Feminism And The Abyss Of Freedom:

Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M. G. Zerilli, 2020-11-13 In contemporary feminist theory the problem of feminine subjectivity persistently appears and reappears as the site that grounds all discussion of feminism In Feminism and the Abyss of Freedom Linda M G Zerilli argues that the persistence of this subject centered frame severely limits feminists capacity to think imaginatively about the central problem of feminist theory and practice a politics concerned with freedom Offering both a discussion of feminism in its postmodern context and a critique of contemporary theory Zerilli here challenges feminists to move away from a theory based approach which focuses on securing or contesting women as an analytic category of feminism to one rooted in political action and judgment She revisits the democratic problem of exclusion from participation in common affairs and elaborates a freedom centered feminism as the political practice of beginning anew world building and judging In a series of case studies Zerilli draws on the political thought of Hannah Arendt to articulate a nonsovereign conception of political freedom and to explore a variety of feminist understandings of freedom in the twentieth century including ones proposed by Judith Butler Monique Wittig and the Milan Women s Bookstore Collective In so doing Zerilli hopes to retrieve what Arendt called feminism s lost treasure the original and radical claim to political freedom

Feminist Trouble Éléonore Lépinard, 2020 This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 International license It is free to read at Oxford Scholarship Online and offered as a free PDF download from OUP and selected open access locations Feminism is in trouble For more than two decades Islamic veils niqabs and burkinis forced and arranged marriages polygamy and Sharia rules concerning women have been the object of intense public scrutiny and legal regulations in many Western countries especially in Europe and feminists have been actively engaged on both sides of the debates In Feminist Trouble Éléonore Lépinard draws on extended fieldwork with numerous women s organizations in France and Quebec Giving voice to women of color and white women Lépinard dissects hierarchies of privilege in particular whiteness in feminist politics grappling with Islam and Islamic veiling debates to understand how these changes have transformed contemporary feminist movements intersectional politics and the feminist collective subject A critical look at feminism its divisions and its future Feminist Trouble argues that feminism should not be centered around an identity women but should instead focus on a feminist ethic of responsibility which reckons with power asymmetries and requires women to prioritize their ethical responsibility to the feminist project

A Democratic Theory of Truth Linda M. G. Zerilli, 2025-04-25 A critique of the concept of truth presupposed by the post truth debate and a bold new vision for a more pluralistic citizenry We say that we live in a post truth era because disinformation threatens our confidence in the existence of a shared public world Affirming objective truth may therefore seem necessary to save democracy According to political theorist Linda M G Zerilli such affirmation can stifle political debate and silence dissent In fact Zerilli argues that the unqualified insistence on objective truth is as dangerous for democracy as denying it Drawing on Arendt Foucault and Wittgenstein A Democratic

Theory of Truth challenges the concept of truth presupposed by the post truth debate It argues that we the people have an essential role in discovering and evaluating any truth relevant to the political realm The result is a striking defense of plurality dissent and opinion in contemporary democratic societies The Politics of Our Selves Amy Allen,2008

Introduction the politics of our selves Foucault subjectivity and the Enlightenment a critical reappraisal The impurity of practical reason power and autonomy in Foucault Dependency subordination and recognition Butler on subjection Empowering the lifeworld autonomy and power in Habermas Contextualizing critical theory Engendering critical theory

Democracy and the Political Unconscious Noëlle McAfee,2008-04-08 Political philosopher No lle McAfee proposes a powerful new political theory for our post 9 11 world in which an old pathology the repetition compulsion has manifested itself in a seemingly endless war on terror McAfee argues that the quintessentially human desire to participate in a world with others is the key to understanding the public sphere and to creating a more democratic society a world that all members can have a hand in shaping But when some are effectively denied this participation whether through trauma or terror instead of democratic politics there arises a political unconscious an effect of desires unarticulated failures to sublimate voices kept silent and repression reenacted Not only is this condition undemocratic and unjust it may lead to further trauma Unless its troubles are worked through a political community risks continual repetition and even self destruction McAfee deftly weaves together her experience as an observer of democratic life with an array of intellectual schemas from poststructural psychoanalysis to Rawlsian and Habermasian democratic theories as well as semiotics civic republicanism and American pragmatism She begins with an analysis of the traumatic effects of silencing members of a political community Then she explores the potential of deliberative dialogue and other talking cures and public testimonies such as the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission to help societies work through rather than continually act out their conflicts Democracy and the Political Unconscious is rich in theoretical insights but it is also grounded in the practical problems of those who are trying to process the traumas of oppression terror and brutality and create more decent and democratic societies Drawing on a breathtaking range of theoretical frameworks and empirical observations Democracy and the Political Unconscious charts a course for democratic transformation in a world sorely lacking in democratic practice Autonomy, Oppression, and

