Feminism In Action Building Institutions And Community Through Womens Studies:

Feminism in Action Jean F. O'Barr, 1994 Feminism in Action is Jean O'Barr's firsthand account of two decades spent working to promote the cause of higher education for women through the establishment of women's studies programs. The book brings together revised versions of O'Barr's most recent work, Making Sense of Women's Lives. Michelle Plott, Lauri Umansky, 2000 Making Sense of Women's Lives presents a wide range of writings about women's lives in the United States. Michele Plott and Lauri Umansky have drawn on their experiences as both students and professors to assemble the collection. Seeking to provide as full a sampling from a diverse and intellectually vibrant field as one volume permits, the editors have also chosen writing that makes an enjoyable read. A few of the selections here represent the undisputed classics of the field. More of them constitute simply the works drawn from academic and nonacademic sources alike that could make a difference in understanding what it means to be female in America. Making Sense of Women's Lives is intended as the primary text in Women's Studies courses. With that usage in mind, Plott and Umansky have provided brief introductions to each article to help students understand the author's perspectives. Thought and discussion questions follow each selection. The book contains as well numerous Flash Exercises, suggestions for class exercises and activities. The editors have used these activities in their courses over the past decade in conjunction with readings in this volume and have found that the full complement of materials coalesces into an intellectually powerful introduction to Women's Studies. A Collegiate Press book.

The Evolution of American Women's Studies A. Ginsberg, 2008-11-10 This book is comprised of reflections by diverse women's studies scholars focusing on the many ways in which the field has evolved from its first introduction in the University setting to the present day. Women's Studies on Its Own Robyn Wiegman, 2002-11-13 The future of a retheorized women's studies in an increasingly institutionalized context. Teaching Introduction to Women's Studies Carolyn DiPalma, Barbara S. Winkler, 1999-10-30 This edited collection addresses the institutional context and social issues in which teaching the women's studies introductory course is embedded and provides readers with practical classroom strategies to meet the challenges raised. The collection serves as a resource and preparatory text for all teachers of the course, including experienced teachers, less experienced teachers, new faculty, and graduate student teaching assistants. The collection will also be of interest to educational scholars of feminist and progressive pedagogies and all teachers interested in innovative practices. The contributors discuss the larger political context in which the course has become a central representative of women's studies to a growing, although less feminist identified, population. Increased enrollments and changes in student population are noted as a result, in part, of the popularity of Introduction to Women's Studies courses in fulfilling GED and diversity requirements. New forms of student resistance in a climate of backlash and changes in course content in response to internal and external challenges are also discussed. Evidence is provided for an emerging paradigm in the conceptualization of the introductory course as a result of challenges to racism, heterosexism, and classism in women's studies voiced by women of color and others in the 1980s and 1990s Sensationalist charges that women's studies teachers including those who teach the Introduction to Women's Studies course are the academic shock troops of a monolithic feminism are challenged and refuted by the collection's contributors who share their struggles to make possible classrooms in which informed dialogue and disagreement are valued Women's Studies for the Future Elizabeth Lapovsky Kennedy, Agatha Beins, 2005 Established as an academic field in the 1970s women's studies is a relatively young but rapidly growing area of study Not only has the number of scholars working in this subject expanded exponentially but women's studies has become institutionalized offering graduate degrees and taking on departmental status in many colleges and universities At the same time this field formed in the wake of the feminist movement is finding itself in a precarious position in what is now often called a post feminist society This raises challenging issues for faculty students and administrators How must the field adjust its goals and methods to continue to affect change in the future Bringing together essays by newcomers as well as veterans to the field this essential volume addresses timely questions including Without a unitary understanding of the subject woman what is the focus of women's studies How can women's studies fulfill the promise of interdisciplinarity What is the continuing place of activism in women's studies What are the best ways to think about teach and act upon the intersections of race class gender disability nation and sexuality Offering innovative models for research and teaching and compelling new directions for action Women's Studies for the Future ensures the continued relevance and influence of this developing field Rethinking Women's and Gender Studies Catherine M. Orr, Ann Braithwaite, 2012-03-22 Rethinking Women's and Gender Studies re-examines the field's foundational assumptions by identifying and critically analyzing eighteen of its key terms Each essay investigates a single term e.g feminism interdisciplinarity intersectionality by asking how it has come to be understood and mobilized in Women's and Gender Studies and then explicates the roles it plays in both producing and shutting down possible versions of the field The goal of the book is to trace and expose critical paradoxes ironies and contradictions embedded in the language of Women's and Gender Studies from its high theory to its casual conversations that relies on these key terms Rethinking Women's and Gender Studies offers a fresh approach to structuring Feminist Theory Senior Capstone and introductory graduate level courses in Women's and Gender Studies Encyclopedia of Feminist Theories Lorraine Code, 2002-06-01 The path breaking Encyclopedia of Feminist Theories is an accessible multidisciplinary insight into the complex field of feminist thought The Encyclopedia contains over 500 authoritative entries commissioned from an international team of contributors and includes clear concise and provocative explanations of key themes and ideas Each entry contains cross references and a bibliographic guide to further reading over 50 biographical entries provide readers with a sense of how the theories they encounter have developed out of the lives and situations of their authors Deans of Women and the Feminist Movement K. Sartorius, 2014-12-10 This book explores how deans of women actively fostered feminism in the mid twentieth century through a study of the career of Dr Emily Taylor the University of Kansas dean of women from 1956-1974 Sartorius links feminist activism by deans of women with labor activism the New Left movement and the later rise of women's studies as a discipline Meeting the Challenge Maralee Mayberry, Ellen Cronan Rose, 1999 First Published in 1999 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Feminists Who Changed America, 1963-1975 Barbara J. Love, 2006-09-22 Documenting key feminists who ignited the second wave women's movement Barbara J Love's Feminists Who Changed America 1963-1975 will be the first comprehensive directory to document many of the founders and leaders including both well known and grassroots organizers of the second wave women's movement It tells the stories of more than two thousand individual women and a few notable men who together reignited the women's movement and made permanent changes to entrenched customs and laws The biographical entries on these pioneering feminists represent their many factions all parts of the country all races and ethnic groups and all political ideologies Nancy Cott's foreword discusses the movement in relation to the earlier first wave and presents a brief overview of the second wave in the context of other contemporaneous social movements Feminist

