Evidence Cases Materials And Problems:

Evidence Paul F. Rothstein, Tamara F. Lawson, 2018-11-07 Evidence Paul F. Rothstein, 1986 Evidence Paul F. Rothstien, 1986 Criminal and Forensic Evidence Robert J. Goodwin, Jimmy Gurulé, 2009 Basic Legal Research for Criminal Justice and the Social Sciences James R. Acker, Richard D. Irving, 1998 This essential primer on legal research is written specifically for criminal justice and social sciences students The book s basic how to approach makes it suitable not only as a guiding text for research courses but also as a key supplementary text for courses in which legal research is a secondary requirement Stripped of the cumbersome information found in similar texts for legal students this slim essentials book gives criminal justice and social sciences students the tools they need for successful research Criminal and Forensic Evidence Goodwin, Evidence Edward W. Cleary, John William Strong, 1981 A Modern Approach to Evidence Richard O. Lempert, Stephen A. Saltzburg, 1982 Cases and Materials on Federal Indian Law David H. Getches, Charles F. Wilkinson, 1986 Burden of Proof and Related Issues Mojtaba Kazazi, 2023-07-24 This study on evidence before international tribunals with an emphasis on the burden of proof is one of the more important and interesting issues of evidence under both municipal and international law The study is mainly based on documented cases and special attention is paid to the case law of the Iran United States Claims Tribunal in the Hague The study is divided into three parts Part One presents the preliminary issues concerning the concept of the burden of proof and the burden of evidence as well as the nature and scope of the burden of proof Part Two discusses the main aspects of the burden of proof identified by considering the fact that there are three main actors in each litigated case viz the claimant the respondent and the judge or arbitrator Different chapters are allocated to the claimant s role in bearing the main task with respect to the burden of proof general aspects of collaboration of parties in matters of evidence and the authority and duties of international tribunals with respect to the burden of proof Part Two ends with a chapter on the rules of the burden of proof and a discussion on whether or not there are any such rules that could be considered as principles of international law Some related issues are discussed in Part Three Among the items considered are presumptions and the effect that they may have on the burden of proof practical aspects of the collaboration of parties the issue of possible sanctions against non production of evidence and the question of the standard of proof to be applied in international proceedings and the discretion of international tribunals in that regard The study ends with a concluding chapter As noted by Professor Verhoeven in his foreword the subtleties of evidence in international proceedings has not been systematically studied for a number of decades The book will become a standard work of reference in the area Audience An invaluable tool for practitioners of international law and Government advisors as well as university professors and students of law The long experience of the author as a judge in a civil law system his intimate knowledge of the work of the Iran United States Claims Tribunal in The Hague and currently with the United Nations Security Council Compensation Commission for Claims against Iraq have made him eminently well equipped to address the subject competently both from a theoretical and practical perspective SECURES TRANSACTIONS CASES AND MATERIALS George E. legislation The result is a comprehensive textbook with materials from a wide variety of EU Member States The book is entirely in English i e materials are translated where not available in English At the end of each chapter a comparative overview ties the material together with emphasis where appropriate on existing or emerging general principles in the legal systems within Europe The book illustrates the distinct relationship between international European and national legislation in the field of non discrimination law It covers the grounds of discrimination addressed in the Racial Equality and Employment Equality Directives as well as non discrimination law relating to gender In so doing it covers the law of a large number of EU Member States alongside some international comparisons The Ius Commune Casebook on Non Discrimination Law provides practitioners with ready access to primary and secondary legal material needed to assist them in crafting test case strategies provides the judiciary with the tools needed to respond sensitively to such cases provides material for teaching non discrimination law to law and other students provides a basis for ongoing research on non discrimination law provides an up to date overview of the implementation of the Directives and of the state of the law This Casebook is the result of a project which has been supported by a grant from the European Commission s Anti Discrimination Programme See the detailed website for this book www.casebooks.eu/nonDiscrimination Cases and Materials on Copyright and Other Aspects of Law Pertaining to Literary, Musical, and Artistic Works Melville B. Nimmer,1979 Medical Malpractice and Compensation in Global Perspective Ken Oliphant,Richard W. Wright,2013-10-29 The papers in this collection are drawn from a symposium held in Vienna in December 2010 Organised by the Institute for European Tort Law and the Chicago Kent Law Review in collaboration with the European Centre of Tort and Insurance Law the conference drew together legal experts from 14 national or regional systems across six continents Medical malpractice and compensation for medical injuries are issues which regularly create tension and innovation in national legal systems but the analysis of these areas is often limited to national audiences This study examines the issues in a uniquely global context demonstrating the breadth of approaches currently taken around the world and revealing key areas of tension and the likely direction of future developments Wherever possible the analysis is supported by reference to empirical data The 14 legal systems covered in the collection are Austria Brazil Canada China France Germany Italy Japan New Zealand Poland Scandinavia South Africa the United Kingdom and the United States A general comparative introduction completes the collection The Holding Company David Crump,2010-12-17 What could ve driven billionaire Warburton Powers to shoot himself his wife and his son Robert Herrick Houston lawyer and friend of the Powers family explores the tragedy against his better judgment and finds himself dragged deeper and deeper into the mass of tentacles of the holding company Opposing lawyer Jimmy Coleman is a ruthless courtroom adversary Accurate law in a legal thriller Evidence-informed reasoning of pre- and in-service teachers Ingo Kollar,Martin Greisel,Robin Stark,2023-06-14 Ensuring Competent Performance in Forensic Practice Keith Hadley,Michael J. Fereday,2007-11-19 This is the first book of its kind to encourage a common understanding of competence and demonstrate the application of standards and practice in all aspects of forensic science including collection of evidence interpretation of scientific analysis and appropriate methods of testimony The authors stress the standardization of proper training and testing procedures and give clear guidelines for effective training programs based on occupational standards The book examines the importance of workplace assessments of competence and emphasizes the role of those involved in the assessment process The authors include several case studies demonstrating competence in practice and the methods to ensure consistent high standards in the future

The Psychiatrist in the Courtroom Jacques M. Quen, 2013-05-13 Over the course of an illustrious career the late Bernard Diamond established himself as the preeminent forensic psychiatrist of the century The Psychiatrist in the Courtroom brings together in a single volume Diamond s pivotal contributions to a variety of important issues including the nature of diminished capacity the fallacy of the impartial expert the predictability of dangerousness and the unacceptability of hypnotically facilitated memory in courtroom proceedings Ably introduced and edited by Jacques M Quen M D a close colleague of Diamond s and leading historian of forensic psychiatry these writings enable experts and neophytes alike to track Diamond s evolving positions while clarifying where current legal and psychiatric opinion converge and diverge on a host of critical topics For the forensic specialist The Psychiatrist in the Courtroom is not only an invaluable reference work but a compassionate reminder of the clinician s obligation to protect patients in legal proceedings And in an age when clinicians are increasingly called into court the book will be no less valuable to psychoanalysts and other mental health professionals eager for an introduction to the intricacies of judicial reasoning Then too owing to Diamond s clinical acumen the book is a compelling human document With great erudition and deep compassion Diamond tackles these and other knotty questions always with an eye to clarifying the legal and clinical implications of the answers By combining superb clinical gifts with an incisive understanding of legal principle Diamond produced a seminal corpus whose relevance to discussions of therapeutic ethics and to legal debates will continue well into the next century
