Feminism World Religions:

Feminism and World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 1999-01-01 Addressing religion and feminism on a global scale this unprecedented book contains a nuanced and fine tuned treatment of seven of the world's religions from a feminist perspective by leading women scholars The fact that these authors share a dual but undivided commitment both to themselves as women and to their traditions as adherents imparts to their voices a prophetic quality and if Mahatma Gandhi is to be believed even scriptural value

Feminism and Religion Rita M. Gross, 1996 Rita M Gross offers an engaging survey of the changes feminism has wrought in religious ideas beliefs and practices around the world as well as in the study and understanding of religion itself This book will be an important resource for all ongoing work in feminist teaching and research in religion Rosemary Radford Ruether

Women within Religions Loreen Maseno, Elia Shabani Mligo, 2019-12-05 Women are the majority in almost every cultural or social group However their roles vary in various cultures religions and traditions In some cultures and religions they are highly honored while in others they are neglected oppressed and segregated This book examines women's role in a few selected world religions namely Christianity Islam African Traditional Religion Hinduism and Buddhism It also surveys the concept of patriarchy and the various theoretical perspectives surrounding it Eventually this book discusses the concept of ecofeminism and how feminists perceive of the relationship between nature and the oppression of women The book grapples with the question In what way do world religions perceive of women and their role in their teachings and traditions This book is important for students and teachers of gender studies African theology and Christian theology as a whole

Fundamentalism and Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 2008-09-01 This collection of essays by internationally renowned women scholars both contests the notion of fundamentalism and attempts to find places where it might converge with women's roles in the various world's religions The essayists explore fundamentalism as a system or method of limiting women's religious roles and examine the ways that women embrace certain aspects of fundamentalism The essays cover Hinduism Buddhism Confucianism Islam Judaism and Christianity The contributors investigate the ways that women fight back against fundamentalist conceptions of family gender roles doctrinal practices ritual practices and God or theistic constructs The writers reassert and preserve their identities by challenging the static categories of fundamentalism The essays contain deep and powerful explorations of the intersections of culture religion and feminism

After Patriarchy Paula M. Cooney, William R. Eakin, Jay Byrd McDaniel, 1991

Integrating Ecofeminism, Globalization, and World Religions Rosemary Radford Ruether, 2004-11-26 Integrating Ecofeminism Globalization and World Religions addresses the practical relevance of the interconnection of feminism ecology and religious theological thought and will ask questions about the lack of attention to gender issues in both ecological theology and deglobalization theory The book knits together four concerns globalization interfaith ecological theology ecofeminism and deglobalization movements and thought It examines how gender needs to be connected with inter faith ecological theology and with critical analysis of globalization It asks how to connect theory and practice and how theoretical views about a more earth friendly theology have actual relevance to the deglobalization struggle The book looks at these issues comparatively across different world religions and across different regions of the earth

Women in World Religions Arvind Sharma,1987-04-15 This is a book by women about women in the religions of the world It presents all the basic facts and ideological issues concerning the position of women in the major religious traditions of humanity Buddhism Christianity Confucianism Hinduism Islam Judaism Taoism and tribal religions A special feature of the book is its phenomenological approach wherein scholars examine sacred textual materials Each contributor not only studies her religion from within but also studies it from her own feminine perspective Each is an adept historian of religions who grounds her analysis in publicly verifiable facts The book strikes a delicate balance between hard fact and delicate perception the best tradition of phenomenology and the history of religions It also demonstrates how much religions may vary over time Contributors are Katherine K Young Associate Professor of Religious Studies at McGill University Nancy Schuster Barnes whose Ph D is in Sanskrit and Indian Studies M Theresa Kelleher Assistant Professor of Religion and Asian Studies at Manhattanville College Barbara Reed Assistant Professor of Religion at St Olaf College Denise L Carmody Professor and Chair Department of Religion The University of Tulsa Also Jane I Smith Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Lecturer in Islamic Studies at Harvard Divinity School Rosemary Radford Ruether Georgia Harkness Professor of Applied Theology at the Garrett Evangelical Theological Seminary Rita M Gross Associate Professor of Comparative Religions at the University of Wisconsin Eau Claire

Women in Religion Jean Holm,John Bowker,2001-01-01 The place of women in the religions both as expressed in the classical writings and as experienced in life is carefully considered in this book It deals with what part women can and or do play in religious institutions how relevant religion is to their general role in society and the significance of cultural influences for attitudes to women within the religious traditions Addressing important issues of the day this series examines how each of the eight major religions approaches a particular theme Constructed to be comparative the books are both authoritative and accessible Each chapter is followed by a selected bibliography This book is ideal for undergraduate students
