Detailed description: The musical score is for a choir divided into two groups of five voices each (SSATB) and a piano. The tempo is marked J = 144. The key signature is three sharps. The vocal parts (Sop. 1, Sop. 2, Alto, Tenor, Bass) sing the word 'doo' or 'lah' in various rhythmic patterns (eighth notes, sixteenth notes, etc.). The piano part provides harmonic support with sustained notes and chords. The score is divided into two sections, indicated by a double bar line with repeat dots at the beginning of the second section.

The Language of Siegfried Sassoon Marcello Giovanelli,2022-09-22 This book presents a cognitive stylistic analysis of the writing of Siegfried Sassoon a First World War poet who has typically been perceived as a poet of protest and irony but whose work is in fact multi faceted and complex in theme and shifted in style considerably throughout his lifetime The author starts from the premise that a more systematic account of Sassoon s style is possible using the methodology of contemporary stylistics in particular Cognitive Grammar Using this as a starting point he revisits common ideas from Sassoon scholarship and reconfigures them through the lens of cognitive stylistics to provide a fresh perspective on Sassoon s style This book will be of interest to students and scholars of stylistics war poetry twentieth century literature and cognitive linguistics

Adventures of the Ghost Patrol James Bell,2018-07-23 The Ghost Patrol got its name after being reported that all members were killed in the battle of Gettysburg The Special Forces unit had gotten well known for its successful raids on Yankee supply lines either destroying them or carrying war materials to rebel camps Now they were asked to attack supply trains and even to steal the whole train and bring it to the rebels who were in desperate need of all war supplies Captain Sam as his men liked to call him was an excellent soldier He handpicked his men and gave them special training They were well disciplined to fight hard and win They could hit their targets hundreds of yards away with their long range rifles Captain Samuel Clifton was a plantation owner and a family man who loved his beautiful wife and children They loved to have parties where they were known for serving good food and having great entertainment     Always DM Yates, Two eternal lovers Einarr and Katura come to Earth again to experience mortality as Simon And April Simon is 36 years old and travels the world in search of antiques April is his best friend s 16 yr old niece who believes Simon and she are meant to be together Simon disagrees and wants nothing to do with her The story follows their lives and experiences ending when April is 80 yrs old     Hanging without a Rope Mary Margaret Steedly,2019-01-15 When Mary Steedly went to North Sumatra Indonesia she intended to study the curing practices of Karo Batak spirit mediums the gurus who keep a community in touch with its ancestors She became fascinated by the stories these women and men told of their encounters with spirits in the ritual arena and on the borders of the everyday social world In these stories Karo mediums conveyed their sense of historical out of placeness which they described as hanging without a rope in Indonesia s state proclaimed Age of Development Based on the author s three years of fieldwork in urban and rural Karoland this engaging and sympathetic account focuses on issues of experience memory and narrative plausibility Steedly approaches mediums stories not simply as reservoirs of information about what happened at a particular moment but as interested efforts to map a pathway across the shifting landscape of historical memory Over the past century Karoland has been the scene of colonial conquest Christian conversion commercial agricultural development military occupation reolution migration and modernization Stories of spirit encounters Steedly argues provide an alternative unofficial perspective on the historical transformation of the Karo social world In addition to her rich ethnographic material she draws on feminist theories of subjectivity William Faulkner s reconstructions of personal and collective memory and current anthropological explorations of the politics of representation to open the ethnographic imagination to historical eventfulness Mary Margaret Steedly is Assistant Professor of Anthropology at Harvard University Originally published in 1993 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905     Brothers, Lift Your Voices Robin Langstaff-French,2020-12-18 The year is 1944 and as the world undergoes one of modern history s most horrific eras the Langstaff family strives to remain connected despite the oceans and battlegrounds that separate them Brothers Lift Your Voices is an epic compilation of letters sent between the Langstaffs during WWII with one of them practicing theatre in Europe and another serving the military in Japan undergoing unimaginable stress and strife As the letters progress more and more details about the war as well as the traumatic toll it is taking on the family members well being both physical and emotional are slowly revealed Against all odds and with unfaltering courage these correspondences serve as a testimony to the power of humankind s greatest capacity to love Brothers Lift Your Voices is a unique WWII book that offers readers an intimate vivid exploration of life during those trying times from multiple perspectives each family member shares his or her thoughts and experiences from wherever they are and in whatever condition and each consistently affirms their fondness and dedication to one another There are moments of hope and optimism and there are moments of fear and vulnerability The Langstaffs story is an invitation for readers to empathize with those who endured the war bringing to the surface evocative messages regarding the futility of fighting and the fragility of life it also serves as a brilliant reminder of the strength of the human spirit when imbued with love support and faith
