Learning Maureen T. Hallinan,2025-06-15 Opportunities for Learning brings together the works of one of the most highly regarded past presidents of the American Sociological Association focusing on uncovering and addressing educational inequities in elementary and secondary schools Few sociologists of education can rival the depth and breadth of Maureen T Hallinan s contributions to the field This book compiles her writings some of which have never been published before to bring the full insight of both her sociological imagination and her theoretical and empirical research Through articles book chapters and invited lectures Hallinan explores the interplay among theory research and policy Other pieces focus on the importance of opportunities to learn peer friendships and ability grouping for instruction She writes in depth about various attempts of educational reform and the effects of Catholic schools Hallinan sought to address the enduring problems of sociological theorizing and research within education and her writings contribute important insights and provide foundations for the next generation of social scientists This collection demonstrates Hallinan s keen ability to communicate balanced inquiry by engaging multiple perspectives in her theoretical framework coupled with strong empirical testing of the relationships

Making a Difference Micki M. Caskey,2006-07-01 Volume V of The Handbook of Research in Middle Level Education highlights action research in middle grades education As a method of inquiry action research compels educators to take action and think reflectively about those actions in order to effect positive educational change Mills 2000 Teachers administrators university professors and other professionals conduct action research in different ways to examine classroom practices and school issues Educational action researchers initiate their inquiries in various contexts alone in small peer teams or larger faculty groups Zeichner 2001 Using individual and collaborative approaches educators gain insights into teaching and learning processes As evidenced throughout this volume action research in the middle grades occurs in a variety configurations This volume examines the dynamic ways that preservice and inservice teachers school administrators university faculty and educational consortia use action research
