Leonard,R. Mortimore,2001-02-20 Big new changes in the British electoral system devolved assemblies for Scotland Wales and Northern Ireland proportional representation for the European parliament and the direct election of London's Mayor have all been introduced since the last general election in 1997 and others may be on the way They are described and discussed by Dick Leonard a leading political journalist and former MP and Roger Mortimore a senior opinion pollster in this completely revised and updated edition of the standard work on British elections      Elections and Voters in Britain David Denver,Christopher Carman,Robert Johns,2017-07-04 How do voters in Britain decide which party to vote for in elections Why do smaller parties get more support than they used to How do the mass media influence political opinions The authors examine these and other questions in the third edition of this popular text They trace the evolution of the British electorate over the post war period and focus in particular on recent elections from Labour's victories in the 2000s through to the hung parliament of 2010 As well as examining and explaining theories of party choice including the view that voters' evaluations of government performance and party leaders are now the key determinants of election outcomes the authors also devote separate chapters to turnout trends and patterns electoral systems and the geography of party support Campaigning opinion polls and the mass media are also considered Fully revised the text incorporates the latest research on elections and voting behaviour and includes analysis of recent trends and developments including how new media are affecting election campaigning      Elections in Britain Richard Lawrence Leonard,1987      British Electoral Facts 1885-1975 Frederick Walter Scott Craig,1976-11-01      British Elections and Parties Review David Denver,Justin Fisher,Steve Ludlam,Charles Pattie,2013-10-18 This volume features key political issues for 1990s Britain the reform of the Labour party the use of opinion polls the impact of the media European integration Scotland and regional trends and the bases of party support      Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum British Museum. Department of Printed Books,1891      Research in Education ,1974      Resources in Education ,1995-10      Subject Index of the Modern Works Added to the Library of the British Museum in the Years ... British Museum,1902      Experience of the Scottish Elections Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Scottish Affairs Committee,2008 On 3 May 2007 combined elections were held in Scotland electing members to the Scottish

Parliament and all 32 of Scotland's local councils The number of spoilt ballots cast in these elections was unusually high and difficulties with the electronic counting machines led to the count being suspended in some constituencies The Electoral Commission engaged Ron Gould CM to conduct an independent assessment of the elections This report examines the findings of the Gould Report and its recommendations some of which have already been accepted in principle by the Scotland Office and by the Scottish Executive including holding the Scottish Parliament and local government elections at different times and producing separate regional and constituency ballot papers for the Scottish Parliament elections Evidence strongly suggests that there are deep problems with the way elections are administered both in Scotland and across the UK which if left unaddressed could again create difficulties in the future Any changes to the way in which elections are carried out must be accompanied by rigorous research and testing the absence of such research and testing was a major failing that led to the problems of 3 May There were failings on the part of the Scotland Office where lengthy delays disrupted election planning and led to weak contingency arrangements The Electoral Commission did not do enough to warn of potential problems with the ballot The use of e counting has been subject to particular criticism Although electronic counting may have the potential to produce results more quickly in these elections it did not operate efficiently or transparently Any future proposals must place the needs of the voter and the interests of transparency far above the limitations of any given technology
