Counseling the Nursing Mother Judith Lauwers, Anna Swisher, 2016 Written from a teaching perspective Counseling the Nursing Mother A Lactation Consultant's Guide Sixth Edition presents topics within a counseling framework with practical suggestions and evidence based information interwoven throughout Completely updated and revised it includes new research on milk composition the importance of the gut microbiome and skin to skin care Affordable Care Act changes and the latest guidelines from the World Health Organization for breastfeeding with HIV Also explored and expanded are discussions on cultural competence working effectively and sensitively with LGBTQ families addressing disparities in health equity milk banking issues and social media trends for lactation information and support Additionally the Sixth Edition also serves as a significant teaching tool for students interns and other healthcare professionals With an extensive glossary and bulleted lists at the end of each chapter it is an ideal study guide for International Board Certified Lactation Consultant IBCLC certification and practice Each new print copy includes Navigate 2 Advantage Access that unlocks a comprehensive and interactive eBook Teenage Pregnancy, Parenting and Intergenerational Relations Sally Brown, 2016-05-19 Drawing on interviews and focus groups with young mothers and fathers their parents and other relatives this book provides a rich exploration of the experience of being a teenage parent now and for earlier generations closely examining teenage pregnancy and parenting in families where two or more generations have been teenage mothers Brown also explores the cultural and social contexts of teenage parenting by including the views of people who have many years experience of working with young parents in health social and welfare settings The book challenges policy contexts which focus on negative aspects of teenage parenting and shows that for many young people parenting can be a positive experience It will appeal to academics policymakers and professionals with an interest in teenage pregnancy and parenting Dating and Sexuality in America Jeffrey S. Turner, 2003-11-04 A highly informative account of trends concepts and problems related to dating and sexuality in the United States along with thought provoking coverage of today's most important issues and controversies A history of dating and sexuality illuminates new trends and problems that were absent just a few decades ago The most important dating and sexuality issues facing teenagers today are explored including solutions and implications for educational intervention The work elucidates how dating unfolds and how sexual attitudes and behaviors impact intimacy Valuable information about organizations and individuals as well as print and electronic resources are included in this authoritative work Distributing Condoms and Hope Chris Barcelos, 2020-12-01 Distributing Condoms and Hope is a feminist ethnographic account of how youth sexual health programs in the racially and economically stratified city of Millerston reproduce harm in the marginalized communities they are meant to serve Chris A Barcelos makes space for the stories of young mothers who often recognize the narrow ways that public health professionals respond to pregnancies Barcelos's findings show that teachers social workers and nurses ignore systemic issues of race class and gender and instead advocate for individual level solutions such as distributing condoms and promoting hope Through a lens of reproductive justice Distributing Condoms and Hope imagines a different approach to serving marginalized youth a support system that neither uses their lives as a basis for disciplinary public policies nor romanticizes their struggles
