Feelings From Within:

Feelings from Within Bobbi, Bobbi Zorn, 1980-01-01 Defining and Perceiving Feelings in the Late Middle Ages, 2025-04-24 In order to have a constructive discussion about feelings in the late Middle Ages it is beneficial to first evaluate how the feelings of individual men and women were defined As such the purpose of this book is to explore the words used by late medieval men and women to refer to their feelings and to examine their meanings By doing so we can better understand the efforts of late medieval society to express use and transmit certain feelings especially as they related to manoeuvres of power or the articulation of social values Contributors are Mechthild Albert Jacqueline Cerquiglioni Toulet Frank Collard Paola Corti Badia Francesca Espa ol Isabel Grifoll Juan Francisco Jim nez Alc zar Jos Mart nez G zquez Alicia Mingu lez Matilde Juan Liza N Pina Rubio Gerardo Rodr guez Flocel Sabat Benedicte S re and Marta Serrano Creative Ways to Help Children Manage BIG Feelings Fiona Zandt, Suzanne Barrett, 2017-04-21 Making therapeutic concepts engaging for children this book full of activities gives clinicians practical guidance on how to work with children aged 4 12 Using only readily available items these activities are specifically designed for clinicians to interact with and help children understand their emotions Mind, Body, and Emotion in the Reception and Creation Practices of Fan Communities Jessica Hautsch, 2023-07-12 This book argues that fans creative works form a cognitive system fanfic fanvids and gifs are not simply evidence of thinking but acts of thinking Drawing on work in cognitive linguistics neuroscience cognitive philosophy and psychology particularly focused on 4 E cognition which rejects Cartesian dualism this project demonstrates that cognition is an embodied emotional and distributed act that emerges from fans interactions with media texts technological interfaces and fan collectives This mode of textual engagement is deeply physical emotional and social and is enacted through fanworks By developing a theory of critical closeness this book proposes a methodology for fruitfully putting cognitive science in conversation with fan studies Self-Feeling Gerhard Kreuch, 2019-11-11 This monograph offers new insights into the connection between self consciousness and emotion It focuses on what fundamental feelings of being tell us about ourselves The results enrich the philosophy of human affectivity and help shed new light on some pressing current problems The author seeks to understand self consciousness as an affective phenomenon namely as self feeling He identifies it as a pre reflective pre propositional bodily feeling that shapes our space of possibilities It is the affective disclosure of individual existence His account overcomes the difficulties of infinite regress and vicious circularity that reflective or higher order accounts of self consciousness struggle with At the same time it helps build a bridge between the basic level of self consciousness and the higher level of more substantial thoughts about oneself The title explores fundamental affectivity Matthew Ratcliffe s theory of existential feelings features of self feeling and appropriateness and inappropriateness in self interpretation It also considers the contributions of the Heidelberg School of self consciousness to current debates The title provides students and researchers with a unique look into such vital philosophical questions as What is self consciousness

