centre intense persecutionist paranoia lay festering Whenever France's civilizing mission seemed culturally commercially or colonially threatened it erupted in waves of nationalist xenophobia turning artistic rivalry into bitter enmity In exposing how rivals became transmuted into conspirators ultimately this book reveals a paradox resonant in histories that celebrate the international triumph of French modern art that this magnetic centre which began by welcoming international modernists ended by attacking them for undermining its cultural supremacy contaminating its civilizing mission and politically persecuting the very modernist culture for which it has received historical renown Selling the Story Jonathan Paine,2019-08-06 A literary scholar and investment banker applies economic criticism to canonical novels dramatically changing the way we read these classics and proposing a new model for how economics can inform literary analysis Every writer is a player in the marketplace for literature Jonathan Paine locates the economics ingrained within the stories themselves revealing how a text provides a record of its author's attempt to sell the story to his or her readers An unusual literary scholar with a background in finance Paine mines stories for evidence of the conditions of their production Through his wholly original reading Balzac's The Splendors and Miseries of Courtesans becomes a secret diary of its author's struggles to cope with the commercializing influence of serial publication in newspapers The Brothers Karamazov transforms into a story of Dostoevsky's sequential bets with his readers present and future about how to write a novel Zola's Money documents the rise of big business and is itself a product of Zola's own big business his factory of novels Combining close readings with detailed analyses of the nineteenth century publishing contexts in which prose fiction first became a product Selling the Story shows how the business of literature affects even literary devices such as genre plot and repetition Paine argues that no book can be properly understood without reference to its point of sale the author's knowledge of the market of reader expectations and of his or her own efforts to define and achieve literary value "Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France, 1789-1914" HeatherBelnap Jensen,2017-07-05 Focusing specifically on portraiture as a genre this volume challenges scholarly assumptions that regard interior spaces as uniquely feminine Contributors analyze portraits of men in domestic and studio spaces in France during the long nineteenth century the preponderance of such portraits alone supports the book's premise that the alignment of men with public life is oversimplified and more myth than reality The volume offers analysis of works by a mix of artists from familiar names such as David Delacroix Courbet Manet Rodin and Matisse to less well known image makers including Dominique Doncre Constance Mayer Anders Zorn and Lucien Etienne Melingue The essays cover a range of media from paintings and prints to photographs and sculpture that allows exploration of the relation between masculinity and interiority across the visual culture of the period The home and other interior spaces emerge from these studies as rich and complex locations for both masculine self expression and artistic creativity Interior Portraiture and Masculine Identity in France 1789-1914 provides a much needed rethinking of modern masculinity in this period

Jean-Baptiste Carpeaux Anne Middleton Wagner,1986-01-01 Drawing on a wide range of primary sources Anne M

Wagner offers a new view of artist education and patronage and a new definition of what academic meant within the assumptions and expectations in the modern art in nineteenth century France Above all she shows what comprised success in the nineteenth century world of art

A Theory of the Tache in Nineteenth-Century Painting ?stein Sj?ad,2017-07-05

Without question the tache blot patch stain is a central and recurring motif in nineteenth century modernist painting Manet s and the Impressionists rejection of academic finish produced a surface where the strokes of paint were presented directly as patches or blots then indirectly as legible signs C nne Seurat and Signac painted exclusively with patches or dots Through a series of close readings this book looks at the tache as one of the most important features in nineteenth century modernism The tache is a potential meeting point between text and image and a pure trace of the artist s body Even though each manifestation of tacheism generates its own specific cultural effects this book represents the first time a scholar has looked at tacheism as a hidden continuum within modern art With a methodological framework drawn from the semiotics of text and image the author introduces a much needed fine tuning to the classic terms index symbol and icon The concept of the tache as a crossing of sign types enables finer distinctions and observations than have been available thus far within the Peircean tradition The sign crossing theory opens onto the whole terrain of interaction between visual art art criticism literature philosophy and psychology

Émile Zola and the Arts Jean-Max Guieu,1988 Papers of an international symposium held at Georgetown University Oct 1986 These 20 essays examine the various facets of Emile Zola s role in the arts of this time and his ideas about the struggle of artistic creation The papers some in French are illustrated with some 25 bandw photos Paper edition available 10 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Picture Titles Ruth Bernard Yeazell,2015-09-29 How the practice of titling paintings has shaped their reception throughout modern history A picture s title is often our first guide to understanding the image Yet paintings didn t always have titles and many canvases acquired their names from curators dealers and printmakers not the artists Taking an original historical look at how Western paintings were named Picture Titles shows how the practice developed in response to the conditions of the modern art world and how titles have shaped the reception of artwork from the time of Bruegel and Rembrandt to the present Ruth Bernard Yeazell begins the story with the decline of patronage and the rise of the art market in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries as the increasing circulation of pictures and the democratization of the viewing public generated the need for a shorthand by which to identify works at a far remove from their creation The spread of literacy both encouraged the practice of titling pictures and aroused new anxieties about relations between word and image including fears that reading was taking the place of looking Yeazell demonstrates that most titles composed before the nineteenth century were the work of middlemen and even today many artists rely on others to name their pictures A painter who wants a title to stick Yeazell argues must engage in an act of aggressive authorship She investigates prominent cases such as David's Oath of the Horatii and works by Turner Courbet Whistler Magritte and Jasper Johns Examining Western painting from the Renaissance to the present day Picture Titles sheds new light on the ways that we interpret and appreciate visual art

Manet and Modern Beauty Gloria Groom, 2019-06-25 This stunning examination of the last years of douard Manet's life and career is the first book to explore the transformation of his style and subject matter in the 1870s and early 1880s The name Manet often evokes the provocative heroically scaled pictures he painted in the 1860s for the Salon but in the late 1870s and early 1880s the artist produced quite a different body of work stylish portraits of actresses and demimondaines luscious still lifes delicate pastels intimate watercolors and impressionistic scenes of suburban gardens and Parisian caf's Often dismissed as too pretty and superficial by critics these later works reflect Manet's elegant social world propose a radical new alignment of modern art with fashionable femininity and record the artist's unapologetic embrace of beauty and visual pleasure in the face of death Featuring nearly three hundred illustrations and nine fascinating essays by established and emerging Manet specialists a technical analysis of the late Salon painting Jeanne Spring a selection of the artist's correspondence a chronology and more Manet and Modern Beauty brings a diverse range of approaches to bear on a little studied area of this major artist's oeuvre

Realism in the Age of Impressionism Marnin Young, 2015-01-01 The late 1870s and early 1880s were watershed years in the history of French painting As outgoing economic and social structures were being replaced by a capitalist measured time Impressionist artists sought to create works that could be perceived in an instant capturing the sensations of rapidly transforming modern life Yet a generation of artists pushed back against these changes spearheading a short lived revival of the Realist practices that had dominated at mid century and advocating slowness in practice subject matter and beholding In this illuminating book Marnin Young looks closely at five works by Jules Bastien Lepage Gustave Caillebotte Alfred Philippe Roll Jean Francois Raffaeelli and James Ensor artists who shared a concern with painting and temporality that is all but forgotten today having been eclipsed by the ideals of Impressionism Young's highly original study situates later Realism for the first time within the larger social political and economic framework and argues for its centrality in understanding the development of modern art

Cezanne and Provence Nina M. Athanassoglou-Kallmyer, 2003-05 Discusses painter Paul Cezanne's 1886 departure from Paris to his native city Aix en Provence arguing that it was related to French regionalist politics of the time and shows how the move affected his art
