The Pope's Battalions Ross Fitzgerald, Adam James Carr, William J. Dealy, 2003 A prophet whose confident prophecies were frequently proved wrong B A Santamaria profoundly affected 20th century Australian political life Although he rarely gave interviews and never held elected office Santamaria became widely known through his regular commentaries in the Australian and in his magazine News Weekly Building on his battle against Communist influence in the trade unions Santamaria boldly attempted to capture the ALP and transform it into a European style Christian Democrat party The ensuing split was disastrous demoralising the ALP and casting Santamaria out of the Labor fold for all time Reporting War Stuart Allan, Barbie Zelizer, 2004-06-01 Reporting War explores the social responsibilities of the journalist during times of military conflict News media treatments of international crises especially the one underway in Iraq are increasingly becoming the subject of public controversy and discussion is urgently needed Each of this book's contributors challenges familiar assumptions about war reporting from a distinctive perspective An array of pressing issues associated with conflicts over recent years are identified and critiqued always with an eye to what they can tell us about improving journalism today Special attention is devoted to recent changes in journalistic forms and practices and the ways in which they are shaping the visual culture of war and issues discussed amongst many include the influence of censorship and propaganda us and them news narratives access to sources 24/7 rolling news and the CNN effect military jargon such as friendly fire and collateral damage embedded and unilateral reporters tensions between objectivity and patriotism The book raises important questions about the very future of journalism during wartime questions which demand public dialogue and debate and is essential reading for students taking courses in news and news journalism as well as for researchers teachers and practitioners in the field Fifty Years Sober Ross Fitzgerald, 2020-02-01 The reality is that if I hadn't stopped drinking and drugging at twenty five years of age I wouldn't have made twenty six This is Ross Fitzgerald's 42nd book an updated edition of his 2010 book My Name is Ross Although he has now succeeded in not drinking alcohol or using drugs for 50 years in this revised edition the author still calls himself an alcoholic and pays extended tribute to the role of Alcoholics Anonymous in keeping him on the wagon His involvement in AA has become a way of life he still attends two or three meetings a week A key aspect of AA's therapeutic process involves what can be termed the mechanism of surrender Instead of telling alcoholics to use their willpower control their drinking or pull up their socks AA suggests that a much more efficacious strategy is to admit that at least in relation to alcohol they are beaten With his insight into the scourge of numerous kinds of addiction Fitzgerald traces the journey of many alcoholics and drug addicts In this brutally honest and intimate portrayal of his fascinating life his struggles as well as his successes Fitzgerald doesn't shy away from his difficult times and regrets but ultimately has written an uplifting and inspiring book With the prevalence of alcohol in our daily lives for every celebration or sad occasion a book like this is needed more than ever "Red Ted" Ross Fitzgerald, 1994 E G Theodore one of Australia's most enterprising and unusual political figures was Treasurer and Premier of Queensland and later Federal Treasurer and Deputy Prime Minister of Australia in the Scullin Labor government The People's Champion, Fred Paterson Ross Fitzgerald, 1997 The first biography of F W Paterson radical barrister and Communist Party MLA for Bowen from 1944 to 1950 when his electorate was gerrymandered out of existence by the ruling Labor Party Detailed index My Name Is Ross Ross Fitzgerald, 2010-10 Brutally honest and inspiring this narrative tells the story of a well known writer's life as an alcoholic and his struggle to become and stay sober Beginning with his first drink at the age of 14 this unique account traces the author's relationship with alcohol taking readers on a journey from substance abuse and despair to hope and courage Both heart wrenching and enlightening this chronicle is a strong personal story of triumph over substance abuse that will grip readers from the start Who's who in Australia ,2007 New Voices, New Visions Catriona Elder, Keith Moore, 2012-03-15 New Voices New Visions brings together a collection of papers that engage with the ideas of nation identity and place The title New Voices New Visions harks back to earlier scholarship that endeavoured to explore these issues It therefore makes links between old and new stories of Australian identity tracing the continuities shifts and changes in how Australia is imagined The collection is deliberately interdisciplinary gathering work by historians literary and film scholars communication and cultural theorists political scientists and sociologists This mixed perspectives enables the reader to trace ideas concepts and theories across a range of disciplines and understand the distinctive ways in which different disciplines engage with ideas of nation space and Australian identity The book is written in an engaging and accessible manner making it an excellent text for undergraduate and postgraduate students in the fields of Australian Studies It will be especially useful for the growing number of students living outside Australia who engage with Australian literature and culture The book provides a range of topics that introduces students to key issues and concepts It also situates these ideas in historical context New Voices New Visions engages with key contemporary issues in everyday Australian life environment and climate change immigration consumerism travel and cities It explores these various topics by considering case studies both contemporary and historical For example the issue of attitudes to Asia are analysed through art the topic of national symbols through the case of the crocodile approaches to immigration via a popular reality television programme The contributors to this book comprise some of the foremost Australian scholars as well as emerging scholars This combination ensures a depth of knowledge but also a vibrancy The editors are experienced scholars whose knowledge of the field is broad and they have brought a coherence to the material ensuring a strong narrative for the reader Who's who in Australia 2009 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Who's who in Australia 2008 ,2007 A biographic reference to notable people in Australia Entrants are drawn from all areas of Australian life including the arts politics education medicine defence business diplomatic service and recipients of honours and awards Great Events

from History Robert F. Gorman, 2007 Six volumes present essays discussing important events from 1901 to 1940 and how they changed the world      Books in Print Supplement, 2002      The Federation Mirror Ross Fitzgerald, 2002

