Printers' Ink; the ... Magazine of Advertising, Management and Sales ,1908 Growing up and Finding Her Brad and Mary Buettner,2011-03-21 Chicagos East Side and its Fox Valley suburbs form the backdrop for Growing Up and Finding Her a memoir told with the poignancy that only a true story can deliver Authors Brad and Mary Buettner recount how their lives stream together following the difficult challenges of the 1950s and 60s when their families struggled to overcome poverty misfortune and mental illness The contrast between Brad Buettners small town environment and Mary Ellen Janowskis big city experience is one aspect of the story However when Brad is six the death of his sister Bobby plunges his family into a spiral of grief and anguish Meanwhile Mary battles personal insecurities after being rejected by her closest friend The pair grapple with life independently until red corduroy of all things provides the nudge that blends them together in a union lasting more than forty five years In this moving tale Richard Nixon and Dwight Eisenhower make a brief appearance and the Vietnam War poses an unexpected obstacle three days before the couples wedding Growing Up and Finding Her is a story of pain friendship and love which unfolds with sincere warmth and humor Hal Holoun on Oil Painting: Living an

Artist's Life Linda K. Welsch,2016-08-19 This book is a compilation of the letters correspondence and research that I began collecting in 1998 It will give an overview of Hal s technical methods in oil painting his creative style and his approach to art More importantly the information is given here in his own words shared with us in personal stories and experiences page 1

Common Threads Adele Flood,2014-10-16 Common Threads explores ideas of artistic identity and memory contained within the narrated stories of ten textile artists It reveals how individuals bring a sense of linearity to fragments of memory and create a cohesive sense of self through telling their life s story By employing a systems model the author constructs new ideas of interrogating identity and art practice The model Constructing Personal Narratives brings into focus the hermeneutic circle of learning and identifies the importance and need to provide opportunities for lifelong learning The stories told by the participants who returned to the formal education sector later in life reveal the profound effects adult learning had upon their lives The writer reveals how the model generated the interview questions that provided the rich biographical content that emerged within dialogues The common threads of experience and feelings of the ten participants and the author are revealed and from these emerge deepened understandings of both the place of stories within our lives and how stories can further an understanding of what it means to be an artist Emerging from these stories are implications for teaching practice these are presented as observations and questions in terms of how educators should be part of the learning experience with those they educate
