Nearing 70 and in what would be the last decade of his life H G Wells fell in love at least three times once with the much younger Baroness Budberg and soon thereafter with two well born Americans Constance Coolidge and Martha Gelhorn 25 and 40 years his junior respectively These would constitute what Wells himself described as his last flounderings towards the wife idea and demonstrate in many ways that Wells was driven less by his considerable intelligence than by his obsession to find his ideal lover what he called his lover shadow This study looks at this very personal side of H G Wells The self proclaimed Don Juan was said to have radiated energy intellectual emotional physical and sexual Drawing on papers made public by the Wells estate the author documents Wells relationship with each of these femme fatales and paints a vivid portrait of the early part of the 20th century in London Paris and the US Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1996 NGO's and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights W. Korey, 2001-02-02 When the Universal Declaration of Human Rights was adopted 50 years ago Eleanor Roosevelt its principal architect predicted that a curious grapevine would carry its message behind barbed wire and stone walls This book tells the extraordinary story of how NGOs became the grapevine she anticipated sharpening our awareness about the violations of human rights shaming its most notorious abusers and creating the international mechanisms to bring about implementation of the Declaration Korey traces how NGO's laid the groundwork for the destruction of the Soviet empire as well as of the apartheid system in South Africa and established the principle of accountability for crimes against humanity The notion of human rights has progressed from being a marginal part of international relations a half century ago to stand today as a critical element in diplomatic discourse and this book shows that it is the NGOs that have placed human rights at the centre of humankind's present and future agenda First Lady, 1984 Refuge Must Be Given John F. Sears, 2021-05-15 Refuge Must Be Given details the evolution of Eleanor Roosevelt from someone who harbored negative impressions of Jews to become a leading Gentile champion of Israel in the United States The book explores for the first time Roosevelt s partnership with the Quaker leader Clarence Pickett in seeking to admit more refugees into the United States and her relationship with Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles who was sympathetic to the victims of Nazi persecution yet defended a visa process that failed both Jewish and non Jewish refugees After the war as a member of the American delegation to the United Nations Eleanor Roosevelt slowly came to the conclusion that the partition of Palestine was the only solution both for the Jews in the displaced persons camps in Europe and for the conflict between the Arabs and the Jews When Israel became a state she became deeply involved in supporting the work of Youth Aliyah and Hadassah its American sponsor in bringing Jewish refugee children to Israel and training them to become productive citizens Her devotion to Israel reflected some of her deepest beliefs about education citizenship and community building Her excitement about Israel s accomplishments and her cultural biases however blinded her to the impact of Israel s founding on the Arabs Visiting the new nation four times and advocating on Israel s behalf created a warm bond not only between her and the people of Israel but between her and the American Jewish community
