conflict have upon the logics of gender security It investigates how contrasting and competing modes of thought about gender security are made paying attention to how the dynamics of gender politics in Serbia shape the security discourse and narratives of activists The volume explores in detail how feminist and women s organisations have responded to UNSCR 1325 by analysing two policy debates and campaigns that seek to achieve its goals and gender security in Serbia 1 feminist antimilitarism and 2 connecting domestic violence to the abuse of small arms and light weapons Ultimately the book argues that the configuration of gender security discourse is intimately linked to personal political imaginations of conflict and post conflict This book will be of much interest to students of gender politics conflict studies critical security studies European politics and IR in general
