Evolving Pacific Power Structure:

The Evolving Pacific Power Structure Derek Da Cunha, 1996 There has been too complacent a view that contends that the next century the so called Pacific Century will see power essentially defined in an economic sense This book questions that notion by examining the evolving structure of power in the Pacific It takes the view that while economics will have an increased weight in the power equation military strength will still be a defining feature The essays in this volume provide crisp analyses of a balance of power the notion of a security architecture and regional defence dilemmas They then examine the shifting roles of the four major Pacific powers China Japan Russia and the United States all of which will essentially shape the future of the Pacific in the next century The Many Faces of Asian Security Sheldon W.