Gender Andrea Veltman,2014 This collection of new essays by leading scholars examines philosophical issues at the intersection of feminism and autonomy studies Contributors advance central debates in autonomy theory by examining basic components normative commitments and applications of autonomy with particular attention to issues of gender and oppression A Companion to Feminist Art Hilary Robinson,Maria Elena Buszek,2019-10-22 Original essays offering fresh ideas and global perspectives on contemporary feminist art The term feminist art is often misused when viewed as a codification within the discipline of Art History a codification that includes restrictive definitions of geography chronology style materials influence and other definitions inherent to Art Historical and museological classifications Employing a different approach A Companion to Feminist Art defines art as a dynamic set of material and theoretical practices in the realm of culture and feminism as an equally dynamic set of activist and theoretical practices in the realm of politics Feminist art therefore is not a simple classification of a type of art but rather the space where feminist politics and the domain of art making intersect The Companion provides readers with an overview of the developments concepts trends influences and activities within the space of contemporary feminist art in different locations ways of making and ways of thinking Newly commissioned essays focus on the recent history of and current discussions within feminist art Diverse in scope and style these contributions range from essays on the questions and challenges of large sectors of artists such as configurations of feminism and gender in post Cold War Europe to more focused conversations with women artists on Afropean decoloniality Ranging from discussions of essentialism and feminist aesthetics to examinations of political activism and curatorial practice the Companion informs and questions readers introduces new concepts and fresh perspectives and illustrates just how much more there is to discover within the realm of feminist art Addresses the intersection between feminist thinking and major theories that have influenced art theory Incorporates diverse voices from around the world to offer viewpoints on global feminisms from scholars who live and work in the regions about which they write Examines how feminist art intersects with considerations of collectivity war maternal relationships desire men and relational aesthetics Explores the myriad ways in which the experience of inhabiting and perceiving aged raced and gendered bodies relates to feminist politics in the art world Discusses a range practices in feminism such as activism language education and different ways of making art The intersection of feminist art making and feminist politics are not merely components of a unified whole they sometimes diverge and divide A Companion to Feminist Art is an indispensable resource for artists critics scholars curators and anyone seeking greater strength on the subject through informed critique and debate

Decolonizing the Undead Stephen

Shapiro, Giulia Champion, Roxanne Douglas, 2022-08-25 Looking beyond Euro Anglo US centric zombie narratives Decolonizing the Undead reconsiders representations and allegories constructed around this figure of the undead probing its cultural and historical weight across different nations and its significance to postcolonial decolonial and neoliberal discourses Taking stock of zombies as they appear in literature film and television from the Caribbean Latin America sub Saharan Africa India Japan and Iraq this book explores how the undead reflect a plethora of experiences previously obscured by western preoccupations and anxieties These include embodiment and dismemberment in Haitian revolutionary contexts resistance and subversion to social realities in the Caribbean and Latin America symbiosis of cultural historical traditions with Western popular culture the undead as feminist figures as an allegory for migrant workers as a critique to reconfigure socio ecological relations between humans and nature and as a means of voicing the plurality of stories from destroyed cities and war zones Interspersed with contextual explorations of the zombie narrative in American culture such as zombie walks and the television series The Santa Clarita Diet contributors examine such writers as Lowell R Torres Diego Vel zquez Betancourt

Hemendra Kumar Roy and Manabendra Pal works like China Mieville's Cover hithe Reza Negarestani's Cycolonopedia Julio Ortega's novel Adi's Ayacucho Ahmed Saadawi's Frankenstein in Baghdad and films by Alejandro Brugu's Michael James Rowland Steve McQueen and many others Far from just another zombie project this is a vital study that teases out the important conversations among numerous cultures and nations embodied in this universally recognized figure of the undead

