002 In this book Gavin Peebles and Peter Wilson offer an historical overview of the rapid growth and development of the Singapore economy detailing the institutions and policies which have made this growth possible They examine the current state of the economy and its future in terms of prospective growth and structural change Economic Growth of Singapore in the Twentieth Century Ichir? Sugimoto, 2011 Research on Singapore's economic history has been complicated by the absence of economic data on pre independence Singapore This book sheds light on two key aspects of Singapore's economic history namely the relationship between economic instability and growth as well as the government's fiscal policy towards economic growth NBER Macroeconomics Annual 1992 Olivier Blanchard, Stanley Fischer, 1992 This is the seventh in a series of annuals from the National Bureau of Economic Research that are designed to stimulate research on problems in applied economics to bring frontier theoretical developments to a wider audience and to accelerate the interaction between analytical and empirical research in macroeconomics Contents What Shall We Do Today Goals and Signposts in the Operation of Monetary Policy Ben S Bernanke and Frederic S Mishkin A Tale of Two Cities Factor Accumulation and Technical Change in Hong Kong and Singapore Alwyn Young International Trade and the Wage Structure Steven J Davis Imperfect Information and Macroeconomic Analysis Joseph E Stiglitz and Bruce Greenwald Asset Pricing Lessons for Macroeconomics Lars P Hansen and John H Cochrane Postmortem on the Debt Crisis Daniel Cohen The Political Economy of Singapore's Industrialization Garry Rodan, 2016-02-03 A study which challenges the dominant understanding of Singapore as a case where correct policies have made rapid industrialization possible and which raises questions about the possibility and appropriateness of its emulation Asian Business Networks Gary G. Hamilton, 1996 The economies of East and Southeast Asia continue to exhibit the world's fastest growth rates This rapid expansion is served by the various business networks that dominate the economic landscape Few scholars have examined these networks and fewer yet have compared and contrasted the striking regional differences found among them The studies in this volume are among the first to offer a comparative viewpoint The contributing authors are specialists from Asia and the United States who examine business networks in Japan South Korea and the Chinese dominated economies of Taiwan Hong Kong and Singapore An interdisciplinary approach is adopted the economic issues are considered in their sociological organizational and political contexts Women in the Age of Economic Transformation Nahid Aslanbeigui, Steven Pressman, Gale

Summerfield, 2005-08-04 Changes are sweeping the world economy and are most apparent in post socialist Europe and in the developing world This volume examines the impact these changes are having on women The authors discuss the evidence of gender bias and reach some telling if unsurprising conclusions Regardless of the country involved the findings point to consistent female disadvantage in the transformation process Corruption and governance in Asia J. Kidd, F.

Richter, 2002-11-14 This book delves into the nature of governance in Asia both at government and corporate level It reviews the history and suggests potential solutions for years of underperformance due to the corrupt practices that have developed because of a poor understanding of corporate governance The authors are experts in practices in Asia and their views are expressed in a sympathetic manner at no time insisting that a western model of governance is correct Instead the authors advise local models appropriate to the state of development and suggest that individual countries institute behavioural models that will mature as nations quickly develop in an increasingly global world East Asian Welfare Regimes in Transition Alan Walker, Chack-kie Wong, 2005-03-30 This text puts the spotlight on the Chinese and South East Asian welfare systems providing and up to date assessment of their character and development In particular it examines the underlying assumptions of these systems and how the processes of globalisation are impacting on them Singapore Malay/Muslim

Community, 1819-2015 Hussin Mutalib, Rokiah Mentol, Sundusia Rosdi, 2016-06-29 Singapore's Malay Muslim community constituting about 15 per cent of the total population and constitutionally enshrined as the indigenous people of Singapore have had its fair share of progress and problems in the history of this country While different aspects of the vicissitudes of life of the community have been written over the years there has not been a singularly substantive published compendium specifically about the community in the form of a Bibliography available This academic initiative fills this obvious literature gap The scope and coverage of this Bibliography is manifestly comprehensive encompassing the different sources of information print or non print about the many facets of life of the Republic's Malays Muslims such as education economy politics culture history health language religion arts and more The result is a Bibliography that is arguably the most expansive if not exhaustive treasury collection about the community ever available anywhere Scholars and researchers in particular and the public in general should find this Bibliography a highly valuable indispensable source of information about the rich and varied life of Singapore's Malay Muslim community stretching a period of two centuries from the time of Stamford Raffles in 1819 until today The Editors Hussin Mutalib Ph D a senior academic with the National University of

Singapore Rokiah Mentol and Sundusia Rosdi former senior librarians with Singapore's National Library Board are assisted by professional and experienced librarians

Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia Colin I. Bradford, Jr., William H. Branson, 2007-12-01 The rapid development of Pacific Asia over the past twenty years offers an excellent opportunity to analyze the dynamics of economic growth Trade and Structural Change in Pacific Asia explores the nature and causes of changes that have occurred in the economic structure of Pacific Asia the relationship between these changes and economic growth and the implications of these changes for trading relationships Themes in the research reported here includes the sectoral composition of output and trade rates of structural change in production and exports and their relation to economic growth the effect of abundant resource endowments on industrialization and manufactured exports the nature of the mix between active government policies and market forces and the balance between demand determined and supply determined industrialization and exports Many of the issues explored have important implications for United States foreign economic policy and the volume includes a look at the basic economic and political forces influencing shifts in United States trade policy in the postwar period A timely and informative analysis the volume probes the causes and consequences of economic growth in Pacific Asia focusing on the interaction of exports of manufactured goods and the developmental process The results reported contribute to ongoing research in structural change and economic policy and will be important to economists working on empirical patterns in international trade and the process of economic development

