Feminism And Islam Legal And Literary Perspectives:

Feminism and Islam Mai Yamani, 1996-09 In an age when Western feminism is continuously undergoing redefinition the struggles of women in Muslim countries are often overlooked This volume illustrates how women in Islamic societies have become more actively involved not only in learning their rights under the shari a Islamic law but in rereading this law to improve their status and gain increased equality and freedom Surveying Iran Saudi Arabia Lebanon Egypt and Arab societies in general Feminism and Islam brings together renowned women researchers and academics historians political scientists lawyers sociologists social anthropologists and literary critics to examine the phenomenon of feminism within the Islamic cultural framework Introducing a feminism which is Islamic in its form and context the essays focus on such subjects as crimes of honor and the construction of gender in Arab societies law and the desire for social control women and entrepreneurship family legislation and the political strategies of feminists in the Islamic world Back cover Feminism and Islam

Mai Yamani, 1996-08-01 In an age when Western feminism is constantly undergoing redefinition this reprint offers to the worldwide debate sixteen authoritative contributions from the surprising setting of Muslim countries These studies address the feminist modes of expression in relation to or as a challenge to Islamic laws and traditions The book shows how women have become more actively involved not only in learning their rights under the shari a but in rereading the law in order to improve their status and their fight to gain more equality and freedom As the book illustrates this is an age in which we will see an increasing number of women scholars in Islamic law The first Saudi Arabian woman to earn a doctorate degree from the University of Oxford the author has been lecturing extensively in Europe and the USA on Middle Eastern life

Islam, Civil Society and Social Work Egbert Harmsen, 2008 The thesis analyses the role of Muslim voluntary welfare associations in Jordan from the perspective of their religious discourse and the related social activities to assess whether they contribute to empowerment or reinforce dependency Islam, Gender, and Democracy in Comparative Perspective Jocelyne Cesari, José Casanova, 2017-04-14 The relationship between secularism democracy religion and gender equality has been a complex one across Western democracies and still remains contested When we turn to Muslim countries the situation is even more multifaceted In the views of many western commentators the question of Women Rights is the litmus test for Muslim societies in the age of democracy and liberalism Especially since the Arab Awakening the issue is usually framed as the opposition between liberal advocates of secular democracy and religious opponents of women s full equality Islam Gender and Democracy in Comparative Perspective critically re engages this too simple binary opposition by reframing the debate around Islam and women s rights within a broader comparative literature Bringing together leading scholars from a range of disciplines it examines the complex and contingent historical relationships between religion secularism democracy law and gender equality Part One addresses the nexus of religion law gender and democracy through different disciplinary perspectives sociology anthropology political science law Part Two localizes the implementation of this nexus between law gender and democracy and provides contextualized responses to questions raised in Part One The contributors explore the situation of Muslim women's rights in minority conditions to shed light on the gender politics in the modernization of the nation and to ponder on the role of Islam in gender inequality across different Muslim countries Family Law and Australian Muslim Women Helen McCue, Abdullah Saeed, 2013-06-01 This book is a collection of essays that aims to identify the multitude of ways in which Australian Muslim women negotiate both Australian Family Law and Islamic Family Law in the key areas of marriage divorce child custody property settlement and inheritance The book also seeks to provide a timely and significant insight into the various legal cultural and social processes that Australian Muslim women use when disputes in these key areas arise Islamic Studies Series Volume 15 Women and Media in the Middle East Naomi

Sakr, 2004-09-24 Is today's changing media landscape in the Middle East empowering women This is the first book to address the dynamics of media ecology and women's advancement in the contemporary Middle East The book spans both the region and media forms from Iran's women's press via Maghrebi women filmmakers and Egyptian political films Palestinian TV and Hezbollah's TV station Al Manar It takes as its starting point the diverse experiences and multi-layered identities of women and treats media institutions and practices as part of wider power relations in society By analysing media production consumption and texts it reveals where and how gender boundaries have been erected or crossed Limits of Islamism

Maidul Islam, 2015-03-09 The book examines the dynamics from the formation of Islamist politics for the struggle for hegemony to failure to become a hegemonic force in Bangladesh The contradiction between Islamic universalism Islamist populism on one hand and a politics of Muslim particularism in India on the other is revealed in this study Routledge

Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa Anthony Tirado Chase, 2016-11-10 Recent events such as Iran's Green Revolution and the Arab Uprisings have exploded notions that human rights are irrelevant to Middle Eastern and North African politics Increasingly seen as a global concern human rights are at the fulcrum of the region's on the ground politics transnational intellectual debates and global political intersections The Routledge Handbook on Human Rights and the Middle East and North Africa emphasises the need to consider human rights in all their dimensions rather than solely focusing on the political dimension in order to understand the structural reasons behind the persistence of human rights violations explores the various frameworks in which to consider human rights conceptual political and transnational international discusses issue areas subject to particularly intense debate gender religion sexuality transitions and accountability contains contributions from perspectives that span from global theory to grassroots reflections emphasising the need for academic work on human rights to seriously engage with the thoughts and practices of those working on the ground A multidisciplinary approach from scholars with a wide range of expertise allows the book to capture the complex dynamics by which human rights have had or could have an impact on Middle Eastern and North African politics This book will therefore be a key resource for students and scholars of Middle Eastern and North African politics and society as well as anyone with a concern for Human Rights across the globe The Blackwell Companion to Contemporary Islamic Thought Ibrahim Abu-Rabi',2008-04-15 The Blackwell Companion to Contemporary Islamic Thought reflects the variety of trends voices and opinions in the contemporary Muslim intellectual scene Challenges Western misconceptions about the modern Muslim world in general and the Arab world in particular Consists of 36 important essays written by contemporary Muslim thinkers and scholars Covers issues such as Islamic tradition modernity globalization feminism the West the USA reform and secularism Helps readers to situate Islamic intellectual history in the context of Western intellectual trends

From Cape Town to Kabul Professor Penelope Andrews,2013-01-28 Using her experience of living under apartheid and witnessing its downfall and the subsequent creation of new governments in South Africa the author examines and compares gender inequality in societies undergoing political and economic transformation By applying this process of legal transformation as a paradigm the author applies this model to Afghanistan These two societies serve as counterpoints through which the book engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality Developing the idea of conditional interdependence the book suggests a new approach based on the communitarian values which underpin newly democratic societies and would allow women's rights to gain momentum and reap greater benefits Broad in its thematic approach the book generates challenging and complex questions about the achievement of gender equality It will be of interest to academics interested in gender and human rights international and comparative law Muslim Diaspora Haideh Moghissi,2007-01-24 Muslim Diaspora identifies those aspects of migratory experience that shatter or reinforce a group's attachment to its homeland and affect its readiness to adapt to a new country The contributors to this collection examine many dimensions of life in the Diaspora and demonstrate that identity is always constructed in relation to others They show how religious identity in diaspora is mediated by many other factors such as Gender Class Ethnic origin National status A central aim is to understand Diaspora as an agent of social and cultural change particularly in its transformative impact on women Throughout the book advances a more nuanced understanding of the notions of ethnicity difference and rights It makes an important contribution to understanding the complex processes of formation and adoption of transnational identities and the challenging contradictions of a world that is being rapidly globalized in economic and political terms and yet is increasingly localized and differentiated ethnically and culturally Muslim Diaspora includes contributions from outstanding scholars and is an invaluable text for students in sociology anthropology geography cultural studies Islamic studies women's studies as well as the general reader Gender and Equality in Muslim Family Law Lena Larsen,Ziba Mir-Hosseini,Christian Moe,Kari Vogt,2013-04-30 Dante is one of the towering figures of medieval European literature Yet many riddles and questions about him persist By re-reading Dante with an open mind Barbara Reynolds made remarkable discoveries and unlocked previously hidden secrets about this greatest of Florentine poets A fundamental enigma has tantalised readers of the Commedia for seven centuries Who was the leader prophesied by Virgil and Beatrice to bring peace to the world Many attempts have been made to identify him but none has seemed conclusive until now As well as proposing a solution to the famous prophecies this lively engaging and elegantly written biography contains a provocative new idea in virtually every chapter Dr Reynolds research indicates that Dante smoked cannabis to reach new heights of creativity That Beatrice Dante s great love was not who most scholars think she was That Dante was a talented public speaker who created a quite new form of poetic art holding audiences spellbound Above all Reynolds views Dante as one of the greatest spin doctors of Western civilization His aim was not to preach an interesting parable about punishments for sin and rewards for virtue It was to use poetry to change the politics of the age and unite Europe around the secular authority of an Emperor To promote this idea which dominated his writings from his exile onwards Dante combined it with a dramatic presentation of the Christian belief in Hell Purgatory and Heaven Vividly told in the first person with a colour and immediacy derived from the pop art of street narrators now made to seem respectable by its use of classical predecessors like Virgil this extraordinary journey through the three realms was always profoundly political in intent Dante here comes alive as never before irate opinionated settling scores a man of multifaceted gifts and extraordinary genius whose role as an interpreter of world history makes him more than ever relevant to the new millennium Gender and Community Vrinda Narain,2001-01-01 These issues are significant not only for Muslim women in India but also in the broader context of the accommodation of cultural diversity in pluralist democracies BOOK JACKET Sharia and Justice Abbas Poya,2018-05-22 Justice is considered the basic norm of human coexistence Every legal order refers to the concept of justice and Muslims also regard their religious norms the Sharia as offering just solutions to legal questions But is the assumption that the Sharia is just merely an acceptance of a status quo correct And is justice the necessary aim of the Sharia In this volume renowned scholars discuss these questions from different perspectives In principle the first normative source of Islam the Qur an orders justice and fair conduct Rohe At the same time an analysis of the concept of justice in the classical age of Islam Ahmed and Poya also shows that there existed ambivalent understandings of this concept The relationship of the idea of justice in Islam to political questions Ende to war Poya and to modern reform Mir Hosseini again confirms the importance of the concept for a critical reflection on traditional assumptions and existing circumstances The discussion on the hijab in Western countries Ladwig shows paradigmatically how justice can regulate the relationship between the secular state and the Sharia The essays in this volume endeavor to show that debates about justice in Islam as well express an underlying tension between the perception of an order as just on the one hand and the feeling of injustice under the same order on the other This discussion validates the idea that justice should be understood as a concept subject to a perpetual reexamination according to changing times and circumstances Journeys Toward Gender Equality in Islam Ziba Mir-Hosseini,2022-04-07 If justice is an intrinsic value in Islam why have women been treated as second class citizens in Islamic legal tradition Today the idea of gender equality inherent to contemporary conceptions of justice presents a challenge to established patriarchal interpretations of Shari'a. In thought provoking discussions with six influential Muslim intellectuals Abdullahi An-Na'im, Amina Wadud, Asma Lamrabet, Khaled Abou El Fadl, Mohsen Kadivar and Sedigheh Vasmaghi Ziba Mir-Hosseini explores how egalitarian gender laws might be constructed from within the Islamic legal framework. Twenty Years of Islamic Revolution Eric

