Everyday Extraordinary Encountering Fetishism With Marx Freud Lacan Figures Of The Unconscious:

Everyday Extraordinary Christopher M. Gemerchak, 2004 The concept of fetishism has long been a window through which philosophers psychoanalysts and cultural anthropologists have looked in order to critically examine the nature of beliefs sexual interests and material values and it remains today a vital interpretive paradigm The enduring interest in fetishism gives testimony to the fact that its status and significance have yet to be fully resolved In the attempt to further clarify this ambiguous and often mystifying phenomenon the contributors to Everyday Extraordinary Encountering Fetishism with Marx Freud and Lacan have taken a fresh look at the fundamental dynamic of fetishism through the lenses of its most influential interpreters not only Marx Freud and Lacan but also Derrida Mannoni and Pietz In this collection of essays the philosophical approach joins forces with the psychoanalytic and the psychoanalytic with the aesthetic and mythological often with striking results Emerging from the essays contained in this volume is a notion of fetishism as a response to a crisis of meaning personal social or religious The fetish mediates the crisis that arises when a system of meaning and identity is confronted with something that threatens it with dissolution whether this threat arises from an excessive and traumatic figure of alterity or from the loss of the ground on which ones certainty had been staked And the stakes of this confrontation are indeed high as the fetish is here seen as an object having a profound influence on the life of desire now leading to a symbolic blossoming of the mundane now into perverse repetition and the refusal of change A Non-oedipal

Psychoanalysis? Philippe Van Haute, Tomas Geyskens, 2012 The different psychopathologic syndromes show in an exaggerated and caricatural manner the basic structures of human existence These structures not only characterize psychopathology but they also determine the highest forms of culture This is the credo of Freud's anthropology This anthropology implies that humans are beings of the in between The human being is essentially tied up between pathology and culture and normativity cannot be defined in a theoretically convincing manner The authors of this book call this Freudian anthropology a patho analysis of existence or a clinical anthropology This anthropology gives a new meaning to the Nietzschean dictum that the human being is a sick animal Freud and later Lacan first developed this anthropological insight in relation to hysteria in its relation to literature This patho analytic perspective progressively disappears in Freud's texts after 1905 This book reveals the crucial moments of that development In doing so it shows clearly not only that Freud introduced the Oedipus complex much later than is usually assumed but also that the theory of the Oedipus complex is irreconcilable with the project of a clinical anthropology The authors not only examine the philosophical meaning of this thesis in the work of Freud They also examine its avatars in the texts of Jacques Lacan and show how this project of a patho analysis of existence inevitably obliges us to formulate a non oedipal psychoanalytic anthropology Psychoanalysis,

Monotheism and Morality Wolfgang Müller-Funk, Inge Scholz-Strasser, Herman Westerink, Daniela Finzi, 2013 In this volume renowned experts in psychoanalysis reflect on the relationship between psychoanalysis and religion in particular presenting various controversial interpretations of the question if and to what extent monotheism semantically and structurally fits psychoanalytic insights Some essays augment traditional religious critiques of Freudianism with later religious philosophical theories on for example femininity Others explore the relation between psychopathology and morality from the Freudian premise that psychopathology shows in an excessive way aspects or mechanisms of the human psyche that constitute our subjectivity moral capacities and behavior Contributors Andreas De Block KU Leuven University of Leuven Fethi Benslama University of Paris Diderot Sergio Benvenuto ISTC Rome Gohar Homayounpour Shahid Beheshti University Tehran Felix de Mendelssohn Sigmund Freud University Vienna Julia Kristeva University of Paris Diderot Lode Lauwaert KU Leuven University of Leuven Siamak Movahedi University of Massachusetts Wolfgang Muller Funk University of Vienna Gilles Ribault University of Paris Diderot Celine Surprenant University of Sussex Inge Scholz Strasser Sigmund Freud Foundation Herman Westerink University of Vienna Joel Whitebook Columbia University Moshe Zuckermann Tel Aviv University

Consuming the Body Dawn Woolley, 2022-09-08 Consuming the Body examines contemporary consumerism and the commodified construction of ideal gendered bodies paying particular attention to the new forms of interaction produced by social networking sites Describing the behaviours of an ideal neoliberal subject Woolley identifies modes of discipline forms of pleasure and opportunities for subversion in an examination of how individuals are addressed and the ways in which they are expected to respond Key modes of address that compel the consumer to consume are sadistic commands communicated in adverts TV programmes and magazine articles a fetishistic gaze that dissects the body into parts to be improved through commodification and a hysterical insistent presence that compels the consumer to present their body for critique and appreciation that is exemplified in the selfie Woolley interprets the visual characteristics of different types of selfies including fitspiration thinspiration fatspiration and bodypositivity to understand how they relate to current body ideals Healthism and culture bound illnesses such as hysteria and eating disorders are examined to demonstrate the impact of commodified body ideals on consumers bodies An analysis of thinspiration images photographs of emaciated bodies shared on pro eating disorder blogs and websites suggests that the anorexic body represents the logical and fatal end point for the idealised body in consumer culture Fat acceptance selfies suggest there is a fourth mode of address empowering presence that has the potential to liberate consumers from the trap of visibility produced by the other three modes of address In conclusion the book identifies some creative methods for producing selfies that evade commoditisation and discipline

