Elect In The Son:

Elect in the Son Robert Shank, 1989-09-01 Through the years I have read carefully every serious work on the question of election I found no work that addressed itself to the question in this thorough objective competent manner or afforded such satisfactory obviously Biblical constructions I have every confidence that time will prove this to be the definitive work on the difficult question of election from the Introduction by Dr William W Adams of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary In this comprehensive treatment of all pertinent Scripture passages dealing with election Dr Shank demonstrates that Calvin's doctrine of the unconditional election and the reprobation of particular people is without foundation in the Scriptures He challenges the use of certain proof passages and shows that their application in this manner requires circumventing some of the most explicitly categorical affirmations of Scripture Dr Shank demonstrates that the election of grace does not rule out the salvation of any man that God truly wills all men to be saved The cross is seen as the focal point of election and the event in which time and eternity find their true perspective Elect in the Son Robert Shank, 1972 A Place for Hagar's Son John T. Noble, 2016-06-01 The profound ambivalence of the biblical portrayals of Hagar and Ishmael dispossessed yet protected abandoned yet given promises that rival those of the covenant with Abraham belies easy characterizations of the Pentateuch's writers In particular John T Noble argues conventional characterizations of the Priestly writers view of covenant have failed to take into account the significance of these two non chosen figures Noble carefully examines their roles and depictions in the P and non P Genesis traditions comparing them to other non chosen figures and to patterns found in Exodus traditions and the patriarchal promises to Abraham showing that Ishmael is clearly favored though not chosen Indeed Noble argues Ishmael must be seen as a key figure in the Priestly material highlighting the relationship between Noahic and Abrahamic covenants His ambiguous status calls for reconsideration of the goals and values of the Priestly work which Noble sketches around themes of covenant fertility life and the future of nations A Treatise of the Person of Christ, Etc Thomas MOORE (Separatist Preacher, the Elder.), 1657 T&T Clark Handbook of Election Edwin Chr. van Driel, 2023-11-16 Offering not only state of the art introductions from Biblical historical and constructive theologians this volume also fosters an inter disciplinary and cross confessional conversation reclaiming the idea of election as a central notion for any retelling of the biblical narrative Several essays explore the variety of ways in which election is spoken about in the Scripture drawing on research from the last twenty years that offers a more sophisticated framework than the traditionally theological categories of elect and reject The historical part of the volume covers new analyses of Medieval and post Reformation Catholic and Protestant debates on predestination while the book's constructive part contributes to contemporary conversations on the relationship between Trinity Christology and election the development of a post supersessionist understanding of Israel's chosenness as well as voices from contextual struggles in South America Palestine and South Africa Who is this son of man? Larry W. Hurtado, Paul L. Owen, 2011-03-17 This book is the first ever collection of scholarly essays in English devoted specifically to the theme of the expression son of man It describes the major competing theories which have addressed questions such as What is the original Aramaic expression which lies behind the Greek phrase and what was its original connotation How do the gospel writers use the expression son of man Is it a Christological title pregnant with meaning much like the titles son of God Christ Messiah and son of David Is it used as a way of designating Jesus as a human being of unique redemptive significance Or does it rather originate in a nuanced use obscured in Greek translation of an Aramaic expression used in place of the first person pronoun as an indefinite pronoun or for generic statements about human beings Larry Hurtado and Paul Owen have brought together contributing scholars on the basis of their expertise in Aramaic historical Jesus research the son of man debate itself and related fields of research

GREENFIELD, 1852 The Son of God and the New Creation Graeme Goldsworthy, 2015-06-15 Truly this was the Son of God Matthew 27:54 The theme of divine sonship stretches across the pages of the Bible from Adam in the garden of Eden through the nation of Israel and King David and ultimately to Jesus Christ in the New Jerusalem the Son of God par excellence In this volume renowned biblical scholar Graeme Goldsworthy shows what Christ's fulfillment of the divine sonship motif means for all who are sons and daughters of God Part of the Short Studies in Biblical Theology series

Supralapsarianism Reconsidered Phillip A. Hussey, 2024-05-30 Phillip A. Hussey examines the scholarship of Jonathan Edwards and interrogates the relationship between Christ and the decree within Reformed Theology and reveals the contemporary theological significance of supralapsarian Christology In a late notebook entry Jonathan Edwards offered a programmatic statement on the relation between Christ and predestination In that grand decree of predestination or the sum of God's decrees the appointment of Christ or the decree respecting his person must be considered first This work unpacks the scope of Edwards's statement both in terms of setting forth an interpretation of Edwards's own theology on the relation between Christ and the decree as well as drawing out the larger insights of Edwards's reasoning for current theological reflection "In Christ" in Paul Michael J. Thate, Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Constantine R. Introduction to Theology (Foundations for Spirit-Filled Christianity) Frank D. Macchia,2023-06-20 This systematic theology textbook introduces students to the complexity and beauty of theology as a pursuit of the global church today It views theology as an ongoing conversation with many voices about the wonders of God that is faithful to Scripture but is also attentive to the wisdom of tradition and the relevance of context The book first summarizes the nature and necessity of theological thinking and discusses theological method Chapters then unfold in creedal order through the various regions of Christian teaching with units on revelation God creation and providence Christology pneumatology ecclesiology anthropology soteriology and eschatology This book is part of a new series that reflects the changing face of global Christianity Series volumes are written by leading Pentecostal Charismatic scholars who highlight themes of interest to Pentecostal Charismatic students however the books are respectful appreciative and inclusive of a variety of church families and traditions Series editors are Jerry Ireland Paul W Lewis and Frank D Macchia Tongues of Fire Frank D. Macchia,2023-03-28 In this volume Frank Macchia offers a systematic theology written with Christ's outpouring of the Holy Spirit from the heavenly Father at Pentecost as its dominant motif Christ's death and resurrection provide for our reconciliation with God and make way for the Spirit for the divine overflowing onto all flesh The church is born in the grace of that overflowing From the abundance of this divine self giving spring forth many different tongues aflame with the church's praise and witness This systematic theology seeks to join and further guide these tongues in their diverse contexts by reflecting in a coherent fashion across the spectrum of Christian doctrine The first three chapters offer an extensive treatment of modern approaches to theology Subsequent chapters explore all of the major topics of importance to theology historically This is theology written from a Pentecostal interest yet seeking to speak beyond it to a larger ecumenical horizon Son of God Garrick V. Allen,Kai Akagi,Paul Sloan,Madhavi Nevader,2019-03-04 In antiquity son of god meaning a ruler designated by the gods to carry out their will was a title used by the Roman emperor Augustus and his successors as a way to reinforce their divinely appointed status But this title was also used by early Christians to speak about Jesus borrowing the idiom from Israelite and early Jewish discourses on monarchy This interdisciplinary volume explores what it means to be God's son's in ancient Jewish and early Christian literature Through close readings of relevant texts from multiple ancient corpora including the Hebrew Bible the New Testament the Dead Sea Scrolls Greco Roman texts and inscriptions early Christian and Islamic texts and apocalyptic literature the chapters in this volume engage a range of issues including messianism deification eschatological figures Jesus interreligious polemics and the Roman and Jewish backgrounds of early Christianity and the authors of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The essays in this collection demonstrate that divine sonship is an ideal prism through which to better understand the deep interrelationship of ancient religions and their politics of kingship and divinity. In addition to the editors, the contributors to this volume include Richard Bauckham, Max Botner, George J. Brooke, Jan Joosten, Menahem Kister, Reinhard Kratz, Mateusz Kusio, Michael A. Lyons, Matthew V. Novenson, Michael Peppard, Sarah Whittle, and N. T. Wright.