How do we know ourselves It will also appeal to a wider audience interested in self consciousness and or human affectivity since it does not presuppose knowledge of the jargon      Emotion in Organizations Stephen Fineman,2000-09-05 This Second Edition contains key themes with all new contributors and is a completely separate work from the first Emotion in Organization presents original work from leading scholars in the field they engage with emotion as a qualitative phenomenon which shapes and is shaped by organizational life Examining how emotion cannot be simply separated from thinking judgment decision making and other so called rational organizational processes the book challenges us to build a passionate theory of organizations The introduction reviews the expansion of organizational emotion studies and their appeal to several social scientific disciplines Divided into four parts the book reveals through stories interview      Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships Anita L. Vangelisti,2009-07-31 Feeling Hurt in Close Relationships presents a synthesis of cutting edge research and theory on hurt Being hurt is an inevitable part of close relationships What varies from relationship to relationship is not whether partners hurt each other but how their relationship is affected by hurtful episodes Given the potential influence of hurt feelings on people s interpersonal relationships it is not surprising that scholars have begun to study the antecedents processes and outcomes associated with hurt This collection integrates the various issues addressed by researchers theorists and practitioners who study the causes of hurt feelings the interpersonal events associated with hurt and the ways people respond to hurting and being hurt by others To capture the breadth and depth of the literature in this area the work of scholars from a variety of disciplines including social psychology communication sociology and family studies is highlighted      Feelings in Sport Montse Ruiz,Claudio Robazza,2020-09-17 Feeling states including emotional experiences are pervasive to human functioning Feeling states deeply influence the individual s effort attention decision making memory behavioural responses and interpersonal interactions The sporting environment offers an ideal setting for the development of research questions and applied interventions to improve the well being and well functioning of the people involved This ground breaking book is the first to offer cutting edge knowledge about contemporary theoretical methodological and applied issues with the contributions of leading researchers and practitioners in the field Feeling states in sports are comprehensively covered by adopting an international and multi disciplinary perspective Part I covers most relevant conceptual frameworks including emotion centred and action centred approaches challenge and threat evaluations an evolutionary approach to emotions and the role of passion in the experience of emotion Part II focuses on interpersonal aspects related to emotions and regulation encompassing social and interpersonal emotion influence and regulation social identity and group based emotions and performance experiences in teams Part III presents applied indications surrounding emotional intelligence training and emotional regulation strategies including imagery self talk the use of music mindfulness motor skills execution under pressure self regulation in endurance sports and the use of technology Finally Part IV examines issues related to athlete well being including the role of emotions in sport injury emotional eating and mental recovery

Feelings in Sport Theory Research and Practical Implications for Performance and Well being is an essential source for sport psychology practitioners researchers sports coaches undergraduate and postgraduate students      Researching with

Feeling Caroline Clarke, Mike Broussine, Linda Watts, 2014-10-10 Why should researchers be interested in their feelings and emotions as they carry out research Emotion is what it is to exist to be human and is present in every sphere of our lives All activities are infused with emotion even those that are constructed as rational because rationality and emotionality are interpenetrated and entwined because all thinking is tinged with feeling and all feeling is tinged with thinking This book illuminates the emotional processes of doing social and organizational research and the implications of this for the outcomes of research With contributions from leading academics and research practitioners it addresses the significant issue of the sometimes intense emotional experiences involved in doing research and the implications it has for the theory and practice of social research By examining the nature of feelings and emotions it explores how we might understand researchers emotions and experiences and considers the often powerful feelings encountered in a variety of research contexts Topics discussed include power relations psycho social explanations of researcher emotions paradoxical relations with research participants and the sometimes disturbing data that is gained research supervision the politics of research gender publishing undergoing vivas and presenting at conferences This book will therefore be a valuable companion to researchers and research students from the start of their career onwards      The Conscience and Self-Conscious Emotions in Adolescence Frans

Schalkwijk, 2014-09-15 The consequences of apparent moral failings in an individual are something that can be seen frequently in the media and in everyday life One issue that is rarely addressed in public discussion about someone s lack of conscience is any thought as to how the conscience actually functions In The Conscience and Self Conscious Emotions in Adolescence Frans Schalkwijk presents a new definition of the conscience as a psychic function in which self conscious emotions and empathy are dominant Schalkwijk combines current scientific research into empathy shame and guilt as well as his rich clinical experience to create a wealth of information for clinicians working with children and adolescents This book is a superb guide for operationalizing the diagnostics of the conscience presenting a developmental approach to the theory and diagnostics of the conscience and integrating psychoanalytic cognitive behavioural social psychological and neurobiological theories Research has shown that human behaviours are often enacted well below our potential cognitive level In this book a balance is found between affective and cognitive aspects of the conscience Accessibly written and incorporating case studies and detailed notation throughout this is a highly practical work ideal for psychoanalysts psychiatrists psychologists students and professionals working with children adolescents and adults      Affective Neuroscience in Psychotherapy Francis