The Architecture of Phantasmagoria Libero Andreotti, Nadir Lahiji, 2016-11-10 In a time of mass mediated modernity the city becomes almost by definition a constitutively mediated city Today more than ever before the omnipresence of media in every sphere of culture is creating a new urban ontology saturating fracturing and exacerbating the manifold experience of city life The authors describe this condition as one of hyper mediation a qualitatively new phase in the city's historical evolution The concept of phantasmagoria has pride of place in their study using it as an all embracing explanatory framework they explore its meanings as a critical category to understand the culture and the architecture of the contemporary city Andreotti and Lahiji argue that any account of architecture that does not include understanding the role and function of media and its impact on the city in the present tele technological capitalist society is fundamentally flawed and incomplete Their approach moves from Walter Benjamin through the concepts of phantasmagoria and of media as theorized also by Theodor Adorno Siegfried Kracauer and a new generation of contemporary critics towards a new socio critical and aesthetic analysis of the mediated space of the contemporary city

Bibliografisch Repertorium Van de Wijsbegeerte), 2005 The Capitalist Unconscious Samo Tomšič, 2016-02-16 A major systematic study of the connection between Marx and Lacan's work Finalist for the American Board and Academy of Psychoanalysis Book Prize Despite a resurgence of interest in Lacanian psychoanalysis particularly in terms of the light it casts on capitalist ideology as witnessed by the work of Slavoj Žižek there remain remarkably few systematic accounts of the role of Marx in Lacan's work A major comprehensive study of the connection between their work The Capitalist Unconscious resituates Marx in the broader context of Lacan's teaching and insists on the capacity of psychoanalysis to reaffirm dialectical and materialist thought Lacan's unorthodox reading of Marx refigured such crucial concepts as alienation jouissance and the Freudian labour theory of the unconscious Tracing these developments Tomšič maintains that psychoanalysis structuralism and the critique of political economy participate in the same movement of thought his book shows how to follow this movement through to some of its most important conclusions The Returns of Fetishism Charles de Brosses, 2017-07-26 For more than 250 years Charles de Brosses's term fetishism has exerted great influence over our most ambitious thinkers Used as an alternative to magic but nonetheless expressing the material force of magical thought de Brosses's term has proved indispensable to thinkers as diverse as Kant Hegel Marx Freud Lacan Baudrillard and Derrida With this book Daniel H. Leonard offers the first fully annotated English translation of the text that started it all On the Worship of Fetish Gods and Rosalind C. Morris offers incisive commentary that helps modern readers better understand it and its legacy The product of de Brosses's autodidactic curiosity and idiosyncratic theories of language On the Worship of Fetish Gods is an enigmatic text that is often difficult for contemporary audiences to assess In a thorough introduction to the text Leonard situates de Brosses's work within the cultural and intellectual milieu of its time Then Morris traces the concept of fetishism through its extraordinary permutations as it was picked up and transformed by the fields of philosophy comparative religion political economy psychoanalysis and anthropology Ultimately she breaks new ground moving into and beyond recent studies by thinkers such as William Pietz Hartmut Böhme and Alfonso Lacono through illuminating new discussions on topics ranging from translation issues to Africanity and the new materialisms Egocracy Howard Rouse, Sonia Arribas, 2011 This book tries to bring together the work of Marx Freud and Lacan It does this not by enumerating what might stereotypically be considered to be the central theses of these authors and then proceeding to combine them a method that is inevitably doomed to failure but instead by confronting each one of their oeuvres with what might best be described as its extimate core The work of Marx is confronted with a problematic that implicitly and at times even explicitly runs throughout it that of the splitting dividing and doubling or perhaps better knotting of the proletarian subject The work of Freud is confronted following on from this analysis of Marx with the hidden social and historical determination of its own most revolutionary insight that the nucleus of the ego is unconscious and this social and historical determination itself in turn allows for a reinscription of the three fundamental categories of Lacanian psychoanalysis the symbolic the imaginary and the real

