The Election Book, 2012 Making Black History Dominique Haensell, 2021-10-04 This study proposes that rather than trying to discern the normative value of Afropolitanism

as an identificatory concept politics ethics or aesthetics Afropolitanism may be best approached as a distinct historical and cultural moment that is a certain historical constellation that allows us to glimpse the shifting and multiple silhouettes which Africa as signifier as real and imagined locus embodies in the globalized yet predominantly Western cultural landscape of the 21st century As such Making Black History looks at contemporary fictions of the African or Black Diaspora that have been written and received in the moment of Afropolitanism Discursively this moment is very much part of a diasporic conversation that takes place in the US and is thus informed by various negotiations of blackness race class and cultural identity Yet rather than interpreting Afropolitan literatures merely as a rejection of racial solidarity as some commentators have they should be read as ambivalent responses to post racial discourses dominating the first decade of the 21st century particularly in the US which oscillate between moments of intense hope and acute disappointment Please read our interview with Dominique Haensell here <https://blog.degruyter.com/de-gruyters-10th-open-access-book-anniversary-dominique-haensell-and-her-winning-title-making-black-history>

The Crisis of Liberal Democracy in Contemporary Novels Leander Møller Gøttcke, 2025-04-22 This book explores how contemporary novels reflect a profound shift in Western culture from the political optimism of the post Cold War era to growing fears about the future of liberal democracy Analysing four major works Karl Ove Knausgård's My Struggle series Zadie Smith's White Teeth Boualem Sansal's 2084 and Michel Houellebecq's Submission it shows how these novels illuminate current social discontents and engages the anxieties of our time Where the so called end of history narrative once promised a triumphant liberal democracy novelistic fiction today reflects a more ominous outlook progressives are haunted by dystopian visions of democratic decline while reactionaries fear cultural displacement and yearn for a lost Golden Age Bridging literary analysis and political theory the book offers new perspectives on how literature engages with and challenges contemporary political narratives making it a vital resource for those interested in the intersection of politics and literature

The Outlook ,1916 Outlook and Independent ,1916 American Literature in the Era of Trumpism Dolores Resano,2022-08-23 This edited collection offers an exploration of American literature in the age of Trumpism understood as an ongoing sociopolitical and affective reality by bringing together analyses of some of the ways in which American writers have responded to the derealization of political culture in the United States and the experience of a new American reality after 2016 The volume s premise is that the disruptions and dislocations that were so exacerbated by the political ascendancy of Trump and his spectacle laden presidency have unsettled core assumptions about American reality and the possibilities of representation The blurring of the relationship between fact and fiction bolstered by the discourses of fake news and alternative facts has not only drawn attention to the shattering of any notion of shared reality but has also forced a reexamination of the purpose and value of literature especially when considering its troubled relation to the representation of America The authors in this collection respond to the invitation to reassess the workings of fiction and critique in an age of Trumpism by considering some of the most recent literary responses to the new American realities including works by Colson Whitehead Ben Winters Claudia Rankine Gary Shteyngart Jennifer Egan and Steve Erickson to name but a few some of which were composed in the run up to the 2016 election but were able to accurately and incisively imagine the world to come

"The" English Catalogue of Books ,1898 HBO's The Leftovers Eliot Borenstein,2023-12-06

This book unpacks and analyzes the central themes of sacrifice melancholy apocalypticism and the nature of family and home in HBO's The Leftovers to demonstrate the key role it played in the development of early twenty first century television Eliot Borenstein argues that the story of The Leftovers is the most sustained exploration of loss ever to appear on American television and subverts the expectations of viewers who look to prestige dramas as puzzles to solve by providing no clear answers the mysteries most central to the show's plot Instead Borenstein posits the series endeavors to provide more nuanced and realistic portrayals of the melancholy that occurs when people's lives are unmoored leavening an inherently depressing experience with absurdity and moments of grace