Hooglund, 2002-05-01 The works gathered here are based on recent intensive fieldwork in Iran by leading scholars of Iranian culture. The contributors cover a multitude of important topics such as civil society, foreign relations, Islamism, religious/secular debates and women's issues. These essays challenge stereotypes that have developed about modern day Iran and will stimulate debate and discussion among scholars and students of the Middle East. Women, Religion and Culture in Iran

Sarah Ansari, Vanessa Martin, 2014-05-01 Investigates how women, religion and culture have interacted in the context of 19th and 20th century Iran covering topics as seemingly diverse as the social and cultural history of Persian cuisine, the work and attitudes of 19th century Christian missionaries, the impact of growing female literacy and the consequences of developments since 1979. Secular and Islamic Feminist Critiques in the Work of Fatima Mernissi Raja Rhouni, 2010 This book presents a detailed critical analysis of the work of Fatima Mernissi. Mernissi is considered to be one of the major figures in Feminist thought for both Morocco and Muslim society in general. This work discusses Mernissi's intellectual trajectory from secular to Islamic feminism in order to trace the evolution of so-called Islamic feminist theory. The book also engages critically with the work of other Muslim feminists using frameworks and approaches developed in the works of Muslim reformist thinkers namely Mohammed Arkoun and Nasr Abu Zaid with the aim of engaging the theorization of this emerging Feminism. Handbook of Middle East Politics Shahram Akbarzadeh, 2023-10-06 This Handbook uses a comprehensive study of political institutions, social movements and external pressures to offer a nuanced study of politics in the Middle East. Foremost scholars on the Middle East examine key themes such as political change, regional rivalry and authoritarianism making this collection very timely and relevant as an authoritative source. Performing Islam Azam Torab, 2006-12-01

Performing Islam takes as its main focus the rich array of ceremonial activities that shape and inform the lives of circles of women in south Tehran. Based on anthropological fieldwork, the book describes and analyses rituals that mark religious anniversaries and life course events in Iran today. Arguing that the ritual performances are powerful forums where ideas develop and where rules, symbols and discourses are contested, this book discusses the values and beliefs underpinning gender constructions in a rapidly changing and complex society. The ambiguous metaphorical language of the rituals is examined, revealing how gender ideologies are projected and renewed but also challenged, destabilized and ridiculed. Thus the rituals provide possibilities for self-expression, innovation and incremental change. This study goes beyond questions of meaning and culture to interrogate the dynamics of gender performance as products of power and politics.
