Federico Fellini Early Screenplays:

Fellini's Early Screenplays Federico Fellini, 1971-05-25 The Cinema of Federico Fellini Peter Bondanella, 2021-01-12 This major artistic biography of Federico Fellini shows how his exuberant imagination has been shaped by popular culture literature and his encounter with the ideas of C G Jung especially Jungian dream interpretation Covering Fellini's entire career the book links his mature accomplishments to his first employment as a cartoonist gagman and sketch artist during the Fascist era and his development as a leading neo realist scriptwriter Peter Bondanella thoroughly explores key Fellinian themes to reveal the director's growth not only as an artistic master of the visual image but also as an astute interpreter of culture and politics Throughout the book Bondanella draws on a new archive of several dozen manuscripts obtained from Fellini and his scriptwriters These previously unexamined documents allow a comprehensive treatment of Fellini's important part in the rise of Italian neorealism and the even more decisive role that he played in the evolution of Italian cinema beyond neorealism in the 1950s By probing Fellini's recurring themes Bondanella reinterprets the visual qualities of the director's body of work and also discloses in the films a critical and intellectual vitality often hidden by Fellini's reputation as a storyteller and entertainer After two chapters on Fellini's precinematic career the book covers all the films to date in analytical chapters arranged by topic Fellini and his growth beyond his neorealist apprenticeship dreams and metacinema literature and cinema Fellini and politics Fellini and the image of women and La voce della luna and the cinema of poetry

How Scripts are Made Inga Karetnikova, 1990-08-29 Inga Karetnikova's method is that of the art teacher she asks students to study great works in detail to analyze them and then to create their own She stresses that her examination is interested only in how the scripts are written and what makes them work not in a cultural or scholarly examination of them Karetnikova analyzes eight screenplays The Godfather Rashomon La Strada Bicycle Thief Nosferatu The Servant Viridiana Notorious and a novel written in screenplay form Kiss of the Spider Woman Each serves as an example of a particular aspect of screenplay writing composing scripts developing characters constructing suspense adapting literature to cinematic space and time and weaving details and motifs within a script Karetnikova urges film students to work on their own screenplays while studying her book reading the suggested scripts and viewing the films based on them to get the most from her method She provides a series of exercises for each chapter to help students master the skills of composing and writing film treatments developing screen stories and their characters organizing scenes and writing dialogue Each of the exercises has worked successfully in her own screenplay writing classes