Stevens, 2021-09-27 Most psychological disorders involve distressful emotions yet emotions are often regarded as secondary in the etiology and treatment of psychopathology This book offers an alternative model of psychotherapy using the patient s emotions as the focal point of treatment This unique text approaches emotions as the primary source of intervention where emotions are appreciated experienced and learned from as opposed to being regulated solely Based on the latest developments in affective neuroscience Dr Stevens applies science based interventions with a sequential approach for helping patients with psychological disorders Chapters focus on how to use emotional awareness emotional validation self compassion and affect reconsolidation in therapeutic practice Interventions for specific emotions such as anger abandonment jealousy and desire are also addressed This book is essential reading for clinicians practicing psychotherapy social workers and licensed mental health counselors as well as anyone interested in the emotional science behind the brain Emotion in Education ,2011-04-28 This edited book examines some of the current inquiry related to the study of emotions in educational contexts There has been a notable increased interest in educational research on emotions Emotion in Education represents some of the most exciting and current research on emotions and education and has the potential to impact research in this area This combination of variety timeliness potential for transformation of the field and uniqueness make this a must have resource for academics in the fields of education educational psychology emotion psychology cultural psychology sociology and teacher education The chapters have been written for scholars in the area but authors also wrote with graduate students in mind Therefore the book is also be a great volume for graduate seminars Provides in depth examination of emotions in educational contexts Includes international roster of contributors who represent a variety of disciplines Represents a number of different research approaches Feeling Film: Affect and Authenticity in Popular Cinema Greg Singh,2014-01-21 Cinema has the capacity to enflame our passions to arouse our pity to inspire our love Feeling Film is a book that examines the emotional encounters found in contemporary popular cinema cultures Examining melodrama film noir comic book franchises cult indie movies and romantic comedy within the context of a Jungian informed psychology and contemporary movements in film philosophy this book considers the various kinds of feelings engendered by our everyday engagements with cinema Greg Singh questions the popular idea of what cinema is and considers what happens during the anticipation and act of watching a movie through to the act of sharing our feelings about them the reviewing process and repeat viewing practices Feeling Film does this through a critique of purely textual approaches instead offering a model which emphasises lived warm embodied and inhabited psychological relationships between the viewer and the viewed It extends the narrative action of cinema beyond the duration of the screening into realms of anticipation and afterlife in particular providing insight into the tertiary and participatory practices afforded through rich media engagement In rethinking the everyday co productive relationship between viewer and viewed from this perspective Feeling Film reinstates the importance of feelings as a central concern for film theory What emerges from this study is a re engagement of the place of emotion affect and feeling in film theory and criticism In reconsidering the duration of the cinematic encounter Feeling Film makes a significant contribution to the understanding of the inter subjective relationship between viewer and viewed It takes post Jungian criticism into the realms of post cinema technologies and reignites the dialogue between depth psychology and the study of images as they appear to and for us This book will make essential reading for those interested in the relationship between film and aspects of depth psychology film and philosophy students at advanced undergraduate and postgraduate levels film and cinema academics and cinephiles

The Oxford Handbook of Positive Emotion and Psychopathology June Gruber,2019-09-05 Considerable research has been devoted to understanding how positive emotional processes influence our thoughts and behaviors and the resulting body of work clearly indicates that positive emotion is a vital ingredient in our human quest towards well being and thriving Yet the role of positive emotion in psychopathology has been underemphasized such that comparatively less scientific attention has been devoted to understanding ways in which positive emotions might influence and be influenced by psychological disturbance Presenting cutting edge scientific work from an internationally renowned group of contributors The Oxford Handbook of Positive Emotion and Psychopathology provides unparalleled insight into the role of positive emotions in mental health and illness The book begins with a comprehensive overview of key psychological processes that link positive emotional experience and psychopathological outcomes The following section focuses on specific psychological disorders including depression anxiety trauma bipolar disorder and schizophrenia as well as developmental considerations The third and final section of the Handbook discusses translational implications of this research and how examining populations characterized by positive emotion disturbance enables a better understanding of psychiatric course and risk factors while simultaneously generating opportunities to bridge gaps between basic science models and psychosocial interventions With its rich and multi layered focus The Oxford Handbook of Positive Emotion and Psychopathology will be of interest to researchers teachers and students from a range of disciplines including social psychology clinical psychology and psychiatry biological psychology and health psychology affective science and neuroscience

