individuals and thus protect them from state legislation By 1968 when Everyman's Constitution was first published the Fourteenth Amendment had become a tool for the incorporation of the Bill of Rights to apply to all American citizens The essays in this reprinted edition are still relevant as the nation continues to interpret our framing legislation in light of the concerns of today and to balance citizens rights against those of corporations Howard Jay Graham was a law librarian brought in by the NAACP's legal team to write a brief on the Fourteenth Amendment for the Supreme Court case Brown v Board of Education Though the Supreme Court justices ruled in favor of the NAACP based on the sociological rather than historical evidence it provided Graham's work published in various law journals over several decades contributed greatly to the ongoing interpretation of the Fourteenth Amendment
