Aesthetics Carolyn Korsmeyer, 1998-11-09 Philosophers have considered questions raised by the nature of art of beauty and critical appreciation since ancient times and the discipline of aesthetics has a long tradition that stretches from Plato to the present Issues of Contemporary Art and Aesthetics in Chinese Context Eva Kit Wah Man, 2015-08-17 This book discusses how China's transformations in the last century have shaped its arts and its philosophical aesthetics. For instance, how have political, economic and cultural changes shaped its aesthetic developments? Further, how have its long-standing beliefs and traditions clashed with modernizing desires and forces, and how have these changes materialized in artistic manifestations? In addition to answering these questions, this book also brings Chinese philosophical concepts on aesthetics into dialogue with those of the West, making an important contribution to the fields of art, comparative aesthetics and philosophy Feminist Interpretations of Theodor Adorno

Renée Heberle, 2006 Addresses several questions ranging from dilemmas in feminist aesthetic theory to the politics of suffering and democratic theory. This volume introduces feminists to Adorno's work and Adorno scholars to modes of feminist critique. It is useful for senior undergraduate and graduate courses in contemporary political, social and cultural theory.

New Essays in Comparative Aesthetics Robert Wilkinson, 2009-03-26 Comparative aesthetics is the branch of philosophy which compares the aesthetic concepts and practices of different cultures. The way in which the various cultures of the world conceive of the aesthetic dimension of life in general and art in particular is revelatory of profound attitudes and beliefs which themselves make up an important part of the culture in question. This anthology consists of entirely new essays by some of the leading internationally recognised scholars in the field. The subjects addressed include the influence of Upanishadic thought on the classic Indian tradition in aesthetics and the way in which that tradition continues to have relevance to issues discussed today; how Buddhist thought in general and Zen in particular shape aesthetic attitudes in Japanese culture; how Confucianism affected not only the morality but also the classical aesthetics of China; how different ideas of the self and of human nature affect artistic training and practice in different cultures; how feminism can draw inspiration from classic non-European lines of thought in the area of aesthetics; and how different attitudes to nature underpin a whole range of aesthetic beliefs and attitudes in western and eastern thought. These ideas reveal both deep differences and deep similarities between east and west. No one seeking to understand the cultures discussed in these essays can ignore their aesthetic dimension which often holds the key to understanding the deepest motives which have formed them A Companion to Aesthetics

Stephen Davies, Kathleen Marie Higgins, Robert Hopkins, Robert Stecker, David E. Cooper, 2009-03-30 In this extensively revised and updated edition, 168 alphabetically arranged articles provide comprehensive treatment of the main topics and writers in this area of aesthetics. Written by prominent scholars covering a wide range of key topics in aesthetics and the philosophy of art. Features revised and expanded entries from the first edition as well as new chapters on recent developments in aesthetics and a larger number of essays on non-Western thought about art. Unique to this edition are six overview essays on the history of aesthetics in the West from antiquity to modern times Columbia Companion to

Twentieth-century Philosophies Constantin V. Boundas, 2007 Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies is the first guide to cover both the Anglo American analytic and European Continental traditions The first section features Nicholas Rescher writing on neoidealism Josephine Donovan commenting on feminist philosophy Tyler Burge discussing the philosophy of language and mind and Robert Hanna reflecting on Kant s legacy The second section presents Jean Grondin on hermeneutics Leonard Lawlor on phenomenology Charles Scott on postmodernism and Babette Babich on the philosophy of science The volume also covers logical positivism naturalism pragmatism aesthetics existentialism Marxism the Frankfurt School structuralism psychoanalysis political philosophy ethics and the philosophy of religion The final section addresses concurrent trends in Indian Chinese Japanese and African philosophy and a comprehensive introduction by Constantin V Boundas not only provides a thorough outline of the problems and issues of the analytic and Continental traditions but also boldly challenges the conviction that the two approaches must be rivals Offering an unusually panoramic perspective the Columbia Companion to Twentieth Century Philosophies enables readers to encounter foundational materials on their own terms