Marriage Counselling in the Community W. L. Herbert,F. V. Jarvis,2013-10-22 Marriage Counselling in the Community is a theoretical and practical introduction to the subject of marriage counseling and aims to help people faced with marital problems using the method of social casework Aside from discussing relationships in marriage this book considers the relationship between counselor and client areas of treatment and approach to treatment It also looks at some situations in which a successful outcome in helping the marriage is less likely This book is comprised of 11 chapters and opens with an overview of the dynamics of relationships within the marriage and how such relationships within the family group affect the children The following chapters focus on human relationships especially their origins in the group normally the family group their fundamental contribution to the development of the individual including his ability to mature emotionally and the effects of such relationships and the understanding of them in the field of marriage counseling The reader is also introduced to how the marriage counselor s understanding of relationships is put to use in practice The final chapter deals with some of the principal people and agencies to which and from which wives and husbands with problems tend to be referred This monograph will be a useful resource for marriage counselors and social caseworkers

A Theory of Feelings Agnes Heller,2009-02-16 A Theory of Feelings examines the problem of human feelings widely understood from phenomenological analytic and historical perspectives It begins with an analysis of drives and affects and pursues the nature of feeling itself in all of its variability through a close study of the distinctive categories of emotions emotional dispositions orientive feelings and the passions As such the starting point of the analysis entails an examination of the characteristics of human involvement or our ways of being in the world Building upon this assessment of the conditions of human involvement the philosophical history and emotional economy characteristic of modern relationships is treated and the nature of expression social division suffering and responsibility is evaluated in light of the theory of feeling presented here The book is recommended to anyone interested in philosophy psychology sociology and cognitive science

Emotion Concepts Zoltan Kövecses,2012-12-06 This chapter briefly describes the general goals of the book introduces the most fundamental features of the methodology that is employed to achieve these goals and gives an outline of the structure of the book A more detailed account of the goals and methodology is presented in chapters 2 and 3 respectively What the Book Is About The main objective of this study is to attempt to answer the question How do people understand their emotions As we shall see in the next chapter a large number of scholars have tried to provide answers to this question The interest in the way people understand their emotions has led scholars to the issue of the nature of emotion concepts and emotional meaning Since the notion of understanding involves or presupposes the notions of concept and meaning it was only natural for scholars with an interest in the way people understand their emotions to turn their attention to emotion concepts and the meaning associated with emotion terms So the broader issue has often become more specific For example Davitz in his The Language of Emotion formulated the central question in the following way What does a person mean when he says someone is happy or angry or sad Davitz 1969 1

Aristotle on Emotions in Law and Politics Liesbeth Huppes-Cluysenaer,Nuno M.M.S. Coelho,2018-02-13 In this book experts from the fields of law and philosophy explore the works of Aristotle to illuminate the much debated and fascinating relationship between emotions and justice Emotions matter in connection with democracy and equity they are relevant to the judicial enforcement of rights legal argumentation and decision making processes in legislative bodies and courts The decisive role that emotions feelings and passions play in these processes cannot be ignored not even by those who believe that emotions have no legitimate place in the public sphere A growing body of literature on these topics recognizes the seminal insights contributed by Aristotle This book offers a comprehensive analysis of his thinking in this context as well as proposals for inspiring dialogues between his works and those written by a selection of modern and contemporary thinkers As such the book offers a valuable resource for students of law philosophy rhetoric politics ethics and history but also for readers interested in the ongoing debate about legal positivism and the relevance of emotions for legal and political life in today's world
