Collective Memory Work Corey W. Johnson, 2018-06-13 The seemingly mundane events of daily life create a complex knowledge base of lived experience to be explored But how does one research common experiences and account for context culture and identity A dilemma arises because experience is not just embedded in events but also in the socially constructed meanings associated with those events This book details the philosophical underpinnings design features and implementation strategies of Collective Memory Work a methodology frequently employed by social justice activists scholars Collective Memory Work can provide scholars with unique and nuanced ways to solve problems for and with their participants Most importantly the chapters also detail projects and social justice in action analysing their participants real stories and experiences projects that focus on LGBTQ youth blacklivesmatter activists white faculty working at historically Black colleges and universities men s media consumption and much more Written in an engaging and accessible style readers will come to understand the potential of their own qualitative research using Collective Memory Work

Challenges and Inequalities in Lifelong Learning and Social Justice Susan Jackson, 2014-10-29 The connections and interactions of lifelong learning and social justice are complex and contested Both are seen as a means to unconditional good with little account taken of the inequalities and equalities located in constructions of power This book develops critical ways to engage with international debates about lifelong learning and social justice through a range of competing and contested definitions setting out some of the complexities and challenges of linking the two concepts In particular it engages in debates about the equalities and inequalities of learner identities displacement and place Its chapters consider those marginalised in complex and multiple ways including gender social class ethnicity age and migration This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Lifelong Education      Memory and the Holocaust Judith Tydor Baumel-Schwartz, David

Clark, 2025-05-06 The importance of recording testimony of Holocaust survivors is well understood While empowering the survivor and adding another layer of documentation about the cataclysm it also serves as a bulwark against Holocaust denial The same holds true for helping survivors pen their memoirs or when writing their history At the same time this process also impacts upon the person recording the testimony assisting the survivor in writing his or her memoirs and certainly upon those who write about the survivors What happens when the interviewer biographer translator or memoir transcriber is a child or grandchild of that survivor This book is based on the premise that a collection of personal narratives of descendants of Holocaust survivors who interviewed their parents grandparents wrote their history or helped them with their memoirs narratives in which they describe and analyze the impact of these activities on their personal trajectories can greatly contribute to our understand of the Holocaust and particularly its aftermath Each of the book s 14 chapters is a personal narrative by a child or grandchild of Holocaust survivors who analyzes the impact that their interviewing writing about or writing with their surviving parents grandparents had upon their lives      Migrant Youth, Schooling and Identity Nils

Hammarén, Biörn Ivermark, Live Stretmo, 2024-07-08 This volume provides a broad outlook on migrant youth and schooling in Sweden Denmark Norway Iceland and the United Kingdom It explores empirically how these young people who range from the first to the third generation position themselves in relation to school friendships language use aspirations and the expectations placed upon them The book also examines the role of a variety of professionals street level bureaucrats and other key actors in framing representing problematizing and ultimately contributing to shaping the experiences of these young people Contemporary contextual challenges for educational advancement are particularly highlighted as are key issues of cultural representation and recognition Several contributions also focus on sub groups within the immigrant origin population that have so far only received a limited attention in the literature such as youth in rural areas LGBT youth first in family college students and youth who transition out of anti school subcultures The contributors stem from a variety of disciplines ranging from Education and Youth Studies to Social Work and Sociology and tackle many innovative themes such as peer violence special needs education and artistic interventions among many others Through this original perspective and comparative outlook the book makes an important contribution to the literature on youth migration identity and education It will interest undergraduate students in several areas of the social sciences teachers and other professionals who work with children and young people      Future Memory Practices Gertraud Koch, Rachel Charlotte Smith, 2024-10-28 Future Memory

Work addresses a crucial challenge in contemporary pluralistic societies the organisation of open participatory and socially inclusive memory practices in digital media ecologies It brings a novel relational approach to future memory work across institutions people and modalities Advancing inter and transdisciplinary research and rich empirical cases from across Europe and beyond the book examines how memory practices in digital media are open for engagement of people with diverse backgrounds It analyses the modalities of memory making and how they can enable institutional and public memory making with a broad spectrum of people and groups in civil society at local translocal national and global levels The chapters examine the mediatized character of memory making whilst also critically considering what obstacles and potentials emerge from participatory memory work As a whole the book is a comprehensive source of knowledge and ideas for creating socially inclusive sustainable memory practices and futures It sets the multidisciplinary research agenda for advancing studies of heritage in contemporary digital media as an element and a driver of cultural and social change Future Memory Work is essential reading for academics students and professionals working in the fields of Anthropology Museum Studies Digital Cultural Heritage Memory Studies Cultural Studies and Design

Mourning and Disaster Michael Brennan, 2009-01-14 The Hillsborough stadium disaster of 15 April 1989 and the death of Princess Diana on 31 August 1997 sparked expressivist scenes of public mourning hitherto unseen within the context of British society The largely local displays of grief witnessed on Merseyside following the Hillsborough disaster were however repeated and provided a pre text for the national and global public mourning which accompanied the death of Princess Diana What was it this book asks about the Hillsborough disaster and death of Princess Diana that provoked such strong emotions Why and how did these ostensibly similar events produce such contrasting reactions moving some people including the book's author to mourn one event but resist the mourning for the other Mourning and Disaster provides an insight into a series of questions raised by the public mourning that followed these two events What for example do the messages contained in the public books of condolence signed in the wake of these events tell us either about the social identities of the people who mourned or about the processes of meaning making by which death is apprehended and understood What do condolence books tell us about how contemporary society mourns and the ways in which loss is languaged Is it the case that in episodes of public mourning in which the deceased are not known to us personally the mourner might actually be mourning some aspect of themselves Is it also the case that in not mourning these events some aspect of one's own identity or self was being repudiated or mourned Drawing upon both the public books of condolence signed in Britain during the public mourning for these events alongside the author's own autobiographical memories of them it is to these sorts of questions amongst others that this book seeks to provide answers

Fostering a Relational Pedagogy, 2018-11-01 It has long been established that teaching and learning are autobiographical endeavours so it follows that self study is central to sound practice As a framework self study allows researchers to use their experiences to examine self in practice with the aim of both personal and professional growth By its very design it makes transparent personal processes of inquiry by offering them up for public critique This type of public inquiry of the personal happens in at least two ways first through the inclusion of trusted others who can provide different perspectives on our closely held discourses and second through making our research publicly available so that others might learn from our inquiries Self study then requires openness to vulnerability as we continuously re negotiate who we are as teachers Approaching inquiry from this perspective has at its core deepened self knowledge coupled with intent to transform praxis This transformation is sought through integrated ways of being and teaching that support embodied wholeness of teachers and learners Through critical qualitative creative and arts integrated approaches this collection seeks to advance teacher self study and through it transformative praxis Contributors are Willow S Allen Charity Becker Yue Bian Abby Boehm Turner Diane Burt Vy Dao Lee C Fisher Teresa Anne Fowler Deborah Graham Cher Hill Chinwe H Ikpeze David Jardine Elizabeth Kenyon Jodi Latremouille Carl Leggo Ellyn Lyle Sepideh Mahani Jennifer Markides Sherry Martens Kate McCabe Laura Piersol Kathleen Pithouse Morgan Amanda C Shopa Timothy Sibbald Sara K Sterner and Aaron Zimmerman

Narratives on Teaching and Teacher Education A. Mattos, 2009-07-06 This book brings in an international perspective on a much debated area namely teacher education Through narrative research the chapters in this collection provide a wide variety of stories of discovery transformation and hope in teaching and learning to teach
