Feminist Dialogics A Theory Of Failed Community:

Feminist Dialogics Dale M. Bauer, 1988-07-08 Feminist Dialogics examines the structure of four novels Hawthorne's The Blithedale Romance James's The Golden Bowl Wharton's The House of Mirth and Chopin's The Awakening through the lens of Mikhail Bakhtin's critical framework The author draws on Bakhtin's notion of heteroglossia to show how the interaction of many voices forms the social community of the novel and how the functioning of these voices makes clear statements about the position and fate of women in these specific societies The novels present dialogic situations in which the women misinterpret their social texts and therefore fail to understand their own social power The four works considered in this study represent the struggle for women's construction of self within a dialogic structure of many competing voices Bauer introduces and enters into dialogue with other theorists who are concerned with the social implications of reading and interpretation including Rene Girard Wolfgang Iser Sandra Gilbert and Susan Gubar as well as other American feminists The recurring theme in the novels of this study is the exclusion and rivalry of discourse the competition among characters for authoritative and interpretive power Each voice in the novel is a thematization of an ideological perspective and as such competes for domination The conspiracy of voices to exclude the female reflects the social reality as well This work is an important contribution to literary criticism and feminist theory

Fruits of Her Plume: Essays on Contemporary Russian Women's Culture Helena Goscilo, 2015-05-20 The 1980s witnessed the ascendancy of Russian women in multiple spheres of artistic creation including literature film and painting This volume may thus be said to engage not only women s artistic production but indeed the best and most colourful of recent Russian culture Treating contemporary Russian women s creativity it approaches women s texts films and canvasses from a range of perspectives from anti gendered to feminist Some of the essays introduce writers not previously well studied others challenge conventional interpretations and assumptions while still others yield original viewpoints through novel juxtapositions In addition to offering insights into the various artists under analysis the essays map the wide terrain of issues and methodologies proliferating in cultural criticism today and mirror the diversity that is one of the most appealing features of women s creativity in contemporary Russia

Bakhtin and cultural theory Ken Hirschkop, David Shepherd, 2024-06-04 An important collection of essays which treats Bakhtin as a provocative theorist whose work must be tested explored and compared with the work of others Contributors assess Bakhtin s contribution to difficult issues of colonialism feminism reception theory and theories of the body amongst others New articles explore the origins previously unacknowledged of Bakhtin s theory of language and provide a vivid account of the dramatic scandal surrounding Bakhtin s thesis on Rabelais Contains dramatic new material drawn from post perestroika sources which demythologizes the image of this important writer A new bibliographical essay and introduction bring the English language reader up to date with the progress of Bakhtin studies in Russia

Eating Disorders and Child Sexual Abuse Lisa Hodge, 2021-03-10 This book takes up the challenge of examining women's understandings of eating disorders and child sexual abuse away from a framework focused on pathology The central argument is that women's distress is an enactment of their engagement with certain discourses and practices rather than a reaction triggered by child sexual abuse Guided by a contemporary feminist framework and Mikhail Bakhtin's sociological linguistics to substantiate the argument women's own poetry and drawings are used as evidence to develop support and supplement research findings The book establishes that an eating disorder is an understandable response to sexual trauma and shifts the focus away from a damaged personality Even more importantly it demonstrates that women with eating disorders are using their bodies as a form of resistance to express silenced traumas that remain in the silenced female body This is an active way of making sense of experiences of child sexual abuse

Bakhtin: Carnival and Other Subjects David Shepherd, 2021-11-01

Charlotte Perkins Gilman Carol Farley Kessler, 1995-03-01 The focus of Carol Farley Kessler's work is how Charlotte Perkins Gilman developed as a writer and how she imagined a full blown utopia for women This book which offers a fresh reading of Gilman's fiction fills a void in Gilman scholarship in feminist utopian scholarship and in American literary studies Kessler provides three journeys through Gilman's life A Biographical Exploration discusses facets of her life having a substantial impact upon her utopian writing Four themes influence this development the legacy of ancestral expectations her relationships to father mother and daughter the experience of two marriages and a divorce and her friendships with women Gilman and her Prancing Young Utopia presents three stages in the development of Gilman's utopian writing First she imagined neighborhoods writing alternately fiction and nonfiction Second she tested in fiction the expression of utopian principles explained in her nonfiction Finally she created the whole society in her 1915 satire Herland All of the foregoing writing represents Gilman's effort to imagine in fiction solutions that she recommended in her 1898 feminist treatise Women and Economics Writing to Empower Living connects Gilman's biography to her utopian writing as both personal expression and public activism The writing can be understood as equipment for living Ten hard to locate utopian short stories and chapters from four novels conclude the volume

