Feedback Echoes From My Life In Radio:

Feedback Charles F. Payne, 2000 Army Echoes, 2003 My Life with Bob Pamela Paul, 2018-05 Imagine keeping a record of every book you ever read What would those titles say about you With humor and warmth the editor of The New York Times Book Review shares the stories that have shaped her life For twenty eight years Pamela Paul has been keeping a diary that records the books she reads rather than the life she leads Or does it Over time it s become clear that this Book of Books or Bob as she calls him tells a much bigger story For Paul as for many readers books reflect her inner life her fantasies and hopes her dreams and ideas And her life in turn influences which books she chooses whether for solace or escape diversion or self reflection information or entertainment My Life with Bob isn t about what s in those books it s about the relationship between books and readers Bob was with her when she struggled to get through the Norton Anthology of English Literature in college and when she read Anna Karenina while living abroad alone He was there when she fell in love and much needed when she sought solace in self help and memoirs like Autobiography of a Face Through marriage and divorce remarriage The Master and Margarita and parenthood The Hunger Games professional setbacks and successes Bob recorded what she read while all that happened The diary now coffee stained and frayed is the record of a lifelong love affair with books and has come to mean more to her than any other material possession My Life with Bob is a testament to the power of books to provide the perspective courage companionship and ultimately self knowledge to forge our own path
