The Busy Life of Eighty-Five Years of Ezra Meeker

Ezra Meeker, 2016-09-30 Just why I should write a preface I know not except that it is fashionable to do so and yet in the present case there would seem a little explanation due the reader who may cast his eye on the first chapter of this work Indeed the chapter Early Days in Indiana may properly be termed an introduction though quite intimately connected with the narrative that follows yet not necessary to make a completed story of the trip to Oregon in the early fifties The enlarged scope of this work narrating incidents not connected with the Oregon Trail or the Ox Team expedition may call for this explanation that the author's thought has been to portray frontier life in the Old Oregon Country as well as pioneer life on the plains to live his experiences of eighty five years over again and tell them in plain homely language to the end the later generation may know how the fathers lived what they did and what they thought in the long ago An attempt has been made to teach the young lessons of industry frugality upright and altruistic living as exemplified in the lives of the pioneers While acknowledging the imperfections of the work yet to parents I can sincerely say they may safely place this volume in the home without fear that the adventures recited will arouse a morbid craving in the minds of their children The adventures are of real life and incident to a serious purpose in life and not stories of fancy to make exciting reading although some of them may seem as such Truth is stranger than fiction and the pioneers have no need to borrow from their imagination Seattle Washington

The Jagged Word Field Guide

Scott Leonard Keith, Paul Koch, 2017-07-27 This collection of essays explores masculinity in an unsystematic way We've found that the various ways we've approached masculinity tend to fall into some broad and practical categories in our writing To be a man means to be free to be what God has already declared we are in Christ His saved and redeemed men A man is free we are free from sin death and the power of the devil Being free a man is then honored to work for his neighbor's good knowing that his closest neighbors are those whom God has placed closest to him in his life his family And just as a man speaks to and cares for his own so also does a man need to be spoken to and cared for at times He needs the mutual consolation of the brethren a brotherhood To put it simply a man needs good friends Over and over again we find praise for fun the love of good fellowship good drink and good smoke

Rethinking the Native Hawaiian Past Kanalu G. Terry Young,2014-02-25 This innovative study challenges scholars to rethink standard approaches to the study of Hawai ian history by proposing a Native centered historiography based on concepts derived from the Hawai ian language and oral traditions Historical approaches to traditional Hawai i have tended to focus on the Ali i Nui high chiefs as leaders of a stratified society and on the decisions they made in the context of the arrival of the haole foreigners This study traces the history of the Kaukau Ali i the chiefly servers who were the lesser ranked relatives of the high chiefs The Kaukau Ali i performed a variety of tasks ranging from childcare to redistributive service to the provision of battlefield support within this service relationship which structured the flow of daily life Kanalu Young himself a descendent of the Kaukau Ali i argues that the Native Hawai ian past can be better understood by approaches which are grounded in concepts derived from Native Hawai ian language and oral tradition By shifting the focus of historical study from the high chiefs to the chiefly servers new light is shed on the history of the traditional Hawai ian polity Bibliography Index Migration, Settlement, and the Concepts of House and Home Iris Levin,2015-11-19 How do migrants feel at home in their houses Literature on the migrant house and its role in the migrant experience of home building is inadequate This book offers a theoretical framework based on the notion of home building and the concepts of home and house embedded within it It presents innovative research on four groups of migrants who have settled in two metropolitan cities in two periods migrants from Italy migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from mainland China migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Melbourne Australia and migrants from Morocco migrated in the 1950s and 1960s and from the former Soviet Union migrated in the 1990s and 2000s in Tel Aviv Israel The analysis draws on qualitative data gathered from forty six in depth interviews with migrants in their home environments including extensive visual data Levin argues that the physical form of the house is meaningful in a range of diverse ways during the process of home building and that each migrant group constructs a distinct form of home building in their homes houses according to their specific circumstances of migration namely the origin country country of destination and period of migration as well as the historical economic and social contexts around migration Outlook and Independent ,1928 The Sunday-school World ,1893 The Class of Eighteen Ninety Eight, Princeton University, Twenty-fifth Year Record, 1898 Princeton University. Lullabies for Old Ladies Vera Varga,2015-09-18 The thirteen short stories show the life and challenges of a group of Romanian and Romanian Jew friends after they escape Romania of Ceausescu Their destinies brought them first to Israel and subsequently to Canada or USA The main characters are Dan and Vera a couple struggling to come to terms with immigration assimilation and with Dans mild borderline personality disorder Veras struggle to keep the balance in life and the sanity in her family as a first generation immigrant is also shown The stories are fiction inspired by real life Letters From The Past Ankit Sunar,2025-08-09 Letters from the Past is a moving journey into the shadows of family history The story follows Eliza who after the death of her grandmother returns to the old family cottage and finds a hidden tin box of unsent letters These letters reveal a poignant love story between a nurse named Lillian and a German prisoner of war Edward during the Blitz in World War II Eliza discovers that her own grandmother Margaret was not the woman who wrote the letters With the help of a local historian Jamie she uncovers a long buried secret about her grandmother and Lillian s story which was suppressed by a difficult past As she pieces together the truth Eliza learns to confront her own grief and the bittersweet nature of loss and discovery The novel is a reminder that even in silence a story is waiting to be heard Port of Last Resort Marcia Reynders Ristaino,2001 This book examines two large and generally overlooked diaspora communities one Jewish the other Slavic who found refuge in Shanghai during the tumultuous first half of the twentieth century Eternal Truth Rear Admiral Joseph H. Miller,2015-09-25 We must discover the real world All generations are struggling for truth Truth is our heritage and gift to the next generation so we must support education for all people Some generations have essentially halted progress and others are making progress only because of a few In our world we must proclaim religious and free speech The concept of human liberty is more than 4 000 years old and is repeated by Christ Himself We must dare to read think speak and write the truth Truth is not only violated by falsehood but also by silence Ignorance produces the work of monsters Ignorance is not bliss it is oblivion Ignorance is sin not innocence Man is what he believes coated by either truth or ignorance Truth demands a basic standard of living for the masses to ensure security and freedom for their development Man is master of his fate but he must seek the truth Truth is on the march and nothing can stop it