Girls Transforming Sanna Lehtonen, 2013-04-26 This book explores representations of girlhood and young womanhood in recent English language children's fantasy by focusing on two fantastic body transformation types invisibility and age shifting Drawing on recent feminist and queer theory the study discusses the tropes of invisibility and age shifting as narrative devices representing gendered experiences The transformations offer various perspectives on a girl's changing body and identity and provide links between real life and fantastic discourses of gender power invisibility and aging The main focus is on English language fantasy published since the 1970s but the motifs of invisibility and age shifting in earlier tales and children's books is reviewed this is the first study of children's fantasy literature that considers these tropes at length Novels discussed are from both critically acclaimed authors and the less well known Most of the novels depicting invisible or age shifting girls are neither thoroughly conventional nor radically subversive but present a range of styles In terms of gender children s fantasy novels can be more complex than they are often interpreted to be

Women and Arthurian Literature Marion Wynne-Davies, 2016-07-27 This is the first full length study of the role of women in Arthurian literature It covers writing from the medieval period the Renaissance the Victorian age and in contemporary fiction Covering the key Arthurian texts such as Chaucer s Wife of Bath s Tale Sir Gawain and the Green Knight Malory s Morte D arthur Spenser s The Faerie Queene and Tennyson s Idylls it also investigates the less well known works by women Lady Charlotte Guest s Mabinogion Julia Margaret Cameron s illustration to Tennyson s works and finally the Arthurian women writers of the twentieth century

Contemporary American Women Writers Lois Parkinson Zamora, 2017-09-29 This collection brings together critical essays that examine questions of identity and community in the fiction of contemporary American women writers among them Alice Walker Toni Morrison and Sandra Cisneros The essays consider how identities and societies are dramatized in particular works of fiction and how these works reflect cultural communities outside the fictional frame often the communities in which their authors live and work The essays included here concern fictional representations of African American Latino Asian American Native American Anglo and Euro American communities and their working interactions in the multicultural United States Each critic asks in his or her own way how a particular writer transforms her social grounding into language and literature The introduction includes an overview of the range of literary criticism devoted to contemporary American women writers and an extensive bibliography of complementary critical readings is provided to encourage further study Undergraduate and postgraduate students of contemporary literature will find the text an invaluable guide to contemporary women s writing in America and the range of criticism that this has given rise to Contemporary Women's Writing in German Brigid Haines, Margaret Littler, 2004-09-23 Six key texts by contemporary women writers are read afresh by leading critics using insights from poststructuralist and new materialist feminist theory Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf and Elfriede Jelinek have long been prominent in the fields of Austrian modernism GDR writing and avant garde Austrian literature The innovative work of Anne Duden Herta M ller and Emine Sevgi zdamar sets out to challenge dominant models of German identity Focusing on the body and suffering they explore textual representations of trauma national identity and displacement Haines and Littler s readings of these distinguished and complex female authors offer new avenues for discussion Both critics and their subjects cast a sceptical eye over existing notions of subjectivity in relation to language gender and race Together they spark controversy and comment in an increasingly important debate

Entering History Silke von der Emde, 2004 This book offers a thorough examination of the novels of Irmtraud Morgner 1933 1990 one of the most talented compelling and overlooked writers within East German feminist and avant garde circles Using a combination of theoretical approaches including Adorno s aesthetic theories and Bakhtinian analyses of dialogism and the carnivalesque the author traces Morgner s engagement with postmodernist aesthetic strategies back to her efforts beginning in the early 1970s to pose questions about effective political practices Morgner's work sheds new light on the fraught relationship between GDR intellectuals and the state a hotly debated topic that marks most recent attempts to understand literary culture in the German Democratic Republic Situating Morgner's fiction at the intersection of postmodern and feminist theory this study also offers new evidence for viewing literature from the GDR as significantly more complex and aesthetically interesting than has been previously assumed