The Fetish Revisited J. Lorand Matory, 2018-10-04 Since the early modern encounter between African and European merchants on the Guinea Coast European social critics have invoked African gods as metaphors for misplaced value and agency using the term fetishism chiefly to assert the irrationality of their fellow Europeans Yet as J Lorand Matory demonstrates in The Fetish Revisited Afro Atlantic gods have a materially embodied social logic of their own which is no less rational than the social theories of Marx and Freud Drawing on thirty six years of fieldwork in Africa Europe and the Americas Matory casts an Afro Atlantic eye on European theory to show how Marx's and Freud's conceptions of the fetish both illuminate and misrepresent Africa's human made gods Through this analysis the priests practices and spirited things of four major Afro Atlantic religions simultaneously call attention to the culture specific materially conditioned physically embodied and indeed fetishistic nature of Marx's and Freud's theories themselves Challenging long held assumptions about the nature of gods and theories Matory offers a novel perspective on the social roots of these tandem African and European understandings of collective action while illuminating the relationship of European social theory to the racism suffered by Africans and assimilated Jews alike

a failed treatment In Dora Hysteria and Gender renowned Freud scholars reflect on the Dora case presenting various innovative and controversial perspectives and elaborating the significance of the text for contemporary debates on gender sexuality and queer theory This volume is of interest for psychoanalysts and scholars working on psychoanalysis sexuality gender queer theory philosophical anthropology and literary studies Contributors Rachel B Blass Heythrop College University of London Daniela Finzi Sigmund Freud Foundation Esther Hutfless University of Vienna Ulrike Kadi Medical University of Vienna Ilka Quindeau Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences Beatriz Santos University Paris VII Diderot Philippe Van Haute Radboud University Nijmegen Herman Westerink Radboud University Nijmegen Jeanne Wolff Bernstein Sigmund Freud University in Vienna Fetishism as Cultural Discourse Emily S. Apter, William Pietz, 1993 Formations of the Unconscious Jacques Lacan, 2020-08-31 When I decided to explore the question of Witz or wit with you this year I undertook a small enquiry It will come as no surprise at all that I began by questioning a poet This is a poet who introduces the dimension of an especially playful wit that runs through his work as much in his prose as in more poetic forms and which he brings into play even when he happens to be talking about mathematics for he is also a mathematician I am referring to Raymond Queneau While we were exchanging our first remarks on the matter he told me a joke It s a joke about exams about the university entrance exams if you like We have a candidate and we have an examiner Tell me says the examiner about the battle of Marengo The candidate pauses for a moment with a dreamy air The battle of Marengo Bodies everywhere It s terrible Wounded everywhere It s horrible But says the examiner Can t you tell me anything more precise about this battle The candidate thinks for a moment then replies A horse rears up on its hind legs and whinnies The examiner surprised seeks to test him a little further and says In that case can you tell me about the battle of Fontenoy Oh says the candidate a horse rears up on its hind legs and whinnies The examiner strategically asked the candidate to talk about the battle of Trafalgar The candidate replies Dead everywhere A blood bath Wounded everywhere Hundreds of them But my good man can t you tell me anything more precise about this battle A horse Excuse me I would have you note that the battle of Trafalgar is a naval battle Whoah Whoah says the candidate Back up Neddy The value of this joke is to my mind that it enables us to decompose I believe what is at stake in a witticism Extract from Chapter VI Lacan and Postfeminism Elizabeth Wright, 2000 Jacques Lacan is known as the French Freud and is the key figure of postmodern psychoanalysis Remembering the Phallic Mother Marcia Ian, 1993 Seminar of Moustafa Safouan Anna Shane, 2002-05-17 Thanks to Safouan we rediscover the link between Lacan s concept of Jouissance and Freud s death drive between the signifier and Freud s unconscious and between Freud s concept of transference and Lacan s controversial views on the end of analysis Neither a follower nor a detractor Safouan is a Lacanian who knows how to keep his distance Beyond the Chains of Illusion Erich Fromm, 1962

Transference Jacques Lacan, 2017-10-23 Alcibiades attempted to seduce Socrates he wanted to make him and in the most openly avowed way possible into someone instrumental and subordinate to what To the object of Alcibiades s desire

galma the good object I would go even further How can we analysts fail to recognize what is involved He says quite clearly Socrates has the good object in his stomach Here Socrates is nothing but the envelope in which the object of desire is found It is in order to clearly emphasize that he is nothing but this envelope that Alcibiades tries to show that Socrates is desire s serf in his relations with Alcibiades that Socrates is enslaved to Alcibiades by his desire Although Alcibiades was aware that Socrates desired him he wanted to see Socrates s desire manifest itself in a sign in order to know that the other the object galma was at his mercy Now it is precisely because he failed in this undertaking that Alcibiades disgraces himself and makes of his confession something that is so affectively laden The daemon of Aid s Shame about which I spoke to you before in this context is what intervenes here This is what is violated here The most shocking secret is unveiled before everyone the ultimate mainspring of desire which in love relations must always be more or less dissimulated is revealed its aim is the fall of the Other A into the other a Jacques Lacan
