Femmes Et La Politique Au Niger:

Bargaining for Women's Rights Alice J. Kang, 2015-06-30 Gender relations in Muslim majority countries have been subject to intense debate in recent decades. In some cases Muslim women have fought for and won new rights to political participation, reproductive health and education. In others their agendas have been stymied. Yet missing from this discussion until now has been a systematic examination of how civil society groups mobilize to promote women's rights and how multiple components of the state negotiate such legislation. In Bargaining for Women's Rights Alice J. Kang argues that reform is more likely to happen when the struggle arises from within. Focusing on how a law on gender quotas and a United Nations treaty on ending discrimination against women passed in Niger while family law reform and an African Union protocol on women's rights did not, Kang shows how local women's associations are uniquely positioned to translate global concepts of democracy and human rights into concrete policy proposals. And yet drawing on numerous interviews with women's rights activists as well as Islamists and politicians she reveals that the former are not the only ones who care about the regulation of gender relations. Providing a solid analytic framework for understanding conflict over women's rights policies without stereotyping Muslims, Bargaining for Women's Rights demonstrates that contrary to conventional wisdom Islam does not have a uniformly negative effect on the prospects of such legislation.

The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender Justine Howe, 2020-11-09 Given the intense political scrutiny of Islam and Muslims which often centres on gendered concerns, The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender is an outstanding reference source to key topics, problems and debates in this exciting subject. Comprising over 30 chapters by a team of international contributors, the Handbook is divided into seven parts: Foundational texts in historical and contemporary contexts; Sex, sexuality and gender difference; Gendered piety and authority; Political and religious displacements; Negotiating law, ethics and normativity; Vulnerability, care and violence in Muslim families; Representation, commodification and popular culture. These sections examine key debates and problems including feminist and queer approaches to the Qur'an, hadith, Islamic law and ethics; Sufism, devotional practice, pilgrimage, charity, female religious authority, global politics of feminism, material and consumer culture, masculinity, fertility and the family, sexuality, sexual rights, domestic violence, marriage practices and gendered representations of Muslims in film and media. The Routledge Handbook of Islam and Gender is essential reading for students and researchers in religious studies, Islamic studies and gender studies. Masculinities in Contemporary Africa Egodi Uchendu, 2008-03-15 Although gender and non gender scholars have studied men such an academic exercise requires a critical and focused study of masculine subjects in particular social contexts which is what this book attempts to do This empirically rich collection of essays the seventh of the CODESRIA Gender Series deals with critical examinations of various shades and ramifications of Africa s masculinities and what these portend for the peoples of Africa and for gender relations in the continent So much has changed in terms of notions and expressions of masculinities in Africa since ancient times but many aspects of contemporary masculinities were fashioned during and since the colonial period. The papers in this volume were initially discussed at the 2005 month long CODESRIA Gender Institute in Dakar. The contributors are gender scholars drawn from various disciplines in the wide fields of the humanities and the social sciences with research interests in the critical study of men and masculinities in Africa. The CODESRIA Gender Series aims at keeping alive and nourishing the African social science knowledge base with insightful research and debates that challenge conventional wisdom structures and ideologies that are narrowly informed by caricatures of gender realities. The series strives to showcase the best in African gender research and provide a platform for emerging new talents to flower.

Africa Today, 2008 Femmes d'Afrique et émancipation. GOMEZ-PEREZ Muriel, 2019-06-28

Face aux changements politiques colonisation d'autoritarismes et de démocratisation socio-économiques libéralisation mondialisation des changes flexibilité et précarisation de l'emploi bouleversements au sein de la famille et religieux montée de la participation politique émergence de nouvelles autorités en Afrique les femmes ont inlassablement et profondément posé leur marque. En cho ces différents contextes ce livre s'inscrit dans plusieurs tendances de la recherche faire état de l'impact du militantisme politique féminin et des recompositions des rapports de genre au cours du XXe siècle revisiter les concepts d'empowerment et de religious agency et de montrer leur efficacité et leurs limites sur le terrain empirique analyser les conditions dans lesquelles s'inscrivent les migrations internationales des femmes et leurs effets sur leur statut leur vie de couple leur vie familiale et leurs aspirations. La perspective de cet ouvrage est de faire état de processus emancipatoires distincts et ambivalents voire contradictoires de femmes non seulement travers leurs luttes et prises de position politiques ainsi qu'à travers leurs choix d'activités professionnelles mais aussi en fonction du rapport au corps des hiérarchies et normes sociales contraignantes des différents culturels souvent normatifs et des nouvelles opportunités existantes et ces différentes échelles couple famille sphère publique scales locale nationale sous régionale et internationale zone urbaine rurale. Aussi il s'agit d'analyser les forces et limites de ces processus emancipatoires leurs avancées et leurs reflux pour montrer en quoi ils sont en cours de construction fragiles et lents. Cette lecture nuance de ces dynamiques à travers selon une optique pluridisciplinaire et un souci de mener des recherches empiriques dans plusieurs pays du continent.