Critical Policy Analysis II Catherine Marshall, 2020-07-24 This text sets out to challenge the traditional power basis of the policy decision makers in education It contests that others who have an equal right to be consulted and have their opinions known have been silenced declared irrelevant postponed and otherwise ignored Policies have thus been formed and implemented without even a cursory feminist critical glance The chapters in this text illustrate how to incorporate critical and feminist lenses and thus create policies to meet the lived realities the needs aspirations and values of women and girls A particular focus is the primary and secondary sectors of education The Other in Jewish Thought and History Laurence J. Silberstein, Robert L. Cohn, 1994-08 Cultural boundaries and group identity are often forged in relation to the Other In every society conceptions of otherness which often reflect a group's fears and vulnerabilities result in deep rooted traditions of inclusion and exclusion that permeate the culture's literature religion and politics This volume explores the ways in which Jews have traditionally defined other groups and in turn themselves The contributors a distinguished international group of scholars explore the discursive processes through which Jewish identity and culture have been constructed disseminated and perpetuated Among the topics addressed are Others in the biblical world the construction of gender in Roman period Judaism the Other as woman in the Greco-Roman world the gentile as Other in rabbinic law the feminine as Other in kabbalah the reproduction of the Other in the Passover Haggadah the Palestinian Arab as Other in Israeli politics and literature the Other in Levinas and Derrida Blacks as Other in American Jewish literature the Jewish body image as symbol of Otherness and women as Other in Israeli cinema Contributors to this interdisciplinary volume are Jonathan Boyarin New School for Social Research Robert L Cohn Lafayette College Gerald Cromer Bar Ilan University Trude Dothan Hebrew University of Jerusalem Elizabeth Fifer Lehigh University Steven D Fraade Yale University Sander L Gilman Cornell University Hannan Hever Tel Aviv University Ross S Kraemer University of Pennsylvania Orly Lubin Tel Aviv University Peter Machinist Harvard