New Woman Writers, Authority and the Body Stacey Floyd, Melissa Purdue, 2009-10-02 This collection of essays contributes to scholarship on the emerging voices of women writers during the fin de siècle These New Woman writers created a distinctly different body of literature that reflected their concerns about women's limited role in society The essays cover a range of authors shedding light on the ways New Woman texts also often offer new and progressive portrayals of women's authority as connected to strong physical bodies These scholars highlight how New Woman endings re envision the marriage plot self destruction and even empowerment through pain Additionally they help scholars instructors and students contextualize the New Woman writers in terms of the Women's Movement nineteenth century laws related to marriage Darwinian theory athletics for women the New Woman's navigation of urban life and even Jack the Ripper The Rhetorics of Feminism Lynne Pearce, 2013-04-15 Is it possible that changes in rhetorical practice could alter not just how thought is expressed but also how it is made Through a close stylistic and rhetorical analysis of contemporary feminist writing from the cultural theory of Judith Butler to the popular journalism of Naomi Wolf and Germaine Greer Lynne Pearce demonstrates how feminist thought is created as well as communicated through the frameworks in which it is presented By linking rhetorical innovation with feminist epistemology in such a direct way this is a book that will be of immense methodological as well as theoretical interest to readers providing valuable insight into the often mysterious processes of conception and composition

Bama Raj Kumar, S. Armstrong, 2024-07-31 Bama is a Tamil Dalit feminist writer and novelist Her autobiographical novel Karukku which chronicles the joys and sorrows experienced by Dalit Christians in Tamil Nadu catapulted her to fame As a prolific writer she has experimented with all kinds of genres such as novels short stories poems autobiographical writing children's literature and discursive essays This book presents a dedicated study of Bama's work as a writer and activist and situates her in the context of Dalit literature in general and Tamil Dalit literature in particular It recognises Bama as writer of great relevance especially in bringing to the fore the problematics of Dalit issues and their possible modes of aesthetic articulation through a new Dalit language Part of the Writer in Context series this book will be useful for scholars and researchers of Indian literature Dalit Literature Dalit Studies Tamil literature English literature comparative literature postcolonial studies cultural studies Green studies global south studies and translation studies Better Red Constance Coiner, 1995 Better Red is an interdisciplinary study addressing the complicated intersection of American feminism and the political left as refracted in Tillie Olsen's and Meridel Le Sueur's lives and literary texts The first book length study to explore these feminist writers ties to the American Communist Party it contributes to a reenvisioning of 1930s U S Communism as well as to efforts to promote working class writing as a legitimate category of literary analysis At once loyal members of the male dominated Communist party and emerging feminists Olsen and Le Sueur exhibit in their writing tendencies both toward and away from Party tenets and attitudes at points subverting formalist as well as orthodox Marxist literary categories By producing working class discourse Olsen and Le Sueur challenge the bourgeois assumptions often masked as classless and universal of much canonical literature and by creating working class women s writing they problematize the patriarchal nature of the Left and the masculinist assumptions of much proletarian literature anticipating the concerns of second wave feminists a generation later

The Scarlet Mob of Scribblers Jamie Barlowe, 2000 Barlowe examines the causes and consequences of the continuing disregard for women s scholarship To that end she chronicles The Scarlet Letter s critical reception analyzes the history of Hester Prynne as a cultural icon in literature and film rereads the canonized criticism of the novel and offers a new reading of Hawthorne s work by rescuing marginalized interpretations from the alternative canon of women critics

BOOK JACKET Carnivalizing Difference Peter I. Barta, Paul Allen Miller, Charles Platter, David Shepherd, 2013-06-17 It has seemed at times that there is no neutral territory between those who see Bakhtin as the practitioner of a kind of neo Marxist or at least materialist deconstruction and those who look at the same texts and see a defender of traditional liberal humanist values and classical conceptions of order a conservative in the true sense of the term Arising from a conference under the same title held at Texas Tech University Carnivalizing Difference seeks to explore the actual and possible relationships between Bakhtinian theory and cultural practice The introduction explores the changing configurations of our understanding of Bakhtin s work in the context of recent theory and outlines how that understanding can inform and be informed by culture both ancient and modern Eleven articles spanning a wide range of periods and cultural forms then address these issues in detail revealing the ways in which Bakhtinian thought illuminates sometimes obfuscates but always challenges
