The Changing World of Contemporary South Asian Poetry in English Mitali P. Wong, M. Yousuf Saeed, 2019-07-02
This collection uses a transnational approach to study contemporary English language poetry composed by poets of South Asian origin. The poetry contains themes, motifs, and critiques of social changes, and the contributors seek to encapsulate the continually changing environments that these contemporary poets write about. The contributors show that English language poetry in South Asia is hybridized with imagery and figurative language adapted from the vernacular languages of South Asia. The chapters examine women's issues, concerns of marginalized groups such as the Dalit community and the people of Northeastern India, social changes in Sri Lanka, the changing society of Pakistan, and the formation of the identity in the several nation states that resulted from the British colony of India.

Facing Feelings in Faith Communities William M. Kondrath, 2013-08-05
Facing Feelings in Faith Communities is based on a simple premise: We have emotions because we need them. God created us as affectively competent beings. William Kondrath argues to help us understand our world and to give appropriate signals to people around us about what we are experiencing. When we express our feelings clearly, other people can more easily respond in ways that are helpful to us, thus enhancing our relationships and the work we might do together. Kondrath also recognizes that unfortunately for many of us, our emotional software was infected early on with viruses: early familial and social conditioning that distorted the way we responded to natural stimuli. Because we are underusing or misusing our emotional capacities, we are missing out on the opportunity to express our full humanity. Fortunately, we can reprogram our emotional software. Facing Feelings in Faith Communities helps us restore our emotional systems to their original state or at least invites us to imagine how we would live differently if our emotional expressions were more nearly congruent with the situations and events we encounter. Kondrath invites us to explore six feelings: fear, anger, sadness, peace, power, and joy through poetry, meditation, on an evocative drawing, as well as through his own analysis of each feeling. Congregational Resources for Facing Feelings is a companion collection to this book. For more information, click here.

Journal of the Fine Arts and Musical World ,1853 Thinking in the World Jill Bennett, Mary Zournazi, 2019-12-26
Engaging with contemporary issues responsibly and creatively can become a very abstract activity. We can sometimes find ourselves talking in terms of theories and philosophies which bear very little resemblance to how life is actually lived and experienced. In Thinking in the World, Jill Bennett and Mary Zournazi curate writings and conversations with some of the most influential thinkers in the world and ask them not just why we should engage with the world but also how we might do this. Rather than simply thinking about the world, the authors examine the ways in which we think in and with the world. Whether it's how to be environmentally responsible, how to think in film, or how to dance with a non-human, the need to engage meaningfully in a lived way is at the forefront of this collection. Thinking in the World showcases some of the most compelling arguments for a philosophy in action Including wholly original never before released material from Michel Serres Alphonso Lingis and Mieke Bal the different chapters in this book constitute dialogues and approachable essays as well as impassioned arguments for a particular way of approaching thinking in the world The Theory of the Arts Francis Edward Sparshott,2014-07-14 In a systematic overview of classical and modern contributions to aesthetics Professor Sparshott argues that all four lines of theory and no others are necessary to coherent thinking about art Originally published in 1982 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Brontës in the World of the Arts Sandra Hagan,Juliette Wells,2008 This interdisciplinary collection presents new research on the Brontës intense and varied relationship to the wider world of the arts With essays by scholars who represent the fields of literary studies music art theatre studies and material culture the volume brings together the strongest current research and suggests areas for future work on the Brontës and their cultural contexts Poetry and Power of Judgment Song Ye,2024-07-25 This book examines Chinese traditional poetry with an emphasis on the sources of pleasure in creating and appreciating classical Chinese poems and the basis for valid aesthetic judgments about poetry The pleasure derived from art plays a crucial role in people's evaluation of its worth This book shows that Chinese classical poetics and Western aesthetics agree on the sources of aesthetic pleasure Both hold despite their obvious differences that aesthetic taste essentially involves cognition The book explores important ideas in traditional Chinese poetry emphasizing that Poetry is founded upon the power of judgement shi This central idea guides other key concepts throughout the history of Chinese poetics revealing the fundamental principles of creating and appreciating poetic art The author presents new views of traditional Chinese poetry and poetics by unifying these long dispersed basic propositions into a new coherent cognitivist framework that also gives due importance to emotion Scholars and students studying Chinese literature poetics philosophy of art and philosophy of mind will find this book interesting Musical World ,1855 The Matrix of Modernism Sanford Schwartz,2014-07-14 Sanford Schwartz situates Modernist poetics in the intellectual ferment of the early twentieth century which witnessed major developments in philosophy science and the arts Beginning with the works of various philosophers Bergson James Bradley Nietzsche and Husserl among others he establishes a matrix that brings together not only the principal characteristics of Modernist New Critical poetics but also the affiliations between the Continental and the Anglo American critical traditions Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while
