THE END OF THE WORLD Fr. Serafim Rose, elder Cleopa Ilie of Romania, et al, St. John (Maximovitch), IOan Vladuca, Nilus Stryker, 2021-05-11 Wealth without work Pleasure without conscience Science without humanity Knowledge without character Politics without principle Commerce without morality Worship without sacrifice <https://vidjambov.blogspot.com> 2023 01 book inventory vladimir djambov talmach.html Every Orthodox Christian is placed between two worlds this fallen world where we try to work out our salvation and the other world heaven the homeland towards which we are striving and which if we are leading a true Christian life gives us the inspiration to live from day to day in Christian virtue and love But the world is too much with us We often and in fact nowadays we usually forget the heavenly world The pressure of worldliness is so strong today that we often lose track of what our life as a Christian is all about Even if we may be attending church services frequently and consider ourselves active church members how often our churchliness is only something external bound up with beautiful services and the whole richness of our Orthodox tradition of worship but lacking in real inner conviction that Orthodoxy is the faith that can save our soul for eternity lacking in real love for and commitment to Christ the incarnate God and Founder of our faith How often our church life is just a matter of habit something we go through outwardly but which does not change us inwardly does not make us grow spiritually and lead us to eternal life in God But it is easy to become lost in dreams of the future world We should be aware of what is to happen at the end of the world and of what may happen in Russia But spiritual events such as the resurrection of Russia depend upon each individual soul This seven will not happen without the participation of the Orthodox people our repentance and struggle And this involves not only the people of Russia itself it involves the whole of the Russian Diaspora and all the Orthodox people of the world

Russian Intelligentsia in Search of an Identity Svetlana Klimova, 2020-09-25 Russian Intelligentsia in Search of an Identity considers the problem of the Russian intelligentsia's self identification in its historic philosophical and historic cultural aspects The monograph traces the rise of the intelligentsia from the 18th century to the present day problematizing its central ideas and themes In this historical context it proceeds to investigate the distinctive intellectual spiritual and biographical opposition of Dostoevsky and Tolstoy in relation to the character and fate of the Russian intelligentsia with its patterns of thought ideology fundamental values and behavioral models Special attention is given to the binary patterns of the intelligentsia's consciousness as opposed to dialogical and holistic modes of apprehension STORM AND Children kill parents

parents kill children beat or kill a complete stranger but do not rob a crime can be committed by one or the whole gang Such gangs are terrorizing the whole district stumbling around idle or senselessly fighting each other and for what Here it is the time of peace and prosperity when criminals can be from both higher and lower elements of society their behavior has no practical reason often there is no question of any premises and consequences When the perpetrators of such crimes are asked to explain their behavior they respond in approximately the same way it was an impulse an impulse either the offender experienced sadistic pleasure in committing the crime or there was an excuse that did not correspond to the gravity of the crime such as boredom dullness indignation BTW nearly 400 standard pages of text 1 800 characters The first danger lies in wait for someone who begins to read Orthodox books is fond of them but is mistaken in applying what he has read to his own life St Ignatius Bryanchaninov whom together with St Theophan the Recluse can be called a guiding star for the present century wrote a book entitled An Offer to Modern Monasticism every Orthodox of our time should heed his words He warns inexperienced readers from being overwhelmed by examples from the life of the holy fathers and ascetics otherwise he writes the pipe dream of perfection will overshadow the modest tasks of everyday Christian life chap 10 This is an extremely common ailment We are thinking about an ascetic feat and nearby right in front of our nose someone was in trouble but it doesn't occur to help
