Round Table Steinbeck's Uneasy America Barbara A. Heavilin, Susan Shillinglaw, 2024 The first scholarly assessment of Steinbeck's bestselling travelogue Travels with Charley published in 1962 a narrative that blurs the lines between nonfiction and fiction Steinbeck's Uneasy America is the first collection of critical scholarship devoted to Travels with Charley in Search of America John Steinbeck's best selling late career travel memoir In 1960 Steinbeck was a renowned man of American letters Many considered him America's troubadour of ordinary people the conscience of the country But weakened by two small strokes and anxious that he had lost touch with America he embarked on a cross country road trip accompanied by his wife s standard poodle Charley Two years later he published Travels with Charley to popular acclaim and robust sales Throughout this narrative Steinbeck insists that all of our perceptions are warped by personality history and society And while this hybrid and experimental book has long been accepted as an accurate account of his journey journalists and scholars agree that the narrative is part factual part fiction America as seen through Steinbeck's particular warp. The work is long overdue for scholarly assessment Steinbeck's Uneasy America explores three main topics Part 1 explores genre and form to consider the degree to which the work is fiction or nonfiction Part 2 assesses Steinbeck's increasingly bleak assessment of America almost a jeremiad that warns citizens of ecological excess and political apathy Part 3 focuses on Travels with Charley as a road text travel adventure and literary influence This volume s authors offer rich scholarly insights and a wealth of stories facts and anecdotes about Steinbeck and the adventures and misadventures he and Charley met on the road Lively and groundbreaking the collection both enlightens and enlivens discussions of Steinbeck and of the twentieth century American book world CONTRIBUTORS Danica er e William P Childers Donald V Coers Robert DeMott Cecilia Donohue Charles Etheridge Mimi R Gladstein Barbara A Heavilin Kathleen Hicks Carter Davis Johnson Gavin Jones Sally S Kleberg Jay Parini Brian Railsback Susan Shillinglaw Nicholas P Taylor Annals of the Wing Family of America Incorporated, 1954 A Writer's Companion Louis D. The Tourism Encounter Florence Babb, 2010-08-30 In recent decades several Latin American nations have experienced political transitions that have caused a decline in tourism In spite of or even because of that history these areas are again becoming popular destinations This work reveals that in post conflict nations tourism often takes up where social transformation leaves off and sometimes benefits from formerly off limits status Comparing cases in Cuba Mexico Nicaragua and Peru Babb shows how tourism is a major force in remaking transitional nations While tourism touts scenic beauty and colonial charm it also capitalizes on the desire for a brush with recent revolutionary history. In the process selective histories are promoted and nations remade This work presents the diverse stories of those linked to the trade and reveals how interpretations of the past and desires for the future coincide and collide in the global marketplace of tourism The Collected Works of W.B.
