Classic Jazz Floyd Levin, 2002-04-30 Floyd Levin's half century collection of reportage reviews and recollections are an irreplaceable and totally enjoyable trove of writing about the vibrancy past and still present of traditional American jazz Charles Champlin author of Back There Where the Past Was I've known Floyd and his wife Lucille for more than fifty years Floyd's book is a colorful intimate account of his lifelong love affair with jazz I'm especially fascinated when he writes about his personal encounters with some of the jazz legends of the Century This book is essential reading for anyone concerned about jazz its present its past and his evolution Milt Hinton Floyd Levin's dedicated and unselfish life long work for the cause of jazz has illuminated many a corner that would otherwise have remained in the dark All who care about the music are in his debt Classic Jazz like Floyd himself is a classic Dan Morgenstern Director Institute of Jazz Studies Rutgers University What a rich passionate and human book this is Drawing on fifty years of devotion to classic New Orleans jazz and the artists who performed it Floyd Levin brilliantly weaves anecdotal material primary research intimate personal observations and analyses to create an historical goldmine of the music's evolution in New Orleans and on the West Coast In rendering portraits of legendary musicians in such a beautifully moving honest way he offers not just standard history but a strong sense of the emotional core of the music as well Steve Isoardi co author of Central Avenue Sounds Musical Messenger, 1919