Collection of the author's experiences travelling across Queensland to witness various Centenary of Federation celebrations Beginning with the period of the declaration of Federation in 1901 the author traces the effects and legacies Federation had in Queensland through to the recent 100 year anniversary celebrations Includes colour photos and notes Author is a former Chair of the Centenary of Federation Queensland and Professor of History and Politics at Griffith University He has previously written Seven Days to Remember The World's First Labor Government and Fred Paterson The People's Champion

The Rise of the Must-See Exhibition Anna Lawrenson, Chiara O'Reilly, 2018-12-07 Blockbuster exhibitions are ubiquitous fixtures in the cultural calendars of major museums and galleries worldwide The Rise of the Must See Exhibition charts their ascent across a diverse array of museums and galleries The book positions these exhibits in the Australian cultural context demonstrating how policy developments and historical precedents have created a space for their current domination Drawing on historical evidence policy documents and contemporary debates the book offers a complex analysis of the aims and motivations of blockbuster exhibitions Its chronological approach reveals a genealogy of exhibits from the mid nineteenth century onward to identify precursors to current practice This provides a foundation upon which to examine the unprecedented growth of blockbusters in the latter half of the twentieth century The examples discussed offer a unique opportunity to study how institutional growth political support individual champions and audience interest have influenced the development of large scale temporary exhibitions The Rise of the Must See Exhibition considers blockbusters as an international phenomenon and as such is highly relevant to practitioners working across the cultural sector around the world The book will also appeal to academics and students engaged in the study of museums and galleries arts management and curating as well as those interested in the history of exhibitions and cultural policy      ConVerge Linda Cooper, 2002

ConVerge where art science meet 2002 Adelaide Biennial of Australian art      Policing Cooperation Across Borders Saskia Hufnagel, 2016-04-22 This book provides new insights into police cooperation from a comparative socio legal perspective It presents a broad analysis of comparable police cooperation strategies in two systems the EU and Australia The evolution of regulatory trends and cooperation models is analysed for both systems and possible transferable strategies identified Drawing on interviews with practitioners in the EU and Australia this book highlights a number of areas where the EU can be compared to a federal system and addresses the advantages and disadvantages of being a Union or a federation of states with a view to police cooperation practice Particular topics addressed are the evolution of legal frameworks regulating police cooperation informal cooperation strategies Joint Investigation Teams Europol and regional cooperation These instruments foster police cooperation but could be improved with a view to cooperation practice by learning from regulatory techniques and practitioner experiences of the respective other system      Only in Australia William Coleman, 2016 This volume analyses how Australia's economic and social policy diverges from that of the wider Anglophone world. It looks at diverse issues such as labour market regulation, taxation and political power and voting. The Global Indian Gurmukh Singh, 2003. This glossy coffee table book captures in vivid detail the rise of the Sikhs as a global community. The Sikhs started migrating to various corners of the globe from about the end of the 19th century. However, today they occupy a place of pride in their adopted lands owing to their sterling success in fields as diverse as politics, business, entertainment and administration. The lucid style of writing combined with exhaustive research conducted across various parts of the world makes this book an important tool in assessing the success of this enterprising and global community. Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities Mary Bosworth, 2004-12-15. The two-volume Encyclopedia of Prisons and Correctional Facilities aims to provide a critical overview of penal institutions within a historical and contemporary framework. Issues of race, gender and class are fully integrated throughout in order to demonstrate the complexity of the implementation and intended results of incarceration. The Encyclopedia contains biographies, articles describing important legal statutes and detailed and authoritative descriptions of the major prisons in the United States. Comparative data and examples are employed to analyze the American system within an international context. The Encyclopedia's 400 entries are written by recognized authorities. The appendix contains a comprehensive listing of every federal prison in the U.S., complete with facility details and service information. The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia Ian McAllister, Steve Dowrick, Riaz Hassan, 2003-08-07. First published in 2003, The Cambridge Handbook of Social Sciences in Australia is a high quality reference on significant research in Australian social sciences. The book is divided into three main sections covering the central areas of the social sciences: economics, political science and sociology. Each section examines the significant research in the field, placing it within the context of broader debates about the nature of the social sciences and the ways in which institutional changes have shaped how they are defined, taught and researched.