Asian Ethical Urbanism: A Radical Postmodern Perspective William Siew Wai Lim, 2005-07-15 With the impending demise of modernist planning the footprints and corpses of failed modernist visions are littered everywhere A vacuum of implementable urban theories has occurred at the time when unprecedented expansion and restructuring of cities in rapidly developing economies are taking place In this collection of essays William S W Lim zeroes in on the peculiarities and dynamics of present Asian urban and architectural conditions in order to challenge and transcend the socio ecological forms and political influences generated by the current system of global capitalism Part I of this book consists of the main essay which attempts to establish baselines for an effective formulation of ethical urbanism in Asia by clarifying issues that have previously been unquestioningly bound up with Western values and discourses As an architect urbanist Lim lends a determinedly spatialist and environmental perspective to issues such as rights ethics happiness and social justice while compelling his readers to rethink previously established notions about them Part II of this book consists of three city studies on Hanoi Shanghai and Singapore completed in the last two years which attempt to match Lim's theoretical formulation with actual conditions occurring in Asia today Also included is Asian Architecture in the New Millennium a fascinating discourse on contemporary design conducted from a postmodern perspective

Women's Rights to House and Land Irene Tinker, Gale Summerfield, 1999 The authors of this volume focus on such issues as property use and ownership efforts to recognize women's economic rights through development programming poverty and women headed households and household bargaining The impact of various development policies is also surveyed The Singapore Research Story Chang Chieh Hang, Teck Seng Low, Raj Thampuran, 2016-03-07 Ever since Singapore became independent in 1965 its leaders have invested tremendous efforts and resources to develop its economy in order to create jobs for its people and to support national development This book describes the challenging journey of Singapore in developing a knowledge based economy driven by research and innovation and the roles played by research institutes universities research manpower and appropriate collaboration between research institutes and industry The book traces the foundations of Singapore's research story from the time of its independence in 1965 to the present day Through interviews with the key players and research into the records the establishment of the key institutes and the roles of a global cast of researchers scientists and engineers in setting up the R D infrastructure are outlined The impact of the concerted efforts to build up a credible and world class research capability in Singapore over the last 25 years is discussed as are the tremendous challenges faced by the key players in the drive to develop a knowledge based economy and the ultimate goal of an innovation driven economy High-Income Asia: Lessons in Population and Economy Shigesaburo Kabe, 2025-06-09 This book focuses on the high income Asia that experienced fast economic growth and rapid demographic change in recent decades High income Asia includes Japan South Korea Taiwan Singapore and Hong Kong according to the World Bank's category classification These economies enjoyed a brief period of brilliant economic growth but then faced a demographic shift with the lowest fertility in the world For example Japan today must confront difficult challenges such as how to balance childbirth and childcare with women's employment as its population rapidly ages a consequence that was hardly foreseen in the process of economic growth The changing landscape is different at each stage of the process and the issues related to economic growth cannot be clearly recognized before or during that growth Therefore as a reference for the future of developing countries this book aims to provide positive and negative lessons learned from high income Asia's experiences in high speed economic growth and demographic changes First it gives an overview of the rapid economic growth and demographic changes in high income Asia over the past several decades Then among the challenges following economic growth it focuses on two points 1 how to balance childbirth and childcare with women's employment and 2 how to respond to the anticipated labor shortage in the future The former issue requires a delicate balance between preventing fertility decline and supporting women's employment Here a comparison among Japan Taiwan and Korea is made The latter question focuses primarily on Japan as the fastest aging population in the world with additional reference to parts of high income Asia other than Japan which also are aging Based on analyses of these major points the author discusses the policy implications for developing countries learned from the tough lessons of high income Asia The Awkward Embrace Charles Simkins, 2005-08-08 Democracies derive their resilience and vitality from the fact that the rule of a particular majority is usually only of a temporary nature By looking at four case studies The Awkward Embrace studies democracies of a different kind rule by a dominant party which is virtually immune from defeat Such systems have been called Regnant or or Uncommon Democracies They are characterized by distinctive features the staging of unfree or corrupt elections the blurring of the lines between government the ruling party and the state the introduction of a national project which is seen to be above politics and the erosion of civil society This book addresses major issues such as why one such democracy namely Taiwan has been moving in the direction of a more competitive system how economic crises such as the present one in Mexico can transform the system how government business relations in Malaysia are affecting the base of the dominant party and whether South Africa will become a one party dominant system

The Emerging Technological Trajectory of the Pacific Basin Denis Fred Simon,2016-09-16 This work covers in depth the new patterns of manufacturing and technology transfer that are emerging as Japanese companies seek to harness Asia s technological resources and to utilise them to compete both regionally and globally Taxation And Economic Development Among Pacific Asian Countries Richard A Musgrave,Ching-Huei Chang,John Riew,Gerardo Sicat,2019-09-05 An array of case studies exploring evolving tax policy and economic development in Pacific Asian countries

The Management Of Success Kernial Singh Sandhu,Paul Wheatley,Kernial Singh Sandhu (A),2019-06-19 A collection of analytical reflections on how the island of Singapore has been transformed from a colony in a crumbling empire into a thriving modern secular independent republic These are the results of a five year project by the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies
