Every Word You Write ... Vichy Will Be Watching You Robert W. Parson, 2013 Following France's military defeat in 1940 Marshal Pétain and his Vichy regime drastically expanded upon the role of a top secret organization known as the Postal Surveillance System The organization served two purposes to find out how people felt about Vichy's policies including collaboration with Nazi Germany and to keep an eye on activities the new government deemed suspicious Over seventy years later the private letters telegrams and phone conversations collected through the Postal Surveillance System provide a wealth of information about the dark years of 1940-1944 Every Word You Write Vichy Will Be Watching You draws from these communications to vividly convey what life was like for the French as they coped with intolerable living conditions. It also details the scurrilous treatment handed out to foreign and French born Jews by P tain s government. By allowing the stolen words of ordinary French citizens to speak for themselves Robert W Parson offers us a view of history that we seldom find in textbooks. Women and Journalism Deborah Chambers, Linda Steiner, Carole Fleming, 2004. Women and Journalism offers a rich and comprehensive analysis of the roles, status and experiences of women journalists in the United States and Britain. Drawing on a variety of sources and dealing with a host of women journalists ranging from nineteenth century pioneers to Martha Gellhorn, Kate Adie and Veronica Guerin, the authors investigate the challenges women have faced in their struggle to establish reputations as professionals. This book provides an account of the gendered structuring of journalism in print, radio and television and speculates about women s still emerging role in online journalism. Their accomplishments as war correspondents are tracked to the present, including a study of the role they played post September 11th.