Women, Islam and Familial Intimacy in Colonial South Asia Asiya Alam, 2021-01-25 Women Islam and Familial Intimacy in Colonial South Asia highlights the rich tradition of protest and defiance among the Muslim women of colonial India Bringing together a range of archival material including novels pamphlets commentaries and journalistic essays it narrates a history of Muslim feminism conversing with and confronting the dominant and influential narratives of didactic social reform The book reveals how discussion about marriage and family evoked claims of women's freedom and rights in a highly charged literary and cultural landscape where lesser known female intellectuals jostled for public space alongside well known male social reformers Definitions of Islamic ethics remained central to these debates and the book illustrates how claims of social obligation religious duty and freedom balanced and negotiated each other in a period of nationalism and reform By doing so it also illuminates a story of Muslim politics that goes beyond the well established accounts of Muslim separatism and the Pakistan movement

Rethinking Difference in Music Scholarship Olivia Ashley Bloechl, Melanie Diane Lowe, Jeffrey Kallberg, 2015-01-08 This major essay collection takes a fresh look at how differences among people matter for music and musical thought

Conceiving Life Patrick Hanafin, 2016-05-23 This volume examines the evolution of reproductive law in Italy from the far west of the 1980s and 90s through to one of the most potentially restrictive systems in Europe The book employs an array of sociological philosophical and legal material in order to discover why such a repressive piece of legislation has been produced at the end of a period of substantial change in the dynamic of gender relations in Italy The book also discusses Italian policy within the wider European policy framework

Free Gifts Alyssa Battistoni, 2025-08-19 A timely new critique of capitalism's persistent failure to value nature Capitalism is typically treated as a force for relentless commodification Yet it consistently fails to place value on vital aspects of the nonhuman world whether carbon emissions or entire ecosystems In Free Gifts Alyssa Battistoni explores capitalism's persistent failure to value nature arguing that the key question is not the moral issue of why some kinds of nature shouldn't be commodified but the economic puzzle of why they haven't been To understand contemporary ecological problems from biodiversity collapse to climate change she contends we have to understand how some things come to have value under capitalism and how others do not To help us do so Battistoni recovers and reinterprets the idea of the free gift of nature used by classical economic thinkers to describe what we gratuitously obtain from the natural world and builds on Karl Marx's critique of political economy to show how capitalism fundamentally treats nature as free for the taking This novel theory of capitalism's relationship to nature not only helps us understand contemporary ecological breakdown but also casts capitalism's own core dynamics in a new light Battistoni addresses four different instances of the free gift in political economic thought each in a specific domain natural agents in industry pollution in the environment reproductive labor in the household and natural capital in the biosphere In so doing she offers new readings of major twentieth century thinkers including Friedrich Hayek Simone de Beauvoir Garrett Hardin Silvia Federici and Ronald Coase Ultimately she offers a novel account of freedom for our ecologically troubled present developing a materialist existentialism to argue that capitalism limits our ability to be responsible for our relationships to the natural world and imagining how we might live freely while valuing nature's gifts

Ágnes Heller and Hannah Arendt

Ángel Prior Olnos, Ángel Rivero, 2018-09-30 This book reconstructs through texts by Agnes Heller and international scholars a timely conversation between Hannah Arendt and Heller on the malaises of modernity This valuable work will be appreciated both by academics and students interested in social and political philosophy in addition to the wider public curious of intellectual history Both Arendt and Heller are great thinkers with the ability to enlighten the great moral and political problems of our time Although these two great figures belong to different generations the dialogue reconstructed here provides a fuller picture of the demise of the great totalitarian forces of the twentieth century Both Arendt and Heller in a sense accepted the burden of understanding the evils of their age It is however Heller by addressing the perennial problems of modernity posed by Arendt who makes this conversation possible illuminating the problems of this century

Lee Lozano

Jo Applin, 2018-01-01 An illuminating study of an overlooked artist from the 1960s whose work has recently returned to the limelight This is the first in depth study of the idiosyncratic ten year career of Lee Lozano 1930 1999 assuring this important artist a key place in histories of post war art The book charts the entirety of Lozano's production in 1960s New York from her raucous drawings and paintings depicting broken tools genitalia and other body parts to the final exhibition of her spectacular series of abstract Wave Paintings at the Whitney Museum of American Art in 1970 Highly regarded at the time Lozano is now perhaps best known for Dropout Piece 1970 a conceptual artwork and dramatic gesture with which she quit the art world Shortly afterwards she announced she would have no further contact with other women Her dropout and boycott of women lasted until her death by which time she was all but forgotten This book tackles head on the challenges that Lozano poses to art history and especially to feminist art history attending to her failures as well as her successes and arguing that through dead ends and impasses she struggled to forge an alternative mode of living Lee Lozano Not Working looks for the means to think about complex figures like Lozano whose radical politically ambiguous gestures test our assumptions about feminism and the right way to live and work