Handbook of Feminist Research Sharlene Nagy Hesse-Biber,2012 The second edition of the Handbook of Feminist Research Theory and Praxis presents both a theoretical and practical approach to conducting social science research on for and about women The Handbook enables readers to develop an understanding of feminist research by introducing a range of feminist epistemologies methodologies and methods that have had a significant impact on feminist research practice and women s studies scholarship The Handbook continues to provide a set of clearly defined research concepts that are devoid of as much technical language as possible It continues to engage readers with cutting edge debates in the field as well as the practical applications and issues for those whose research affects social policy and social change It also expands on the wealth of interdisciplinary understanding of feminist research praxis that is grounded in a tight link between epistemology methodology and method The second edition of this Handbook will provide researchers with the tools for excavating subjugated knowledge on women s lives and the lives of other marginalized groups with the goals of empowerment and social change

Feminist Aesthetics and the Politics of Modernism Ewa Płowska Ziarek,2012 Ewa Ziarek fully articulates a feminist aesthetics focusing on the struggle for freedom in women s literary and political modernism and the devastating impact of racist violence and sexism She examines the contradiction between women s transformative literary and political practices and the oppressive realities of racist violence and sexism and she situates these tensions within the entrenched opposition between revolt and melancholia in studies of modernity and within the friction between material injuries and experimental aesthetic forms Ziarek s political and aesthetic investigations concern the exclusion and destruction of women in politics and literary production and the transformation of this oppression into the inaugural possibilities of writing and action Her study is one of the first to combine an in depth engagement with philosophical aesthetics especially the work of Theodor W Adorno with women s literary modernism particularly the writing of Virginia Woolf and Nella Larsen along with feminist theories on the politics of race and gender By bringing seemingly apolitical gender neutral debates about modernism's experimental forms together with an analysis of violence and destroyed materialities Ziarek challenges both the anti aesthetic subordination of modern literature to its political uses and the appreciation of art's emancipatory potential at the expense of feminist and anti racist political struggles

Researching Dance Sondra Horton Fraleigh, Penelope Hanstein, 1998-03-15 In Researching Dance an introduction to research methods in dance addressed primarily to graduate students the editors explore dance as evolutionary defining it in view of its intrinsic participatory values its developmental aspects and its purposes from art to ritual and they examine the role of theory in research The editors have also included essays by nine dancer scholars who examine qualitative and quantitative inquiry and delineate the most common approaches for investigating dance raising concerns about philosophy and aesthetics historical scholarship movement analysis sexual and gender identification cultural diversity and the resources available to students The writers have included study questions research exercises and suggested readings to facilitate the book's use as a classroom text

Beyond Feminist Aesthetics Rita Felski, 1989 Beyond Feminist Aesthetics has a dual focus First Rita Felski gives a critical account of current American and European feminist literary theory and second she offers an analysis of contemporary fiction by women drawing in particular on the genres of the autobiographical confession and the novel of self discovery in order to show that this literature raises questions for feminism that cannot be answered in terms of a purely gender based analysis Felski argues that the idea of a feminist aesthetic is a nonissue that feminists have needlessly pursued she suggests in contrast that it is impossible to speak of masculine and feminine subversive and reactionary literary forms in isolation from the social conditions of their production and reception The political value of such works of literature from the standpoint of feminism can be determined only by an investigation of their social functions and effects in relation to the interests of women in a particular historical context This leads her to argue for an interdisciplinary approach to the analysis of literature which can integrate literary and social theory and to develop such an approach by drawing upon the model of a feminist counter public sphere Rita Felski has produced a closely reasoned stimulating book that creates a new framework for discussing the relationship between literature and feminist politics It will interest students and teachers of women's studies comparative literature cultural studies and fiction
