marked by some form of hope freedom happiness and courage If they are not then why should anyone believe a word they say In this new book Cardinal Radcliffe is at his best writing with a prophetic edge His argument for Christian belief is profoundly Catholic and profoundly human But what is just as remarkable Radcliffe s argument for and interpretation of Christian Gospel is couched in a deep understanding of human nature and the problems and anxieties of modern men and women Radcliffe is far distant from the theologian s ivory tower and yet his understanding of the Gospel is profoundly theological The frame of reference for this book is wide and it is based amongst other things on Fr Radcliffe s pastoral experience of dealing with people with problematic marriages those struggling with celibacy those trying to understand the nature of religious authority and those trying to remain loyal to the Church which finds their sexual orientation irregular