Law's Relations Jennifer Nedelsky, 2011-06-30 In this brilliantly innovative work Jennifer Nedelsky claims that we must rethink our notion of autonomy rejecting the usual vocabulary of control boundaries and individual rights If we understand that we are fundamentally in relation to others she argues we will recognize that we become autonomous with others Law's Relations includes many concrete legal applications of her theory of relational autonomy offering new insights into the debates over due process judicial review violence against women and private versus public law

Monstrous Liminality Robert G. Beghetto, 2022-01-24 This book examines the transformation of the figure of the stranger in the literature of the modern age in terms of liminality As a spectral monster that has a paradoxical and liminal relationship to both the sacred and the secular the figure of the modern stranger has played a role in both adapting and shaping a culturally determined understanding of the self and the other With the advent of modernity the stranger the monster and the spectre became interconnected Haunting the edges of reason while also being absorbed into normal society all three together with the cyborg manifest the vulnerability of an age that is fearful of the return of the repressed Yet these figures can also become re appropriated as positive symbols able to navigate between the dangerous and chaotic elements that threaten society while serving as precarious and ironic symbols of hope or sustainability The book shows the explanatory potential of focusing on the resacralizing in a paradoxical and liminal manner of traditionally sacred concepts such as messianic time and the utopian and the conflicts that emerged as a result of secularized modernity's denial of its own hybridization This approach to modern literature shows how the modern stranger a figure that is both paradoxically immersed and removed from society deals with the dangers of failing to be re assimilated into mainstream society and is caught in a fixed or permanent state of liminality a state that can ultimately lead to boredom alienation nihilism and failure These monstrous aspects of liminality can also be rewarding in that traversing difficult and paradoxical avenues they confront both traditional and contemporary viewpoints enabling new and fresh perspectives suspended between imagination and reality past and future nature and artificial In many ways the modern stranger as a figure of literature and the cultural imagination has become more complicated and challenging in the post modern contemporary age both clashing with and encompassing people who go beyond simply the psychological or even spiritual inability to blend in and out of society However while the stranger may be altering once again the defining or essentializing the figure could result in the creation of other sets of binaries and thereby dissolve the purpose and productiveness of both strangeness and liminality The intention of Monstrous Liminality is to trace the liminal sphere located between the secular and sacred that has characterized modernity itself This space has consequently altered the makeup of the stranger from something external into a figure far more liminal which is forced to traverse this uncanny space in an attempt to find new meanings for an age that is struggling to maintain any

Citizenship after Orientalism Engin Isin, 2016-04-29 This edited volume presents a critique of citizenship as exclusively and even originally a European or Western institution It explores the ways in which we may begin to think differently about citizenship as political subjectivity

Soft Force Ellen Anne McLarney, 2015-05-26 The unheralded contribution of women to Egypt's Islamist movement and how they talk about women's rights in Islamic terms In the decades leading up to the Arab Spring in 2011 when Hosni Mubarak's authoritarian regime was swept from power in Egypt Muslim women took a leading role in developing a robust Islamist presence in the country's public sphere Soft Force examines the writings and activism of these women including scholars preachers journalists critics actors and public intellectuals who envisioned an Islamic awakening in which women's rights and the family equality and emancipation were at the center Challenging Western conceptions of Muslim women as being oppressed by Islam Ellen McLarney shows how women used soft force a women's jihad characterized by nonviolent protest to oppose secular dictatorship and articulate a public sphere that was both Islamic and democratic McLarney draws on memoirs political essays sermons newspaper articles and other writings to explore how these women imagined the home and the family as sites of the free practice of religion in a climate where Islamists were under siege by the secular state While they seem to reinforce women's traditional roles in a male dominated society these Islamist writers also reoriented Islamist politics in domains coded as feminine putting women at the very forefront in imagining an Islamic polity Bold and insightful Soft Force transforms our understanding of women's rights women's liberation and women's equality in Egypt's Islamic revival Power and Feminist Agency in Capitalism

Claudia Leeb, 2017-04-03 Power and Feminist Agency in Capitalism develops the idea of the political subject in outline to find solutions to the dilemmas inherent in the idea of the political subject and provide answers to the when who how and what of socio political change
